CANON BROCK IS VERY ILL

He Was Twice Stricken With Paralysis Yesterday

AND IS UNCONSCIOUS

Stroke Suffered at His Daughter's Home in Kentville-- Supplied St. John's (Stone) Church Early This Year-- Some Notable Sermons.

KENTVILLE, N. S., Aug. 30 (Special).--Rev. Canon Brock is unconscious and seriously ill at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Clifford Tuttle. Apparently in good health yesterday morning, the first stroke of paralysis occurred at 10 o'clock, and the second stroke in the afternoon. His daughters, Mrs. B. Raymond, of Woodstock, Miss Kathleen Brock, who is spending the summer in the White Mountains, and his sons, Arthur Brock, of Fredericton, and Cecil Brock, of Chicago, have been notified of his illness by telegraph and will arrive in Kentville as soon as possible.

The sad news of Canon Brock's illness was the heart of St. John's with deep regret, as he made many friends during his recent visit to the city and his sermons delivered in St. John's (Stone) church created widespread and favorable comment.

Rev. Isaac Brock was born in England and is of a collateral branch of the family of the late Sir Isaac Brock, hero of Queenston heights, and received his degree as master of arts from Queen's College, Oxford, and that of doctor of divinity from the University of King's College, Windsor. From 1832 to 1837 he was rector of Galway, Ireland; filling a similar position at Melton, England, from 1837 to 1865, and from 1865 to 1868.

In the latter year he came to Canada and became principal of Horton College, London, Ontario, where he remained five years. He was also for a time at the college in Leavenworth, Kan., and from 1875 to 1888 was president of the Royal Bank of Canada, and in 1888 was president of the King's College, Windsor. He is the son of Canon of St. Luke's Cathedral, Halifax, where his father resided until his death in 1891, and he has been filling that position since that time.

His work as Arthur Brock, manager of the Royal Bank of Canada, and his daughters, Mrs. B. Raymond, of Woodstock, whose husband is a brother of Rev. O. B. Poirer, and Mrs. Clifford Tuttle of Kentville and Miss Kathleen Brock.

During the interval between the death of Rev. John de Soyres and the coming of Rev. Gustav A. Kuhnring he officiated most acceptably at St. John's (Stone) church.

Notable Sermons. During 1904 and 1905 Rev. Canon Brock preached a series of seven sermons on the Gospel of the Larger Hope. The first six were preached in St. Luke's Cathedral, Halifax. Four of them were preached again in May and June of this year in St. John's church, in this city. The seventh was preached in Wolfville. It was the intention to have this series published, as he had been urged to do by many persons, including several men in authority in the church. The last of subjects treated was as follows:

- I. The ultimate salvation of all mankind God's purpose in the ages of the future.
II. The Larger Hope believes in the certainty, but not in the endlessness of the future punishment of sin.
III. The mystery of God, and no final dualism possible in God's universe.
IV. Hell and Retribution.
V. The Loyalty of the Larger Hope to the teaching of the Eastern and Anglican churches and the Roman Catholic.

WHERE ARE OUR SUMMER CAPS? PLAINTIVE CRY OF I. C. R. MEN

Moncton Trainmen Expect to Wear Them This Winter With Ear Tabs Attached--Knights of Pythias Decoration Day--Typhoid Fever Prevalent in Railway Town.

MONCTON, August 29--(Special).--I. C. R. trainmen are wondering when they are going to receive their summer caps. This part of their uniform was promised some time ago and it is said the order was given to a local merchant in the early part of the summer, but the brakemen are still waiting for their caps. It was hoped that the caps would be forthcoming in time to be worn by the trainmen in the Labor Day parade, but in this the men are also to be disappointed. Now the brakemen are speculating whether the summer caps will be rigged out with ear tabs for winter.

The local Knights of Pythias today observed the beautiful custom of decorating the graves of their departed brethren. About 50 members of the order marched to the rural cemetery and the graves decorated were: George A. Whalen, Wm. Dixon, W. W. Estabrook, Duncan Coffin, Hugh Wright, Robert Retz, Thomas Robson, L. G. B. Lawson, George E. Boyd, Samuel Payne, Walter Morris and George McChislock. William H. Murray and James Ross, members of the Moncton Lodge, are buried in Fernhill. ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 30--A great diplomatic victory for M. Witte but a great moral victory for Japan.

of the diplomatic corps are away on their vacations, but those remaining in the capital when acquainted with the result of the conference at Portsmouth expressed their gratification and appreciation of the outcome. The news of the peace was received with the greatest excitement at the opening of the market.

How London Heard It

LONDON, Aug. 30, 12.43 p. m.--The news of the conclusion of peace at Portsmouth, N. H., yesterday, reached London so late last evening that with the exception of official and diplomatic circles and those who were in the city at a late hour, the announcement in the morning papers came as a complete surprise.

On the Stock Market

The announcement that peace had been arranged between the Russian and the Japanese plenipotentiaries yesterday caused the stock markets to open with a somewhat buoyant tendency today, and prices established a smart advance, particularly in the case of Russian bonds, which gained four per cent. Japanese bonds were also affected, but not to such a great extent, opening at 11 higher. Consols advanced a quarter point, and American bonds generally were stronger. There was moderate excitement at the opening of the market.

view, may be regarded as the greatest victory of the three. It belongs as we think to President Roosevelt. He may, for instance, have held out to Japan inducements which would have the double effect of securing peace with Russia and routing up the weeds of disagreement between Japan and America.

London Press Comment

The evening papers follow the lead of the morning papers in the bestowing of praise on President Roosevelt, to whom they give the fullest credit for the decision of the conference, whose outcome was entirely at variance with their daily predictions since the opening of negotiations. Both papers and people are so astounded at the outcome of the conference that they feel that there is something in the agreement arrived at which has not yet been published, and that if it is not the case then the new Anglo-Japanese treaty has affected the result in some way.

PORTSMOUTH, N. H., Aug. 30--The following statement was issued by Mr. Sato on behalf of the Japanese plenipotentiaries: "The questions of the final disposition of the island of Sakhalin and the reimbursement to Japan of her war expenses, have from the first been issues upon which an absolute divergence of views existed. The differences of opinion upon these points were not one, but both have frequently been expressed in a small and amicable manner. His Majesty the Emperor of Japan, according to the dictates of humanity and in a spirit of perfect cordiality and in the interests of peace, authorized his plenipotentiaries to waive the question of reimbursement of war expenses and has consented to a division of Sakhalin upon terms which are mutually acceptable to both parties.
