GOLDEN WEDDING DAY OBSERVED

Celebration in Honor of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gurney.

Hearty and well, and in the enjoyment of the company of a group of friends, Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Gurney of Elliot Row, yesterday celebrated the golden anniversary of their wedding. The observance of the notable event in the lives of the popular bride and groom of 1878 was carried out at the Log Cabin Club quarters at Loch Lomond, where the hours passed speedily and pleasantly.

A feature of the day was the presentation of a purse of gold and many other valued gifts to the principals in the happy gathering. Among those present were: Mr. Gurney's brother, Willard A. Gurney of Arlington, Mass., who came here for the celebration; Miss Forsyth, who was the bridesmaid 50 years ago; Miss F. McInerney, Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Armstrong, Miss Mary J. Armstrong, Miss Rachel Armstrong, Fenwick Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Potts, Miss Gladys Potts, Mrs. E. J. Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ritchie, Mrs. Winifred Ritchie, Robert J. Armstrong, Mrs. A. McGuire.

On the evening of September 9, 1878 Mr. Gurney and Miss Mary J. Forsyth were married by Rev. Dr. James Bennett of St. John Presbyterian Church, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Forsyth, 10 Pitt street. The bridesmaid was Miss Elizabeth C. Forsyth, sister of the bride, and the groomsmen were Samuel Wilson, tailor. Some forty relatives were in the wedding party but time has removed all from this world's activities, except the bridesmaid who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Gurney.

Mr. Gurney will be seventy-four years old in next January, so light years have the years touched him in their passage, he would readily pass for a much younger man. Born in Boston, he came here in 1869 from Cambridge and was engaged with Henry Conroy, barber, in Canterbury street. A year later he went with Richard Heffer in Germain street and a little after that bought out his employer. Mr. Heffer removed to Newfoundland. Mr. Gurney continued in business in Germain street, in the James Reynolds building near the corner of King street and was 34 years, at that stand. He moved in 1904 to his present location in Charlotte street next to Breeze's corner and there he has continued ever since. It is a notable record of sixty years or more steady application to his chosen work and 63 years proprietorship.

Mr. Gurney was for a long time a member of the Independent Order of Foresters and is yet a member of the Oddfellows' organization. He has always taken interest in affairs of the day and has been a keen follower of sporting events. His good fellowship has won him staunch friends and they number many who will read with pleasure of his golden wedding and wish many more happy years for himself and his companion of fifty years.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "those crows in the spruce trees were rather garrulous early this morning. I could have wished for a little more lumber, but they had other intentions. I thought at first they were quarreling, but really believe they were aware of my visit and wanted me to see the beauty of the landscape and the river in the early morning."

"Yes, sir," said Hiram, "they ain't a crow in The Settlement that ain't proud to show it off. We're all boosters out here. Hev an other pancake—we're just buckwheat ourselves. Ever taste anything better fer breakfast?"

"Not for breakfast," said the reporter, "but that blueberry dumpling yesterday—well—I hope Mrs. Hornbeam will not tell any of my friends how many helpings I had."

Mrs. Hornbeam smiled and passed the butter.

"Hiram," said Hiram, "hes a special receipt fer that. Hev some more o' that maple honey from our own trees. 'I believe I will,' said the reporter. 'Do you know—I would like to tell the public about you. A man proud of his Settlement, proud of his farm, proud of his wife—really it is quite extraordinary in this age of grumblers and pessimists and quitters. You do me good.'"

"You needn't mention me at all," said Hiram. "Just say you didn't hear nobody in The Settlement wishin' they were somewhere else, but they was all thankful the Lord hed cast their lives in pleasant places—where they could git a good livin' without stealin' it from one another or workin' themselves to death. And that's the truth."

"It is indeed," said Mrs. Hornbeam, "do have another doughnut."

"I will indeed," said the reporter.

GERMAIN STREET WORK GOES ALONG

Petition Relative to Lighting Discussed at City Hall Meeting.

The carrying of the primary line of the civic distribution down Germain street and the matter of ornamental lighting for that street were before the City Council this morning. In connection with the primary line it was decided to notify the Germain street residents that no change would be made. In connection with the ornamental lighting it was decided to point out that the Civic Power Commission was the proper body to approach on the matter.

The Germain Street Improvement Association presented a petition pointing out that since 1911 they had spent $4,784 toward the beautifying of the street and asked that as the wires had not yet been placed the poles be removed, the grass plots repaired and the beauty of the street restored.

They suggested that if it were not possible to carry the pole line along Canterbury street, a conduit be used to carry the wires on Germain street, and that ornamental lighting be given the street, either from wooden or iron poles.

The Mayor said the wires had been strung and he suggested that a resolution be sent to the association pointing out that their request would not be in the public interest.

Commissioner Bullock said the Germain street people wanted the poles removed even if it meant the loss of the hydro altogether. They also took exception to the placing of the poles without action by the Council.

Commissioner Wigmore said in his opinion the new poles were all right and so high that no danger was created. If the New Brunswick Telephone Co. would use city poles it would be possible to get rid of a number of old poles which at present were in very bad condition.

Civic Commission.
Commissioner Thornton said it was his understanding that when he was delegated to build a distribution system the matter was handed over to the Civic Power Commission, and the Council was supposed to keep hands off. He did not see why they should interfere for Germain street any more than any other street.

Commissioner Frink said the people had expressed themselves as in favor of having a commission to "construct, maintain and operate a distribution system," and it was not now the duty of the Council to interfere. If Commissioner Bullock wanted to cancel the order and defy the wishes of the people, an hour and a half later he (Frink) did not propose to put himself in that position.

Commissioner Bullock said the Civic Commission had not the right to act independently of the City Council in the matter of locating the distribution system.

Mayor Fisher moved that in the opinion of the City Council it would not be in the interests of the citizens or the Germain street improvement Association to make any change in the system.

Mayor Fisher, Commissioners Wigmore and Thornton voted in favor of the motion. Commissioner Bullock and Frink against.

Commissioner Thornton said he could hardly understand the attitude of Commissioner Frink, who had spoken against any change and yet voted against the resolution of the Mayor. This, he thought, was hardly consistent. In his opinion the whole matter should go to the Power Commission instead of coming to the Council.

In connection with the request for lights, Mayor Fisher moved that it be the opinion of the Council that no addition to the ornamental system should be made at the present time.

Commissioner Bullock moved in amendment that the Association be referred to the Civic Power Commission in the matter of ornamental lighting.

Commissioner Frink said he would support this, as he thought any more to extend the ornamental system should come from the commission.

Barry Wilson said it was proposed to place a light on each pole in Germain street.

The amendment carried.
