Certificates of Honour will be given to those students who, at any of the examinations, have been placed in the First Class in Honours in any department.

Starr Medals.—The late Richard Noble Starr, M.D., devised certain property for the encouragement of the study of the subjects of Anatomy, Physiology and Pathology. In fulfilment of this object the Senate has established one gold and two silver medals, called the "Starr Medals." These medals are conferred upon the three Bachelors of Medicine who have attained in the course of their annual professional examinations, the highest marks in the following subjects :—Anatomy for the first and second years, and in Surgical Anatomy of the third year ; Physiology for the first and second years, and Histology, Physiological Chemistry and Practical Physiology of the second year ; General Pathology and Morbid Anatomy and Histology, of the third year. Every recipient of the medal must have attained the standing of First Class in each of the above-mentioned subjects, and must have been classed in honours in the fourth Professional Examination.

Regulations for Undergraduates.—Undergraduates are required to attend lectures and receive practical instruction during each of four years, at ONE OR OTHER of the Schools of Medicine recognized for this purpose by the University. Each undergraduate, at the end of each of the four years of his course, may present himself at the annual examination of that particular year, or if he prefer to do so, he may elect to take the Primary Examination, held at the end of the second, and the Final Examination held at the end of the fourth year. The annual examinations are styled the first, second, third, and fourth professional examinations, and are to be passed in separate years in the order named, by all candidates for the degree. Graduates in Arts of this University, with honours in the Department of Natural Sciences, will be exempted from the first professional examination, and from the fee for the same. They must, however, take the Anatomy of that examination along with the second professional examination. The fee for each professional examination is Five Dollars, payable when the candidate notifies the Registrar of his intention to present himself. The following certificates are required for the different examinations :—

First Professional.—(1) Of having attended lectures on the following subjects :—Anatomy, 100 ; Physiology, Inorganic Chemistry,
