extent of the extinction of the white popu-lation here, rather than endanger the interests of the Empire, British Columbia might cease to be the breeding ground of British ment in toto Mr. Hayward-I deny it in toto, as J

Mr. McPhillips The hon. gentleman from Delta has exceeded his privileges when he attacks the honor of members. Hon, members-Do you deny it?

Mr. McPhillips—I deny it most emphatically. I ask these men if they are sincere in their charges to move for a committee of investigation, and I will accept its decision. I knew the government by a breach of privilege intended as far as I am concerned if the government believe it my constituents will not. Mr. Oliver-I wish to say I consulted member of the government

Mr. McPhillips-Then the member for Cariboo must be a mind reader. Mr. Martin-What does the senior member for Victoria say?

Mr. Helmcken-If you'll keep quiet I'll Mr. Martin, continuing, said Mr. Curtis on the occasion referred to produced a written resolution of no confidence in the government, which he said the members of the dissenting government party had agreed upon, and which Mr. Helmcsubsequently placed on the order

Mr. Curtis said that he could say there was not a member of the Premier's fol-lowers who did anything dishonorable city knew the government could not control part of the followers on the rail-way issue, and naturally he spoke to those members regarding their views. He was asked how his leader would vote, and tried to find out for his own sake, for he had been told that he was being . Martin on that question. He asked Mr. Martin if he would join with the government kickers. Mr. Martin replied: "Certainly, if we can defeat the government we will do it." Other members of the opposition had admitted to him that that was right.

Mr. Martin-I deny that I said "Bring along your men and we will see." Mr. Curtis adhered to his statement, has sought to impugn my personal honor, and I am quite prepared to see the animus he manifests. The Premier man had always played his own game 927. The number of John was 12,056; in 1900, and was doing so still. foundation for this charge. He knows I never spoke to hon, gentlemen or they to the benefit of the House and country,

Mr. Murphy-I can only reiterate what I have said, that "if the charge is that on the railway matter we were going to vote against the government, it is true. I told the Premier of that six weeks before it occurred. Beyond that any charges made are false."

Mr. Martin said he made no charge against Mr. Helmcken. "I do not say," med Mr. Martin, "that the statement of the member for Rossland was true. I said that Mr. Curtis came to the caucus and said that seven mem-

Mr. McPhillips-Go on with the slender. He has denied it. You ought to government was drafted, and said we Mr. Curtis said this was the first time he had heard the charge. The question was not brought up by him, but by an-Mr. Martin said there was no specification regarding competition, but only the defeat of the government. Mr. Curtis replied that this was absurd. The only question dividing the competition, and almost every day the tion he pointed out that out of the 79,names of members who were going to oppose the government on it were appearing in the Times. He repeated that there was absolutely nothing dishonorwhat had taken place. Mr. Gilmour lifted his voice in affirmation of what his leader had stated. He Mr. Curtis down in his little book, and said that he was not sure how far Fulten and Garden were controlled by the apon. Continuing, he said that Mr. vote, and that therefore the now leader we refer to the Mongolian huntigrants who cartis was not following Mr. McBride mour continued to refer to the matter till Mr. Curtis intimated that the state-

Then a number of valiant members, including the Finance Minister and Messrs. Martin and Gilmour, who had sat quietly while the term "lie" was hurled across the floor a few days ago, insisted on a withdrawal. the term, and Mr. Curtis, amid laughter, as he did last session, the necessity for that. wishes of the Speaker, and regretted there was no other way of expressing his sentiments in the matter because he was not with his old comas, and the latter replied that he had been trying to figure out where Mr. ur stood for a year.

Mr. Neill then rose, and after referring to those unfortunate incidents, congratulated himself that he kept out of caus. Regarding Mr. Oliver's statement that Mr. Curtis bad mentioned certain mames to him, that was a matter of Here Mr. Martin again rose and be gan interrupting. roar came from the member for Alberni: "I will not be interrupted," he shouted, "the member for Vancouver is continually making stump speeches, and one is secure from his interruptions, and fair as you are, Mr. Speaker, I hope you will put an end to it. I for one will met submit to it.' Continuing, he said the dissatisfaction of certain members last session over the railway question was well known. Any one might have made the statement complained of by the member for Hossland.

