Getting Too Fat? Try This-Reduce

People who don't grow too fat are the fortunate exception. But if you find the fat accumulating or already cumbersome, you will be wise to follow this suggestion, which is endorsed by thousands of people who know. Ask your druggist for Marmola Prescription Tablets and follow directions. One dollar is the price the world over. Get them from your own druggist or send price direct to Marmola Co., 4612 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Mich. By doing this you will be safe from harmful drugs and be able to reduce steadily and easily, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise.

ASKS HERESY TRIAL FOR BISHOP BROWN

Episcopal Committee Proposes Action as Alternative to a Repudiation of His Views — Divorce Canon Discussed.

Portland, Ore., Sept. 13—The Right Rev. William Montgomery Brown of Galion, Ohio, retired Bishop of Arkansas, will be tried for heresy by the House of Bishops of the Episcopal Church or a repudiation of his published utterances on Christianity will be issued by that body if the report of a special committee which was received is adopted. The report was referred to the Committee on Memorials and Petitions.

The report was presented by Bishop Winchester of Arkansas, chairman of the special committee.

If a trial is agreed on, it will be the first time in the history of the Episcopal Church that a bishop has been tried for heresy, although several bishops have been tried for alleged misconduct. It is expected that discussion of the case will be behind closed doors.

Bishop Tuttle announced that he had received the resignation of the Right Rev. Logan H. Roots as Bishop of Hankow, China, in order that he might become the head of the newly formed National Christian Council in China and give his full time to it. He has been bishop eighteen years and a missionary in China twenty-six years.

The resignation of Bishop Roots was referred to the Committee on Foreign Missions. It is believed the committee will recommend that he be granted a furlough for three years, but be retained as a bishop and that a suffragan be elected to do his work.

In the House of Deputies, the Rev. Dr. Charles P. Deems of San Francisco, offered a resolution that the convention "place itself on record as opposed to the use of raffles, roulette wheels and other gambling devices in the gathering of money for parish expenses and other philanthropical enterprises under the control of the Protestant Episcopal Church, and that the convention condemn all unlawful methods of whatsoever sort in collecting money for private or charitable purposes." This was referred to the Committee on Social Service.

Dr. B. C., Wilmer, of Atlanta, introduced a resolution that the convention "place itself on record as looking with abhorrence upon the growing practice of what is known as the lynch law and upon all forms of mob violence." This also was referred to the Committee on Social Service.

"DR. FOWLER'S"
Saved the Lives of Four Children

Diarrhoea, dysentery, cholera infantum and summer complaint are responsible for more deaths, especially among children, during the summer months than any other form of disease. According to statistics, in the City of Toronto alone, in the past five years out of 1008 deaths of children, from diarrhoea, 757 died during the four summer months. It therefore behooves every mother to look after her children on the first sign of any looseness of the bowels by using Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry, a remedy that has been on the market for the past 77 years, and has been proven to be the best there is.

Mrs. Harold Sellers, Pennfield, N. B., writes:—"Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry saved the lives of four of my children when all other remedies failed. It stopped the vomiting and terrible diarrhoea with which they were troubled. I will always recommend it, and now always have a bottle on hand in case of emergency."

HOLD FRIEND OF "PRINCE" IN $500 JEWEL THEFT

Police Identify Accused as a Pal of Schwarm, Who Posed as Heir to French Throne

New York, Sept. 16.—Arthur Cannon, twenty-eight, who said he was a Persian, but refused to give his address, was locked up in the West 100th street station charged with the theft of jewelry valued at $500 from Miss Florence Brooks of 320 West Ninety-sixth street. Cannon denied the theft, but Detective Sergeants Morrison and Glasser said that a clerk in a pawnshop in Fifty-ninth street, near Columbus avenue, had identified Cannon's photograph as that of the man who had pawned Miss Brooks' diamond and platinum ring, locket and lavalliere which were stolen from her home on September 1.

When they were searching the prisoner, detectives found several clippings telling of the arraignment of "Prince Louis Henri de Chateroux de Bussigny de Bourbon, heir to the French throne," before Magistrate George W. Simpson in the West Side Court on Aug. 9 last, on a charge of disorderly conduct made by Detective McAllister of Inspector Bolan's vice squad, and they say that Cannon admitted he was the man who testified in the "Prince's" behalf, identified him as a descendant of the De-Bourbons of France, and induced Magistrate Simpson to release the "Prince" with an apology.

Later, it was discovered the "Prince" was Harold Schwarm, a former factory hand in New Britain, Conn., who at various times had posed as "Dr. Van Buren, great-grandson of President Martin Van Buren," and "Reginald Vander Vere, nephew of John Jacob Astor." It also was learned that the "Prince" at one time was a chef on Blackwell's Island, where he earned the soubriquet of "dishrag prince" among inmates of the hosptial there.

Cannon declared he had not seen the "Prince" since the day Schwarm was discharged on Detective McAllister's charge. Schwarm had an apartment at the West Ninety-sixth street address, where it was alleged that Cannon stole the jewelry.

ASK MAYOR TO ALLOW THEM ONE EXCITING NIGHT

New York Italians Petition Hylan to Name Evening for Gaiety and Abandon.

New York, Sept. 16.—A plan to have "one exciting night" in which the people of the city may enjoy themselves "in an old-fashioned way" has been suggested to Mayor Hylan in the form of a petition by George Sirico, chairman of the Italian Branch of the Associated Committees, formed to carry the idea into effect. Each borough has its own committee, and one general committee will be formed to direct the activities of the lesser committees.

"We believe it would add materially to the pleasure, the joy and the happiness of the people of New York City if Your Honor would set aside a night in the more serene season of the fall when all our citizens could give themselves up to gaiety," wrote Mr. Sirico in his petition. "When we could lose the burdens of our everyday worries, forget for one night the most recent and least popular of our national reforms, release the spirit of holiday-making that is in all of us, dance, parade, sing, cheer and play with that radiant abandon which renews life, which dispels drabness and which speaks the vitality of this greatest city in the young nation."

Mr. Sirico explained that the present holidays do not carry out his idea of real holiday-making and added:

"We do not seek the ponderous formality of fete, carnival, festival or Mardi Gras. We ask simply for a night when we can all play, a night such as the life-loving Italians have, and called plainly by them 'One Exciting Night'; a night to enjoy life. This thought has been discussed by many important interests of which you will be informally informed within a few days. We shall later present to Your Honor a petition signed by many tens of thousands of names."
