FAVORS TO IRISH NOT APPRECIATED

Rev. William Patterson Says Britain Has Shown Great Forbearance.

"For the last fifty years no nation under heaven has done more for any other nation than England has done for Ireland," said Rev. Dr. William Patterson of Cooke's Church, lecturing last night in High Park Methodist Church, under the auspices of the Mothers' and Teacners' Association of Annette Street School. "There is no country on the face of the earth has better land laws than Ireland has had in the last eighteen years. Now the people may buy the land, and the farmers do own their own land—as you do in Canada."

Referring to the war, Dr. Patterson told of England and Scotland having applied to them conscription, but Ireland went free. "Ireland was the only place in the empire," he explained, "where there was no conscription. And that is the place that is troubling the empire tonight."

The speaker referred to the period of Gladstone, when three-questers of the tonight."

The speaker referred to the period of Gladstone, when three-quarters of the people had to pay tithes, the church being established under Gladstone. Then followed measures causing a gap between landlord and tenant, which was bridged over eighteen years ago by the government of England and Scotland at a cost of $500,000,000, enabling the purchase of land.

BEACHES PREPARING FOR CHURCH BAZAAR

Young People's Presbyterian Society Has Instructive and Social Evening.

Final preparations have been made for the bazaar to be held in Beech Avenue Methodist gymnasium on Saturday next under the auspices of the Ladies' Aid Society of which Mrs. E. A. Caswell is president. The proceeds will be devoted to the funds of the organization.

A largely attended meeting of Kew Beach Presbyterian Young People's Society was held in the Sunday school building last evening with Frank Boselly, president, in the chair. Three addresses were delivered, as follows: "The Theological Side of Presbyterianism," by George McCullough; "The Early History of the Church," by Miss Bessie Bafflle, and "The History of the Presbyterian Church in Canada," by Miss Bradd.

A pleasant social time was afterwards spent. Among those present was Rev. J. A. Cranstin, pastor.

Under the auspices of Beech Avenue Methodist Men's Club a pleasant social evening was spent in the Sunday school room last night. J. Cummer, president, occupied the chair. A short musical program was contributed and refreshments were served.
