Toy Banks, B. C. 675.

(Montreal Herald.) The toy bank, or, to be exact, the child's savings bank, has become a popular institution in Montreal. It may surprise some to know what an ancient custom juvenile savings is. The Thrift Magazine says that among the relics dug up by the scientific expedition which has charge of the excavation of ancient Utiu—the twin city of Carthage of the long ago—is a toy bank that belonged to some Phoeniclan child 2,500 years ago. It was found in a cemetery, probably buried with the child as a choice possession.

Is This a Joke? (Toronto Star.)

Political speakers just now should be careful about the phrases they use. A Toronto man says he was at a meeting the other night, when a speaker said, "And now, gentlemen, I want to tax your memory." "Good heavens," cried a voice, "has it come to that?"

Heron Kill Trout.

The great blue heron, which is protected under the Federal Migratory Bird law, has increased tremendously in numbers in the vicinity of Stillwater Reservoir, and are undoing all the good work done by the state and various fish and game clubs this summer in stocking the brooks and streams flowing into Stillwater Reservoir with brook trout, according to the statement of E. S. Cullings, secretary of the Black River regulating board, says The Water-town, N. Y., Times.

ungentlemanly tones. It shrieks, whistles, roars or blares as it sees fit, reckless of the outraged ears of the neighborhood. It is a well-meant device of our twentieth century civilization which in actual use angers and fatigues its hearers.

Oh, Doctor

When your pretty nurse threatens to leave because you're perfectly well, the only thing a gentleman can do is to get smashed up again. A howlingly funny comedy-drama, as clean as a whistle, chuckful of hilarious thrills and a delightful love story—made from the funniest story Harry Leon Wilson ever wrote. The photoplay is even funnier than the story.
