EXTINCTION OF OLD FAMILIES

Eugenics Conference Hears Opinion on Conditions in New England.

New York, Sept. 23.—Race suicide in New England is exterminating the stock which laid the foundation of the United States, so Dr. Henry F. Osborn told the second International Congress of Eugenics last night. Noted scientists from many parts of the world attended. Dr. Osborn, who is president of the congress, declared the very existence of the family was threatened by what he called a rampant individualism, not only in art and literature, but in the entire social institution. "In New England," he said, "a century has witnessed the passage of a many child family to a one child family. The purest New England stock is not holding its own. The next stage is a no child marriage and the extinction of the stock which laid the foundation of the republic." He expressed the opinion that the melting pot theory gave little promise of advancing racial virtues. "Put three races together," he said, "and you are likely to unite the vice of all three as the virtues."

WILL NOT PLACE TRADE AGENTS IN U. S. AT PRESENT

Canadian Commerce Department Decides the Time is Not Opportune.

(Special to The Times.) Ottawa, Sept. 23.—It has been decided that for the present the department of trade and commerce will not give effect to the permissive legislation of last session under which Canadian trade agents with almost consular powers would be established in the principal United States cities to vice invoices of all goods sent to Canada. Various boards of trade questioned the wisdom of this policy, and a partial investigation by the department led it to believe the present time was not opportune. The plan is not killed entirely, but it is said the investigation should be more thorough and that there should be further consultation with the boards of trade before a final decision is made.

ST. PETER'S TEAM GUESTS OF RECTOR

Very Pleasant Function Last Evening in the Y. M. A. Rooms Greatly Enjoyed.

The members of St. Peter's baseball team, again champions this year, were most pleasantly entertained in St. Peter's Y. M. A. rooms last evening at a complimentary banquet tendered them by Rev. William Hogan, C.S.S.R., the rector of the church, who made this the means of expression of his keen interest in the welfare of the young men of his parish. The arrangements for the evening were in the capable hands of William J. McMahon, manager of St. Peter's baseball park, and certainly did credit to him and all concerned. Mr. McMahon departed somewhat from the usual routine of such events, limiting the toast to a single one in honor of His Majesty the King and making up the rest of the programme with a series of short addresses and pleasing musical numbers. Guests in addition to members of the team made up a company of some sixty who found places at a long very artistically set table occupying almost the entire length of the Y. M. A. lecture room. Mr. McMahon presided and had at his right and left Father Hogan, A. J. Gregory, and Thomas Nagle of the Y. M. C. L. The menu was one to tempt the most demanding taste and it was with interest that those at the table learned that it was entirely the product of the culinary art of Brother Bede, C.S.S.R. of St. Peter's. The items on the tempting bill were as follows:

Menu
Oyster Cocktail.
Salted Almonds.
Puree of Tomato Soup.
Roast Chicken.
Fried Spring Chicken.
Creamed Potatoes.
Roast Sugar Cured Ham.
Green Peas.
Beets.
Cucumbers.
Ye Olde English Trifle.
Assorted Pastry.
Cake.
Ice Cream.
Fruit.
Nuts.
Mineral Waters.
Coffee.
Crackers and Cheese.
Cigars and Cigarettes.

A corps of ladies proved most efficient waitresses. They were Mrs. E. Walsh, convenor; Mrs. A. Gibb, Mrs. W. O'Connor, Mrs. S. McCormick and the Misses A. P. O'Neill, Irene O'Connor, I. Gormerly, M. Hansen, Mary and Estella McMahon, Margaret Brennan, Alice Dever, Nellie Dever, Mary McGovern, Florence Gibb and Doris Mullaney. They were prettily attired in white and displayed the green and white ribbon colors of St. Peter's. The colors, too, predominated in table and room decorations and prominently displayed was a stand bearing the colors of the boys of St. Peter's in various athletic competitions. After the toast to the King had been heartily honored in song John U. Haggerty, who was an efficient toastmaster, called on Father Hogan for an address. The rector, who has been ill for some time, regretted the physical disability under which he labored and also inability to find words sufficient to express his pride in the good work of the team, the sacrifices they had made to carry out the baseball programme and the fine manner in which they had worked together. He said that when he was in the hospital he thought of them. He counselled them to manly sport and so to carry themselves that they could be as good losers as they were winners. They were to be the pride of the parish as well as to the whole city of St. John. He wished them good fortune in the future and said that he meant to be all the time to aid them in their athletic work. Father Hogan then presented a large picture of the team to each of the members.

