ARCHITECT FEES ON TECHNICAL SCHOOL BOOSTED BY SUITS

Board Must Pay Shot for the Nutter Action.

WHO RAISED THE WALLS?

Probe Will Be Held Into Disclosure Made at the Assizes.

The board of education will have to pay the shot for the Nutter suit. The taxpayer will have this little bill tacked to his expense. Mr. Nutter secured good fees for the work. Prior to the suit he was paid $1,200 in fees, 50 per cent of the amount due him on the contract. In addition, he is given $2,000 clear by the settlement, making his fee for the whole work $3,200. He received $250 extra, but this is to cover the court costs.

He was engaged as chief architect with Watt & Blackwell. His fee was to be 2 per cent on the contract price, $120,000, or $2,400 for the whole work. He received two instalments, and the court has given him the rest of the money, and some more. With 30 per cent of the work still uncompleted, or at least uncompleted when the trouble arose, he is relieved of all responsibility in connection with the work, and is paid in full, with a bonus.

Dispute as to Fees.
There is some dispute as to the architect's fees. Mr. Nutter has been offered for some months. Watt & Blackwell have to finish. Some claim that this item will have to do all the work that it will be the final offer. Some claim that it will be the final offer. Some claim that it will be the final offer.

Then the court costs and lawyer's expenses will be heavy. City Solicitor Meredith has not sent in his bill, and it will be rather high, the number of witnesses summoned being large, and the estimate of $1,000 expenses is made at the city hall, and it may be more. There will be an investigation into the order issued for the extra six inches added to the height of the school. It is understood that no authority has been given for this. There is a dispute between Mr. Nutter and Mr. Purdy, the contractor. The latter says that Mr. Nutter gave the order for the work, while the latter denies this. The members of the board of education did not know anything about this extra, and many were quite surprised to learn of it. This added $2,000 to the cost of the school. Other extras were authorized, but this was never authorized. There are no re-

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

BURIED AT CLINTON

The funeral of Mrs. Ethel M. Hooper, wife of John Hooper, who died on Wednesday, was held from the family residence, 156 Ann street, to the Grand Trunk depot on Thursday. Rev. J. W. Knox conducted the services. The body was forwarded to Clinton, where burial will take place from the residence of Mrs. Hooper's father, Mr. Hooper, who was 12 years of age, and is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hooper, and a sister, Mrs. M. Hooper.

BURIED AT WOODLAND

The funeral of Stuart A. Johnston, the well-known farmer, who died on Monday at his residence in White Oak, was held on Wednesday afternoon at the Woodland Cemetery. Rev. R. Wilson conducted the services.

INTERMENT AT PALMERSTON

Funeral services for Miss Josephine Maloney, who died on Tuesday, were held at the residence of her father, Mr. Maloney, 387 Central avenue, on Wednesday afternoon. The body was shipped to Palmerston, where interment was made.

MAILED

Miss Mallett is survived by her father, William H. Mallett, two brothers, James and Fred, of Palmerston, and two sisters, Mrs. William Thompson of Woodstock, and Mrs. Howard McGinn of this city.

MILITARY DRILL STILL CONTROLS GERMAN PEOPLE

Mentally and Morally Not Yet Equal To Throwing Off the Yoke.

SMALL CLEAVAGE MADE

London Press Warns Against Building Too Much On Strikes.

London, Feb. 1.—Little fresh information on the strike movement in Germany had come through early today, and virtually all the news in the morning papers here had been delayed in transmission. None of the Berlin newspapers of Wednesday's date have arrived. An Austrian official, however, says that the strike movement in Germany is not printing owing to the lack of paper.

The situation is extremely vague. The scarcity of news induces some correspondents in London to assume that the strike movement is still in the hands of the German people. The German people are not yet equal to throwing off the yoke.

LOW-GRADE WHEAT DEMAND OF MILLERS

Little High-Grade Wheat Offered and Business Is Light.

Winnipeg, Jan. 31.—There was a fair amount of offerings today of No. 1 and 2 feed, cash oats. In the higher grades there was a scarcity of offerings, and consequently business was light. Millers and exporters were in the market for the lower grades of wheat.

There was an excellent demand for cash barley, but only a few cars were offered. The demand for cash barley was strong at previous spreads, but there was little being offered.

May barley established a new record at 189c, but closed the lower. May and July oats declined 1c and 1 1/2c respectively. Flax closed 1c down for January, and 1 1/2c lower for May.
