

PERIODICAL OR OCCASIONAL EVENTS, 1894.

January.....	3	Sudden and beautiful display of red aurora. 18th, Robin seen.
February.....	15	Fine display of halos and parhelia, 22, 23 and 25, large magnetic disturbance and magnificent auroral displays.
	28	Wild Duck flying N.W. Geese flying N.
March.....	9	Bluebirds, sap running freely, maple in bloom. 11th, Bay clear of ice.
	13	Oriole seen. 14th, Crows numerous. 18th, Song sparrows, Bluebirds very numerous. 19th, Blackbirds.
	19	Grey Birds, Hawks, Butterflies, Plovers, Bees, Juncos.
	22	Soft maple in bloom. 26th, Meadow larks.
April.....	2	Phoebes. Wax Wings.
	11	Last snow. 13th, Frogs piping. Hypatica in bloom.
	13	Arbutus in bloom. 17th, Last ice formed. 18th, Swallows arrived, White butterflies. 19th, House wren, Flicker; Hard maple in bloom; first thunder. 20th, Chipping sparrows.
	22	Elm in bloom. 23rd, Wilson's Thrush; Trillium in bloom.
	25	Hoar frost; Thrashers.
May.....	3	Plum in bloom; Whip-poor-will; strawberries in bloom; cherry in bloom. 5th, Almonds in bloom; japonica in bloom; peach trees in bloom. 6th, Orioles numerous.
	8	Apple in bloom. 10th, Pears in bloom; Humming bird; ground lark; 12th, Field cricket.
	15	Lilac in bloom; Horse chestnut in bloom; Night hawks.
	29	Robins fledged.
June.....	12	Large hail fell during thunderstorm.
	22	Sun very hot; highest temperature of year, 90° 7.
August.....	25	Leaves falling off the trees from the drouth; ground cracking; pastures burnt up.
September.....	6	Large flocks of Blackbirds. 9th, Swallows last seen.
October.....	3	Last thunderstorm of year. 5th, Duck passing S.
	10	Geese passing S.W. 14th, First snow of season.
	15	First frost; First ice.
November.....	9	First measurable snow of year.
December.....	28	Bay frozen over.