kept house without one; so little effort is needed to gather the dust thoroughly and yet keep furniture, casements, polished floors and other such surfaces as bright and fresh as new. The long removable handle makes it easy to get over and under tall and heavy furniture. Why go longer without one.

ner George Stephenson, who has been in the fighting in France for a long time, reports that he is well.

MILITARY PERSONALS

Captain J. B. Petchell of this city, returned officer of the 104th Battalion, has been appointed adjutant of the Canadian Garrison Regiment at West St. John.
Captain Rev. Roy Benson has been appointed senior chaplain of Camp Sussex.

STONE-COATES

A quiet wedding was solemnized on Sunday evening at the residence of the officiating clergyman, Rev. A. Laurence Telford, 16 Haymarket square, when Lemuel Thomas Stone of Fredericton was united in marriage to Mrs. Jennie Coates of 50 City road. They were unattended. Mr. and Mrs. Stone will make their home in Fredericton.

BOYS IN TROUBLE

A case against three boys, held in custody on suspicion of having entered the premises of McPherson Bros. and J. Callinan & Sons' in Union street on last Saturday night and having stolen money and wearing apparel, will be heard in the police court tomorrow morning. It is said that some of the missing goods were found on the boys when arrested.

FOUR DRUNKENNESS CASES

Four men, who were arrested since Saturday night on charges of drunkenness, faced Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. One had taken an overdose of flavoring extract, while the others had procured liquor from friends. A $400 fine was levied, and an endeavor will be made to find out where they got the liquor.

AN AUTOMOBILE CASE

Ottie McIntyre appeared in the police court this morning to answer a charge for violating one of the street traffic by-laws by leaving his automobile standing in Sydney street near the corner of Union from 2 a.m. until 6 a.m. on June 7 with out having his lights displayed.
He acknowledged that such was the case, explaining that his automobile had broken down and he had removed it to the first thing in the morning. He said that the spot was well illuminated, and he did not think it necessary to have his lights on. He was fined $200, and was ordered to pay $10.

KILEY-KIERVIN.

The wedding of Urban H. Kiley to Miss Helen Kiervin, both of this city, was solemnized with nuptial high mass at five o'clock this morning in St. Peter's church, North End. The bride was given away by her father, Patrick Kiervin, who wore a suit of brown silk and large picture hat and carried a bouquet of bridal roses. She was unattended.
Following the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, 6 Spar Cove Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Kiley left for their train for Boston and New York. A large number of presents testified to the popularity of the young people, and the gifts including a fine chest of silver from the St. John letter carriers, of which start the bridegroom is a popular member.

MOOSE VISIT CITY.

Two fine specimens of the lordly moose were visitors to the city early this morning. They attracted but little attention, but those who did see them were quite enthusiastic over their appearance. They were quite leisurely in their movements, and the looks of the water perhaps discouraged them from attempting a swim. At all events whatever was the reason, they did not linger long at the Ballast Wharf, but turned quickly and went back round the extension to the woods once again.
At the sugar refinery the night watchman was given a start by the arrival of the visitors.

BRAVE YOUNG SOLDIER DEAD

St. John Relatives Get Word That Private Wm. T. Dargavel is Killed in Action

The Misses Stevenson and their brother, who reside at 117 St. Patrick street city, were notified on Thursday, June 20, of the death of their cousin, Private Wm. T. Dargavel, who was killed in action somewhere in France on June 8, having been shot through the head.

Private Dargavel was only in his early twenties. He went overseas with the 104th Battalion and was transferred to the New Brunswick Battalion. After being in the trenches for some time he was gassed and sent to England to recuperate. He then returned to the trenches where he met his death bravely fighting for king and country.

He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dargavel of Moulles River, Kent Co.
Besides his parents he leaves to mourn six sisters and two brothers. One of his brothers, Bombardier Lyle Dargavel crossed to France about the same time as he did with a Nova Scotia Battalion.
He was wounded in the knee, but is now back on duty in Flanders. One sister, Miss Beatrice, is living in Boston. The bereaved family and relatives have the sympathy of a large circle of friends in the loss of their soldier boy.

WOUND CAUSES LOSS OF FOOT

News of Pte. Fred Dunham Comes to Lombard Street Home

That her son, Pte. Fred Dunham, had been wounded in the right leg, and that on admission to the 9th General Hospital in France it was found necessary to amputate the foot, was the sad news that Mrs. George Dunham of Lombard street received yesterday.

Private Dunham is twenty-one years old, and was formerly employed with J.
M. Humphrey & Co. He went over with the 104th and was transferred to Nova Scotia battalion in France. His friends and fellow citizens will hope that his recovery will be rapid and that he may soon be home again.

WHEN SUMMER SLIPPED A COG

Temperature Below Sixty and Woodpile a Joy to the Subur- banite—Notes Along the River

With a high wind and a clouded sky, threatening rain, the cold mists lifting and falling on the horizon, and a temperature well below sixty degrees, yesterday was not like a summer day at Public Landing. The daisies and buttercups were there, and blue flags by the roadside, and all the crops flourishing, but the warmth of a stove was not to be thrust aside for these other native delights. The sun made a brave effort to break through the clouds at noon, but failed completely. But there was one consolation—the frost of last week had not visited the Landing and the cucumbers and beans were thriving mightily.
Also one enjoys radishes and lettuce from the garden, and one adventurous boy in rubber boots found some native strawberries in the meadow.

Sunday's weather, moreover, was merely continued from the day before.
Saturday afternoon saw Grand Bay raked by a wind that heaped up white-capped rollers and streaked the surface with long lines of white foam. When the Ocean crossed a yacht was coming out from one of the coves, racing rail down with her deck at an angle that drew cries of apprehension from timid onlookers. It was not a day for motor boats, nor was yesterday, and very few were to be seen. One that had planned to come down last evening waited until this morning.

Seen through a window, however, from a comfortable room, the aggressive green of the landscape charmed the eye no less than when it is bathed in sunlight. And the fields were absorbing moisture after a night of rain that will be of special value in the warmer weeks to come.

Rev. C. W. Nichols administered the rite of baptism in the Anglican church at the Landing yesterday, and a confirmation service will be held a little later. The rector yesterday counseled his people to observe the regulations of the Food Board and do their part at home in the task of winning the war.

There is one sign of activity on the Valley Railway at the Landing. Two or three men are constructing a trestle where short lift is needed between the new railway station and the wharf. The work at the Nerepis and Woodman's point is also being continued, but for work to be done all along the line the men are not yet available.

The Ocean had a good passenger list down this morning. A few cultivated strawberries are now coming down from Wickham and a fairly good crop of prunes from the Landing. When the Ocean was passing Harding's Point this morning the passengers were admiring a wild duck floating on the surface of the river. It proved to be a diver, and gave a fine exhibition of submarine tactics for the benefit of the onlookers. At Sand Point a gentleman commanded his dog to lie down and stay ashore. He lay perfectly still while the plank was pulled in and the steamer was moving. Then with one leap it was ashore. For that foxy trick it had to learn ashore.

WAR HITS ASSOCIATION BUT WILL "CARRY ON"

Drury Cove Athletic Association Annual Meeting—George Dis-hart President

Although feeling the effects of war conditions, the Drury Cove Athletic Association, at their annual meeting held last week, decided to "carry on." The membership is smaller this year than last as seven of the twenty-five members are in khaki and the younger members of the community who would be regarded as prospective members are at the front or in training also. An honor roll bearing the names of those who have
