ADVENTURES OF THE TWINS

By Olive Roberts Barton

NO. 3—IN BEAN STALK LAND

Nancy and Nick were hiding behind a big log in Beanstalk Land, for they had seen a giant coming clapping, clatter, clatter in big wooden shoes. They were afraid of being stepped upon, so they hid. But what did the giant do but sit right down on the log when he reached it. He was a Dutch Giant and he wore not only great wooden shoes, but loose, baggy trousers with great patches and a funny short coat. And his pockets were big enough to hold a windmill. "Oh, where can my little dog have done?" he panted. "I had hunted and hunted and cannot find him. His ears were so cute and short and his tail was so cute and long, once. Oh, my poor little dog! He must be lost!" Suddenly the Twins heard a noise like the stamping of a hundred cows, and out from some huge bushes rushed a creature that looked as though one of the Rocky Mountains had grown a crop of hair and decided to take a journey. And it was making a noise much, much louder than the wooden shoes had done. "Oh, there you are!" cried the Dutch Giant happily. "Where have you been, you little rascal? Come here, Snap."

THE INCESSANT NIGHT COUGH

Not only does it rasp and tear at the chest, but it breaks up the night's rest, and renders the patient less able to resist its ravages. A single dose of Ayer's Cherry Pectoral will bring immediate relief. For more than 50 years Ayer's Cherry Pectoral has been the remedy and standby of thousands of Canadian homes.

And he cracked his fingers like thunder. The Twins saw the dog coming right at them. They weren't a bit frightened, for Silver Wing had told them that Beanstalk Land was a perfectly safe place, and only jolly giants lived there. But she hadn't said a word about the jolly giant's dogs, and it might be possible that Snap would mistake them for wood mice or something that Dutch dogs were specially fond of. "Quick!" whispered Nick. "Jump into the giant's pocket!" So holding tight to the cloth of his funny short coat, the Twins scrambled into one of his big square pockets. But troubles were not over! Snap was hungry and started to track around his master's clothes for a piece of weeny or bologna. And the first thing Nancy and Nick knew, a great wet nose began to sniffle and sniffle all over them and blow its hot breath down like a porpoise into the giant's pocket. "Oh, goodness!" gasped Nancy. "Jump!" gasped Nick. "Ah, ha! You got fooled that time!" roared the funny giant. "The other is the one! That was the empty pocket!" See, I know your Mister Curiosity! And the giant put his hand into his pocket where the Twins were—and found—what do you think! Nancy and Nick, of course! And he pulled them out and set them on his knee. "Fec, fi, fun, fo," "Who are you, I'd like to know," he cried, his eyes as round as dollars. "Get away, Snap."

"We're Nancy and Nick, the Twins," shouted Nick as loudly as he could. "You don't say!" declared the giant. "Well, well, well! You shall have two with me, I'd like first rate to have two with me for pets. Come, Snap!" And off they started. (To Be Continued.)

HAVE SLEIGH DRIVE.
The boys of Miss Alice Lockhart's Sunday school class of the Charlotte Street Baptist Church and the girls of Miss Elizabeth Cowan's class had a joint sleighing party last night on the Manawagonish Road and back. On their return to the church they found a delicious hot supper prepared for them by Mrs. Kelly and Mrs. Freeman Gardner. The party thoroughly enjoyed the evening.

GOING TO CHOOSE PRINCESS SATURDAY

All Those in Arena Will be Eligible Candidates For Title

At the Arena next Saturday afternoon a Princess is to be chosen from among all the little girls in the rink. Between the second and third band judges will choose the one they think will be best fitted to uphold the rank of Princess. The choice will be announced between the fifth and sixth band when the ice will be cleared and the Princess introduced to the throng. The names of the judges will be announced before the eventful day. It is not necessary to send in an entry or a photograph. Every little girl in the city is entered in the contest, but the Princess will only be chosen from amongst those in the rink.

