GREATER DEMAND FORCES PRICES UP
The increased consumption of tea in 1921 (during which year, by agreement, the tea growers of Ceylon and India had curtailed production) forced the price of tea steadily upwards to the present abnormally high level. The lowering of the duty in England will mean still greater demand, and authorities on tea tell us that still higher prices may be expected.

Regular dance tonight. G. W. V. A.

WELL LIKED

Present "A Pair of Sixes" in Commendable Manner at Imperial.

Making their bow to St. John audience last evening the Mount Allison College Players scored a hit and assured themselves of a warm welcome should they ever return. The play, "A Pair of Sixes" a three-act comedy by Edward Peple, was full of fun and the interpretation which the young actors and actresses put upon their parts reflected great credit upon themselves and upon their director, Miss Ida M. Leslie, B. L. L., head of the oratory department of Mount Allison Ladies' College. Miss Leslie has had much experience in the coaching of plays and her work in connection with this one maintained the same high standard which has characterized them all.

The play is the story of two men, partners in business, who cannot seem to agree on anything. Things go from bad to worse so they consult their lawyer, who suggests that they play a hand of poker, the loser in the game to be the servant of the winner for one year in any capacity which the winner may wish.

The loser becomes a butler for the winner and many amusing situations develop which bring the play to an interesting and happy climax. It is difficult to pick a star. It is sufficient to say that it was hard to realize that one was watching a play put on by amateurs, so finished was the work.

Norman Burchell, as one of the partners, lived his role in a finished manner and evoked much laughter. Reginald McDougall as the loser and butler played well at all times, and handled a difficult part well.

A. R. Cooper, as the lawyer, was replete with legal phraseology and his attempts at diplomacy were well received.

Miss Audrey Winter as the butler's fiancée looked very pretty and gave a happy rendering of her lines. Miss Alice Pigott as the jealous wife of the other partner, displayed evidence of excellent training, which she used to the best advantage.

Miss Grace Page handled the part of an English maid of all work, a difficult role to interpret, with ease and grace, and her humorous lines delighted all. The following was the cast of characters:

George B. Nettleton, Norman Burchell and T. Bragg Johns, "Reg" MacDougall—Business partners.

Krome, their book-keeper, Lawrence Fraser.

Miss Sally Parker, their stenographer, Margaret Full.

Thos. J. Vanderholt, their lawyer, Arthur Ashford.

Tony Toler, their salesman, Herbert Ashford.

Mr. Applegate, Raleigh Keith.

The pleasure of the evening was greatly enhanced by two musical numbers between the acts. In the interval between the first and second Miss Bernice Stultz, a graduate of the Mount Allison Conservatory of Music, rendered a difficult selection and was forced to respond to an encore.

Miss Kathryn Thompson, teacher of vocal in the conservatory, sang sweetly between the second and third acts. Her voice attained a high degree of excellence and her singing evoked much applause.

BETTER THAN HARD COAL
Soft coal so free from soot that it does not make whiskers on stove covers or pipe and does not mat or cake when burning, is far better than Hard Coal for general household use. Quicker to light, takes less to make a fire, cheaper in price and can also be used for open fires and small heating stoves. Such a coal is Broad Cove soft coal. The main thing is to insist on getting the genuine article. No other soft coal burns just like Broad Cove. You will know it by the above characteristics.
