SOCIALISTS IN CHICAGO
MEETING ENDORSE RED
REPUBLIC OF RUSSIA.
Chicago, Sept. 5.—The National Socialist party in a declaration of principles adopted yesterday unqualifiedly endorsed the Soviet republic of Russia and the international Socialist movement and condemned the League of Nations. The delegates jumped to their feet and cheered for several minutes when a paragraph was read approving the Soviet republic of Russia. The document compared the Russian revolution with the American revolution of 1776.

RECENT WEDDINGS

Denholm-Davis.

Sussex, Sept. 4.—A quiet but interesting marriage was solemnized Thursday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Thomas J. Davis and Mrs. Davis, when their eldest daughter, Beatrice Myrtle, became the wife of Dr. Kenneth A. Denholm, of Blenheim (Ont.). Rev. A. V. Morash performed the ceremony in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a tailored suit of navy serge with black beaver hat and emme tie.
Dr. and Mrs. Denholm left on a short trip up St. John river. On their return they will go to Ontario before going to Pemma Island where Dr. Denholm will act as medical missionary under the direction of the Presbyterian board of missions. Both young people are very popular. The bride is a graduate of the General Public Hospital training school for nurses, St. John. The groom is a graduate of McGill. He is well known in St. John having been house physician at the General Public Hospital for some time. Dr. Denholm returned a few weeks ago from overseas having been with the C. A. M. C. since enlisting.

Patriquin-Tucker.

At Immanuel Baptist parsonage, Truro (N. S.), Monday, Miss Elizabeth Tucker, of Truro, formerly of Havelock (N. B.) and Hallie Raymond Patriquin, of Truro, formerly of East Folly Mountain, were married by Rev. Dr. D. Knott, B. A. The groom was supported by John R. Snook and the bridesmaid was Miss Winnie George. The happy couple left for a short honeymoon, after which they will take up their residence at Truro.

Rogers-Steeves.

The marriage of Sarah Rogers, of Dobson's Corner, Westmainland Co., to Miss Nellie May Steeves, of Hyde Park (Mass.), took place at the Highfield street Baptist parsonage Wednesday afternoon, Rev. E. H. Cochrane officiating. They will reside at Dobson's Corner.

Dubouquet-Allain.

Dorchester, N.B., Sept. 2.—A very pretty wedding took place this morning in St. Edward's church, when Miss Lilian Allain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Allain was united in marriage to Charles Dubouquet of Lill (France). The bride was becomingly attired in white satin, with picture hat to match, and was attended by her sister, Miss Yvonne, and cousin, Sarah Jane Savoie, of Logville. The groom was supported by Emilie Allain and William Savoie, brother and cousin of the bride.

Double Wedding.

Bridgetown, N.S., Sept. 4.—A double wedding took place yesterday at 10.30 o'clock at Pleasant View Farm, the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley I. Marshall, Clarence, beneath an arch on their beautiful lawn, when their daughters, Mabel Lavinia and Dorothy Belcom, were married to James Lockhart, of Upper Falmouth (N.S.), and Myrna Etta, to John Everett Pike, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Pike, of Kentville (N.S.). The ceremony was performed by Rev. M. S. Richardson, pastor of the Bridgetown Baptist church, assisted by Rev. J. C. Whitney, of New York, and Rev. J. H. Balfour, of Paradise. The brides were dressed exactly alike in white crepe de chene and wore bridal veils. The flower girls were Dorothy Belcom and Lonnell Whitney, while twelve young ladies, intimate friends of the brides, performed the duties of bridesmaids.

Cummings-Bonnar.

Fredericton, Sept. 4.—At St. Margaret's Chapel, Morrison's Mills, last evening, Miss Harriet Blanche Bonnar, daughter of Mrs. William Bonnar, and Gordon Cummings, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Cummings, were united in marriage by Rev. Canon Cowie. The bride wore a wedding gown of white georgette, with veil and orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. She was attended by Miss Maude Logan, of Devon, who was dressed in pale green silk with black picture hat and carried a bouquet of roses and sweet peas. The bridesmaids were Helen Cummings, sister of the groom, and Frederica Blizard, a cousin, who were flower girls and were dressed in pink mull and pink poke bonnets and carried baskets of sweet peas.

The groom, who went overseas with the 24th battery early in 1915 and is now a clerk at the Fredericton post office, had as his best man, Donald Stuart, of the C. A. M. C.
Mr. and Mrs. Cummings left on a wedding trip to St. John and points in Nova Scotia and on their return will reside in this city.

Esson-Laurie.

Fredericton, Sept. 4.—Alexander McEachern Esson, night operator at the Canadian Government Railroad station, was united in marriage to Miss Florence M., youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Laurie, yesterday afternoon at the parish church by the Rev. Canon Cowie, rector. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Josephine, and was given away by her brother, William G. Mr. and Mrs. Esson left by the evening train for Boston and New York, and on their return will make their home here. The bride was a telephone operator.

Mahoney-Craigs.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Craigs, Sussex (N. B.), when their youngest daughter, Nina Jessie, was united in marriage to Francis Gordon Mahoney, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Mahoney, of Bridgewater (N. S.). The bride was given in marriage by her father. She was becomingly gowned in white georgette with pearly trimmings and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and carnations, and was attended by her sister, Miss Nellie Craigs. The groom was supported by Thomas Wiggins, of St. John, while Miss Rose McLellan, of St. John, made a charming flower girl. The wedding march was played by Miss Doris Mahoney. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome leather club bag, to the bridesmaid a pearl pendant, to the flower girl, a gold locket and chain, and to the bridesmaid a pearl ring. After the ceremony which was conducted by Rev. A. V. Morash, a dainty luncheon was served. The happy pair left on the C. P. R. train for Montreal, Toronto, Niagara Falls and other Canadian cities, and on their return will reside at East St. John. Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. William Mahoney and Miss Doris Mahoney, of Bridgewater (N. S.); Miss Olga Mager and Harold Mager, Mrs. William Cunningham, Mr. and Mrs. H. Bealey, of St. John, and Miss Nan Craigs, of Newburyport (Mass.).
