

BANDITS KILL FOUR OF TRAIN CREW; BLOW UP MAIL CAR AND ESCAPE

Choose Tunnel on Southern Pacific Railway for Cold Blooded Crime.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—Leaving four dead men behind, a gang of four bandits fled toward the north after a sensational hold-up and robbery of the Southern Pacific crack San Francisco express train No. 19, at the highest point in the Sierran Mountains, seven miles south of Ashland, Ore. The dead are: BATES, S. L., engineer, of Dunsmuir, Cal., shot through the head. EDWARDS, J., mail clerk, killed when an explosion wrecked the mail car. JOHNSON, C. D., brakeman, of Ashland, Ore., shot through the chest. SENG, MARVIN, fireman, of Dunsmuir, shot through the head. Posses from three points are combing the wild country where the hold-up occurred in a search for the bandits. Only one report, in which the posse under Sheriff Calkins of Yreka, Cal., is working, gives a clue to their number.

This report says that the hold-up men, four in number, fled north along the Pacific Highway, which parallels the Southern Pacific tracks, in a high-powered touring car bearing a Washington license plate. The robbery appears to have been one of the most cold-blooded crimes ever recorded in this section. The train had left Ashland at 11:10 a. m. Ashland is a division point, and the engine crew had started their run there. Seventeen miles out, the train, carrying eight coaches in all, entered tunnel 13. The hold-up seems to have taken place as the locomotive emerged from the western end of the tunnel. Since the engine crew and Johnson, who was "deadheading" on the locomotive, were killed, the details of the tragedy cannot be ascertained. All that is known from passengers and Conductor Marratt is that the train came to a sudden stop while the passenger coaches were still in the darkness of the tunnel. "Immediately after the train stopped we heard an explosion," Marratt later reported to J. W. Fitzgerald, who went from Dunsmuir to the scene in a special train. Marratt found the bodies of the three lying beside the locomotive when he investigated after the explosion. The engineer was at the right of the engine, the other two on the other side. After killing the men, the robbers apparently entered the mail car. Just how Edwards, the mail clerk, died is unknown, but no bullet wounds were found in his body. The scene of the hold-up is on the mountain divide, practically on the California-Oregon State line. It is rugged, unpopulated country. The Pacific Highway for miles parallels the railroad and offered a chance for the bandits to escape with the aid of confederates waiting with automobiles. As soon as word of the hold-up reached San Francisco, J. H. Dyer, General Manager of the Southern Pacific, offered a reward of $2,000 "for information leading directly to arrest and conviction."

Elections In The County Tomorrow

Tomorrow is election day in the different parishes of the County of St. John, and in the districts there is expected to be a warm fight for election among the candidates. In the parish of St. Martins, there is one ticket, J. F. Shanklin, Ruben McOne and Robert Bowland, while the fourth candidate, who is running independent, is George Mosher. Mr. Bowland is running in the place of Robert Cosman, of Salmon River, who has retired from the running. In the parish of Lancaster, Councilors John T. O'Brien, William Golding and Murray Campbell, are being opposed by William McCavour, Andrew O. Patquin and Andrew C. Gregory. In the parish of Musquash, Councilors George Anderson and James O'Donnell, will be opposed by W. J. Dean, and Alexander Corcoran. In Simonds, Edgar Smith, George Simpson, and Rupert Taylor are on one ticket, while John Dainell, John Whalen and Frederick McLead are on the other.

Men's Mission At St. Peter's Started

Rev. Father O'Brien, C. S. R., preached the sermon at the closing of the mission for single women at St. Peter's church yesterday afternoon. Rev. A. McCann, C. S. R., recited the Rosary, and Rev. Francis Hill, C. S. R., gave benediction. There was a large attendance at the services and the final blessing was given at the close of the mission, which has been largely attended.

The men's mission was begun last evening, with Rev. A. McCann, C. S. R., preaching the sermon. Rev. P. Doyle, C. S. R., recited the Rosary, and Father Hill gave benediction. The mission for men will continue all week and will close next Sunday.

WHITE LILY WEEK WILL BE CONTINUED UNTIL OCTOBER 17. White Lily Week in St. John will be continued until October 17th. This has been made necessary by the fact that the window dressing expert employed by J. A. Marvin, Ltd., was late in completing his work in St. John, owing to the large number of windows requiring attention. Excellent displays of White Lily goods are in evidence all over the city and are eliciting much favorable comment. As a result of White Lily Week thousands of St. John people have been added to the list of satisfied Marvin patrons.

The hold-up seems to have taken place as the locomotive emerged from the western end of the tunnel. Since the engine crew and Johnson, who was "deadheading" on the locomotive, were killed, the details of the tragedy cannot be ascertained. All that is known from passengers and Conductor Marratt is that the train came to a sudden stop while the passenger coaches were still in the darkness of the tunnel. THE LIVING VOICE OF CARUSO and all the Paganery of Song of AIDA "His Master's Voice"

Victor Record No. 6400

The Theatre of the Home

The stage is set, the performers ready. Your mood this evening calls for the inspiring strains of Verdi. Suddenly you hear Caruso singing "Celeste Aida"—(Heavenly Aida)—clear, sweet, vibrant, real as life itself. For the moment you sit in an orchestra seat at the opera—with all its pomp and pageantry.

Then perhaps you long for the sweet strains of "The Last Rose of Summer"—and as the soft clear notes of Elman's violin sound in your ears, you can all but see him draw his bow across the magic strings.

But whether it be Caruso, or Elman, or the boom of Sousa's band, or the latest happy-go-lucky dance hit—"HIS MASTER'S VOICE" Victrola and "HIS MASTER'S VOICE" Victrola Records prove their superiority by making you forget the man-made reproduction and remember only the sensation of having living artists and real musical instruments—a few feet beyond the chair in which you sit.

And by virtue of such mastery performance "HIS MASTER'S VOICE" Victrola is the standard by which all instruments are judged. Often this causes many to refer to all instruments as Victrolas but for your own best interests as well as ours, remember there is only one real genuine Victrola—and that bears our famous trade-mark "HIS MASTER'S VOICE" under the lid. Be very careful to see that it is on the instrument you buy.

Genuine "His Master's Voice" Victrolas from $37.50 to $615.00

his subject The Romance of Medicine. He was listened to with deep interest. The secretary read a brief outline of the class since its organization in 1912 by the late Rev. W. R. Robinson. At the evening service the pastor, who is also the teacher of the class, preached a special sermon on "The Manhood of Christ." Special music was rendered by the choir, assisted by Mr. Cosman. The soloist of the evening was Miss Madeline Daley who sang very pleasantly, "Go to the Depths of God's promises."
