Temiskaming was in good enquiry through the whole day, and there was not attempt made to force the stock on the market, in fact the very recesse was certainly the case. The outtanding short interest in this stock of finding it difficult to borrow shares and more difficult to borrow shares and more difficult to borrow shares is finding it difficult to borrow shares and more difficult to buy any to cover the stock, which they have already sold. Altho the prices of the shares did not have any speculative advance, all offerings were quickly picked up as fast as they were presented.

Harry Thomson, superintendent of the Larder to the Lucky Boy mine in the Larder Lake district, was the first man into the property as compared with a certain findered institution, to a figure which meant a depreciation in the paper value of the property as compared with a few months ago of approximately $2.500,000. Nothwithstanding the uncertainty that prevalls just now, it must be plain to the student of the situation to this there is a large and nervous short interest in the market which must inevitably bring about an early speculative rally at least.

Harry Thomson, superintendent of the Larder to the Lucky Boy mine in the Larder Lake district, was the first man into the Lucky Boy mine in the Larder to the work on this property, as well as assessment work on many others up the work has been going on all the winter on the property and at the present time there are 12 men working under his direction. The machinery is complete and expected to start working in two weeks' time.

On the Reddick property next the Lucky Boy, there are 15 men at work, and work is being done on the Tournenie claim, where there are eight men.

Mr. Thomson is assured of the function of the Larder to the L gether with the fact that a number of mines are now on a regular dividend paying basis, with substantial bonuses being added from time to time, we judge the present to be exceedingly factorable for the purchase of these stocks, as, owing to a long decline, most of the share's are selling away below their intensic value, and all indications point to an upward movement at any time; in fact, the market has already shown a marked improvement during the past two weeks.

Now is the opportunity to purchase dividend paying stocks, at prices which shere will yield the investor from 12 per cent. New York Curb.

Cobalt securities had a much better appearance in to-day's market. The selling was less aggressive, and it was distinctly more difficult to buy stock to-day than it has been at any time during the week. We are of the opinion that professionals have oversold themselves, and that they will have difficulty in buying in, except at a loss. The low-priced stocks are not offering freely, except Peterson Lake, in which a professional attack to dislodge stock is now going on. We still adhere to our conviction, that good profits can be made by buying around present prices. In our opinion, Temiskaming will be put much higher, although we cannot yet counsel its purchase as a permanent hold.
