with Northern Direct, won a stirring four-heat victory in the Vassar 212 class pace, the feature of the third matinee of the Poughkeepsie Grand Circuit meeting. Placing second to Symol S. Forest and Darvester in the first two heats, the son of the Northern Man took the third and the fourth and closing miles with beautiful bursts of speed down the home stretch. Darvester won second in the money.

Bonnie Del outlasted the field in the 2:09 trot, winning all three heats without being seriously extended. Moko Axworthy was second in all three heats, with Labé Riddell for third in the summaries. Tootsie Toise and Saka had a tight duel in the 2:07 trot, but the former had the edge and won all three heats.
Inna Jay, Ernest's old campaigner, made her first appearance here since her big trot, 1917, but found the going not to her liking and was drawn before the third heat, after having rated third in the first two.

H. Fleming, with Nedda, was the class of the 2:06 trot, defeating Don de Lopez, Baron Coganite, Charlie Rex and Peter Harvester. Rex made a fine bid in each of the first two heats, after breaks, but did not have enough to win.

FINE LOT OF HARNESS HORSE ENTRIES AT THE CANADIAN NATIONAL EXHIBITION

Except in the Free-For-All That Was Declared Off Because of Only Two Nominations, But One Trot Had To Be Decided.

The elaborate race program of the Canadian National Exhibition received a fine response in entries from the horsemen of the province. Fifty-four entries were received for the eight events announced, but only two were named in the free-for-all, and that race was declared off.
The 2:30 trot, however, received such a lengthy list as to necessitate splitting it into two divisions, carded for the opening day. This makes Saturday a gay day for lovers of the diagonal-saited steeds, also the final day, Thursday, when the 3-year-old trot and the 2:14 trot will appear on the program. The entries and dates follow:

Saturday, Sept. 4.
