PRINCE RETURNS THANKS

London, April 27.-The Prince of Wales acknowledges the sympathy and congratulations from all parts of the world on his recent escape from assassination, in a letter just made public as follows:

"I have deeply been touched by the umerous expressions of sympathy and goodwill addressed to me upon the occasion of the providential escape of the Princess of Wales and myself from the danger we have lately passed through, from every quarter of the globe.

"From the Queen's subjects throughout the world, as well as from the repesentatives and inhabitants of foreign countries have these manifestation proceeded, and on my return to this coun-try I received a welcome so spontaneous and hearty that I felt I was the recipient of a most gratfying tribute of genuine goodwill. Such a proof of kind and generous feeling is naturally most highly prized by me, and will be forever cherished in my memory.