Your Health

BY DR. CLIFFORD C. ROBINSON

HOARSENESS
Hoarseness sometimes develops quickly after an ordinary type of the common cold, which frequently has as a part of its disturbance acute laryngitis. We also are well acquainted with the type of hoarseness which one may acquire at a football game or at a political rally. If one knows just how to use his voice, he may be able to make a greater racket than his seat-mate and yet not become hoarse. Hoarseness is a misuse, rather than overuse of one's voice. Acute laryngitis is the simple cause of this "game" hoarseness. The vocal cords may be said to slacken down and a deeper and huskier tone quality results. Continued forcing of the voice may result in complete loss of speech for a time. In women or girls there is usually no marked lowering in the pitch or tones of the vocal cords. The condition which plays a more important part causes a complete aphonia or loss of voice after a slight attack of laryngitis. In connection with such loss of voice there is the condition known as "hysterical aphonia." Such a condition commonly precedes an ordinary attack of acute laryngitis. Bear in mind that such a condition is not the result of purely psychic causes as a rule, and yet it bears on some psychic factors. The connection in such a case is brought about by a cerebral innervation (the will) and the result of the acute laryngitis. Sometimes this lost voice difficulty may persist and run into hysteria for a time. In avoiding conditions which cause hoarseness be careful to protect the use of your vocal cords and rest them as much as possible. Chronic hoarseness or aphonia is due almost always to organic disease of the larynx or to some unnatural pressure causing partial paralysis by tumor or other causes. Hoarseness demands careful treatment and the avoidance of disturbing conditions. If you value the use of your voice after a slight attack of laryngitis, form and presented a bouquet by Miss Dunbrack which she graciously acknowledged. Something really new in teas was inaugurated. E. L. Rising and S. H. Davis in the latest of fashions for women presided at the tea table and were assisted by Philip Simms and C. H. Wasson, both gowned in pink with black picture hats. This caused much merriment and the only drawback was that the service was rather slow as the men were not accustomed to the niceties of a tea. This was their first offence. The evening was voted one of the best by all. Mrs. George W. Parker, teacher of the Philathes, when introducing "Miss St. John," said that she wished to impress the girls with the fact that goodness was not only helpful in making them beautiful in character, but had an effect upon their personal appearance. Miss Winifred Blair had been chosen not only as "Miss St. John," but as "Miss Canada." She was a faithful attendant and worker in Queen Square Methodist church. It was a cause for happiness that the Philathes could claim the choice this year of one of their most faithful members in Miss Oatey. A Wonderful Bargain! Mike—This is a great country, Pat. MEN ATTIRED AS LADIES AT SOCIAL

Miss D. Oatey, "Miss St. John," Presented Bouquet by Class

The Banquet hall of German street Baptist church was beautifully decorated with hearts and cupid for the social given by the Philathes class last evening. More than 300 were present and were welcomed by Mrs. G. W. Parker, Mrs. S. S. Poole and Miss Winifred Dunbrack, president of the class. Rev. Dr. S. S. Poole, the minister, presided and a short programme was given. Solos were sung by Miss Erminie Climo and Dr. P. L. Bonnell and a sketch by Misses Bernice Hatfield and Beatrice Fleet delighted the guests. Dr. Poole made mention of the fact that "Miss St. John," Dorothy Oatey, was a member of the Sunday school and the choir of the church and extended congratulations and best wishes on behalf of the church. Miss Oatey was called to the platform and presented a bouquet by Miss Dunbrack which she graciously acknowledged. Something really new in teas was inaugurated. E. L. Rising and S. H. Davis in the latest of fashions for women presided at the tea table and were assisted by Philip Simms and C. H. Wasson, both gowned in pink with black picture hats. Mr. Gluck Now 76 Years Old

Given Up By Doctors But Recovers—Had Gas Fermentation and Constipation

"I am 76 years old and was suffering from auto-intoxication in its worst form, brought on by constipation. Was under the doctor's care for 12 weeks, and was given up. My wife found out about Adlerika (intestinal antiseptic) and the first dose helped me. (Signed) Louis S. Gluck.

Intestinal Antiseptic.
There is now offered to the public a preparation having the DOUBLE action of an intestinal antiseptic and a COMPLETE system cleanser. This preparation, known as Adlerika, acts as follows:
It tends to eliminate or destroy harmful germs and colon bacilli in the intestinal canal, thus guarding against appendicitis and other diseases having their start here.
It is the most complete system cleanser ever offered to the public, acting on BOTH upper and lower bowels and removing foul matter which poisons the system for months and which nothing else can dislodge. It brings out gas, thus immediately relieving pressure on the heart. It is astonishing the great amount of poisonous matter Adlerika draws from the alimentary canal—matter you never thought was in your system. Try it right after a natural movement and notice how much more foul matter it brings out, which was poisoning you. In slight disorders, such as occasional constipation, sour stomach, gas on the stomach and sick headache, one spoonful Adlerika ALWAYS brings relief. A longer treatment, however, is necessary in case of obstinate constipation and one standing stomach trouble, preferably under direction of your physician.

Reports From Physicians.
"I found Adlerika the best in my entire 37 years' experience." (Signed) Dr. G. Eggers.
"I use Adlerika in all bowel cases. Some require only one dose." (Signed) Dr. F. M. P. (Name given on request.)
"I have found nothing in my 40 years' practice to excel Adlerika." (Signed) Dr. James Weaver.
"After taking Adlerika I feel better than for 20 years. Haven't language to express the AWFUL IMPURITIES eliminated from my system." (Signed) J. E. Puckett.
Adlerika is a constant surprise to people who have used only ordinary laxative and stomach medicine, on account of its rapid, pleasant and COMPLETE action. It is sold by leading druggists everywhere.
Sold in St. John by J. Benson Mahony, druggist, 2 and 4 Dock street, and other leading druggists.
