Great Card for Closing Day Including the Toronto Cup Leafs Lose to Bisons in Twelve Innings, Then Win Second Game

MURRAY-KAY, LIMITED

GET A EVEN SPLIT WITH BUFFALO HERD

Home Run Beat Leafs in Overtime in First-Won Second Handily.

The Leafs and the Bisons staged a double-header at the island yesterday, and Patsy Donovan's Herd stopped the Leafs' winning streak. The Leafs had won seven straight when they stacked up against Buffalo in the first game. The Bisons got the verdict, 5 to 4, in twelve innings, after a thrilling game. The Leafs came from behind to tie it up in the ninth, only to have Kopp bang one into the pleachers for the circuit in the twelfth of this contest. Our Jimmy Smith sup-Aled a homer, a double and the for his little lot. Jimmy also fielded in brilliant style. Bunny Hearne went the whole route, while Burfelo yanked Gaw whole route, while Buffalo yanked Gaw after the Leafs got fresh with him in the minth. McCabe finished well.

The second argument was easy for the Leafs. They won, 5 to 1, and Tipple kept the Bisons pretty well in hand all the way. Lajole's boys made it sure by tacking on three runs in the first innings. About two thousand fans were present. That first game was a tidy argumen That first game was a tidy argument clubs.

for a while. Buffalo won out in the twelfth, 5 to 4. but the early stages were Providence

After Gaw had died, Kopp supplied his second single. He ambled on to third on Channell's single. Blackburne caught Channell when he overran the bag by a quick throw to Graham. Kopp came scampering in on Carlstrom's hit.

Larry's hopefuls tied it in the fourth. Altenberg poked safely into centre, but Whiteman rolled out to Hummell. Larry's two-base rap let Altenberg home. Graham lifted to Gill and Blackburne walked. Blackburne and Lajote tried the doublesteal, but Larry was nipped at the plate. It looked all over when Buffalo piled on three runs in the sixth. Carlstrom singled. McDonald laid down a bunt, and Hearne these into centre field trying to head off Carlstrom at second. The latter went to third and scored on Hummell's safe bunt down the first base line. Gill sacrificed. The infield came in, and then Kilillea poked over Lajoie's head, scoring two.

Kililea poked over Lajoie's head, scoring two.

The Leafs got one of these back in the seventh. Jimmy Smith's third hit of the game was a homer to right field. The ball hit the diamond ring sign, and Jimmy earned a fifty-dollar sparkler.

The ninth was a hum-dinger. The Leafs tied the score by putting over two runs. After Lajoie had rolled out, Graham and Blackburne hit safely. Jimmy Smith came up and the crowd howled for a hit. He replied with a double, that scored Graham and put Blackburne one station from home. E. Blackburne was scored Graham and put islacaburn was sent up to hit for Lalonge, and Buffalo promptly yanked Gaw. McCabe took up the pitching burden, and hit Blackburn with the ball. Hearne raised a long fly, and R. Blackburne beat the return home. It went to the twelfth, and then Kopp dropped one into the bleachers for a home run and the game.

The Leats won the second fixture, 5 to 1. They rushed over three runs in the first innings, to make it sure. Jacobson fanned and McDonald dropped Altenberg's fly. Whiteman's double counted Altenberg's, and Larry Lajoie supplied the single to score Whiteman. Graham singled, and R. Blackburne walked, to fill the bases. Lajoie beat home the return of Smith's ions fly. Three runs; and everything was safe.

The Leafs added their fourth run in the fourth. R. Blackburne walked, and Smith singled, his fifth hit for the day. E. Blackburn lifted to centre, and Tipple forced Russell Blackburne at third. Jacobson's safe rap scored Smith.

Buffalo's lonely run came along in the fifth. The bases were filled in quick order. Hummell walked and Gill singled. Killilea was hit by a pitched ball. Casey hit into a double-play, Hummell scorings when the double-killing was being made. Larry Lajoie singled and stole second

Fine weather and the big card will likely see all attendance records broken today.

Lyke Lands First,

Lyke won the opening event for maidens by a clever ride on Parr that passed the timing lieuaty Spot in the last few humps. With a good ride, Exhoner, the second, for two-year-old fillies. She went out in front and the issue was never in doubt. Ferm Hanley firmshed strongly second all alone. Near took the show, as Hautic Croxton, that ran for wardly, found the distance too far.

Hornet, the favorite, was off in the second flight, and was probably best in the first mile race for maidens. Twin Stream made the early pace, staying there till entering the lower turn, when J. W. Hunley went out and showed the way, being threatened by Hornet, that
