Receipts of live stock at the Union Stock Yards yesterday consisted of 133 cars—2244 cattle, 105 calves, 2615 hogs and 360 sheep and lambs.

The live stock market opened yesterday with 2244 cattle of all grades on sale. With a few exceptions, the quality was not so good for the bulk of cattle as is usually offered on Monday. Trade opened strong, drovers asking from 25c to 50c more than last week's closing quotations. Buyers were in no mood to haggie over prices. Cattle they wanted, and cattle they must have, even if they did pay more than the animals were worth. As a result, every grade of butcher cattle advanced a good 25c to 50c over last week's close.