A letter of regret from H. R. McLellan at his inability to be present, as he was called out of the city, was read. Because of this the presentation of the Commercial Club cup was deferred. A. J. Gregory then presented souvenir pins of handsome design, one to each member of the team. In doing so he spoke for clean sport, referred to the fine encouragement given it by St. Peter's, their special and satisfactory effort to swell the fund to send Belyea away and pledged himself to do all that he could to aid St. Peter's at any time and in any way possible. Mr. Gregory's address and his cherrry words of co-operation made a marked impression on the assembly. Thomas L. McGovern, manager of the team, expressed hearty thanks to Mr. Gregory, referred to the great work that Father Hogan had done and spoke of the successful baseball season. He also took occasion to thank the members of the team for the way they had carried on during the war.

In a happy speech, Thomas Nagle congratulated the St. Peter's team on its good work. He thanked the ladies and host for the splendid luncheon, also commended Father Hogan for his work of securing the new baseball field and placing it in its present condition, thus filling a long left want in this city. Letters of regret were then read from Frank White, manager of the Commercial Club, who was ill and could not be present, from Elmer MacLennan, secretary, also from A. E. Seely, manager of the Pirates.

Toastmaster Haggerty then called upon the newspaper men who were present and there were short addresses by Frank McCafferty of The Times, Thomas Robinson of The Telegraph, A. E. Richards of The Standard, and P. B. McCafferty of The New Freeman. Rev. G. A. Coffin, C.S.S.R., rector of the Y. M. A., made a very pleasing address, outlining the objects of the association as being the improvement of the young men intellectually, physically and morally and he was glad that the association had enjoyed a large measure of success along these lines. He had words of congratulation for Mr. McMahon and Mr. McGovern and the members of the team, spoke of Father Hogan's notable work and had a special word for Mr. Gregory. A pleasing presentation was then made by Laurence McLennan, a cup which he had donated for the member of the city league making the best record at base stealing. The winner was Bernard Mooney and in a brief witty speech Mr. Mooney accepted the trophy amid the plaudits of all. The speech making closed with an admirable address by Mr. McMahon. He had words of praise for the team but warned them against permitting themselves to be over confident and thereby lessening their effectiveness. He also spoke of what Father Hogan had so well done. Mr. McMahon added that he had agreed to continue next year as manager of the park and gave his assurance that he would put in his best effort for St. Peter's team.

Under the lead of Harry Dever hearty choruses had been sung during the evening with James Driscoll as accompanist and solos were sung by Robert Butler and Brother Bede. The latter's resonant voice was heard with much pleasure in The Rosary, The Last Chord and Asleep in the Deep. An artistic menu card carried a fine picture of St. Peter's team, and a synopsis of their record, team and individual, and will be prized as a memento of a very happy evening.

RESPONSIBILITY ON THE PACKERS

Question of Underweight in Canned Foods — Fishery Conference in Charlotte-town.

Charlottetown, P. E. I., Sept. 23.—The meat and canned foods act discussed yesterday's session of the conference of the Eastern Fisheries Division of Canada. On the question of what latitude should be allowed packers with regard to underweight cans, the consensus of opinion was that the responsibility for having the correct weight should be placed upon the packers.

A great improvement in the pack this year over last was reported. Discussing shrinkage, the general opinion was to turn out a six ounce can. Inspector Crocker of New Brunswick told of unsatisfactory sanitary conditions in factories of his district. Dr. Knight, chairman of the biological board of Canada, emphasized the need of every factory being properly equipped with sanitary conveniences. He addressed the conference on the standard pickle which he said should be made by adding four ounces of good dairy salt to a gallon of fresh water. From experiments of his own he did not believe strong pickling was necessary to preserve the lobster meat. Preservation he said, was a matter of proper bathing. He had packed lobsters with no pickle, using a little fresh water, and they turned out fine. He considered, however, that pickle was necessary to develop a fine flavor.

N. S. VETERANS

Favor Ottawa Affiliation Plan—The Ladies' Auxiliary.

Amherst, N. S., Sept. 23.—A scheme recently outlined at Ottawa, of affiliation, rather than amalgamation, of the veterans' organizations of Canada with the central organization having jurisdiction over only matters of common interest, was endorsed by the conference of the Nova Scotia Command of the G. W. V. A. yesterday. Colonel Charles E. Bent, D.S.O., president of the Nova Scotia Command, expressed the opinion that the provincial command of the ladies' auxiliary should be abolished, and that work be done by the provincial executive. He said they needed the ladies' auxiliaries locally, but outside of this he did not consider them necessary.

Colonel Bent was re-elected president, and H. F. Hamilton, secretary treasurer.

REAL ESTATE

It is said that a New York woman put a cupful of coal oil in her husband's whiskey to cure him, but he didn't notice any difference. Habits of the Orillia police court can testify that it would require something stronger than coal oil to spoil the taste of moonshine whiskey. The tramway section of Buenos Aires is the largest of any in the world, there being about 380 miles of the line in operation. Mrs. Lenora Word of Erick, Okla., graduated in the same class with her son at the State University this Summer.