Adjourned. John Houston made several futile attempts to move the previous question. But this the Speaker would not receive, terday the members this afternoon got down to business and made a serious in ment has disallowed the acts known as the "British Columbia Immigration Act, introduced his bill dealing with the exclusion of Orientals from employment on enterprises under private charters, and Capt. Tatlow reintroduced his Natal Act. Mr. Martin also had a bill dealing with aliens and excluding them from voting. aliens and excluding them from voting. The same gentleman made a half-hearted attack on the government for failure to prosecute a man who escaped from Add whereas, the prosecute a man who escaped from Add whereas, the property of the prouarantine at Vancouver, but instead of levelling his artillery on the Attorney-General, the head of the department con Fagan and Superintendent Hussey.

Mr. Clifford brought up on privilege a report that Japanese miners were going into Atlin. The Speaker held this was not privilege. Capt. Tatlow said e believed the report was true, and the agency for the company. Mr. Stables England, after the corenation read a telegram in which he resigned

Resuming the debate on the address government members that the opposition this question of the admis were not in opposition on principle. Revention, the basis of which was opposi- ject. tion to the former's Premier and his out that some of his supporters were unfavorable to him was not borne out by Columbia as well as the Lieutenant-Govthought the matters contained in the rethe facts. The Premier, too, had stated that he was so informed by a member of the opposition. If that were true it showed that he took the word of a member of the opposition as proof of that. time the senior member for Vancouver the opposition mentioned was evidently that the revenue from Chinese immigra-

When a member of the opposition was 8,970; and in 1901, only 88. abandoned. There were gentlemen sit sitting in opposition in denunciation of other channel. That the invital was as the government's action. Applause,) follows:

Mr. Clifford-Names. Mr. Fulton-There is no need to give names. No gentlemen know better than those concerned what they did and what He then made reference to the remarks made by Mr. Oliver as to what took place in caucus, an act which he thought most unwarranted. But as reference had been made to him as induenced by the C. P. R., he wished to say that although he had acted as their solicitor for ten years, they had never sought to in-tion had voted against redistribution workingmen of this country for whom we his remarks thereon.

they had given their reasons in the inspeak, we esteem it a high house to assure The Minister of Finance—The return sufficient data available. That was no you. longer an objection, as the census returns were to hand Re redistribution had been delayed by members consulted. To the first he said houndaries were either natural or arbitrary, while taking up the latter objection he pointed out that out of the 79,009 increase in British Columbia's population over half was in the electoral district of Cariboo. In that electoral district the principal increase had been in Southeast Kootenay, Southwest Kootenay, Routhwest Kootenay and Boundary, represented by eight members, of whom only three would be consulted in framing that redistribute who are legislation of this province who are legislation of the principal increase had been in bill.

The member for Cariboo had declared month by grace of Joseph Martin. That did not admit of cavil. In regard to cold storage, aid had already been granted by the Dominion government. The question of irrigation, however, was a most passing one, and The Speaker advised the withdrawal of the speaker urged upon the government, > Concluding, he told the government that the opposition would offer them no factious opposition. He was found on that side of the House on principle, and that a most important one, Mr. Fulton was loudly applauded. Mr. Hunter brought up the question of whether Mr. Curtis's amendment to the address submitted yesterday was admis-

The Speaker replied that he was going into the matter, and would not only rule upon it, but hoped to draw up a rule whereby all future debates on the adlress could be carried on. Mr. Hawthornthwaite moved the adent of the debate pending the Speaker's decision. This was carried.

First Readings. The following bills were introduced and read a first time: Labor Regulation Act, 1902-Mr.

Helmcken. The British Immigration Act, 1902-Capt. Tatlow. An Act to amend the Highway Trafic Regulation Act—Mr. Oliver.

A. Act to Prohibit Aliens from Voting

Curtis, obs vis of deldard and of oriental Immigration, add arrangement, and was not connected and the debate was adjourned on motion able House, praying the Dominian government it, enact such legislation is will prevent the immigration into this pro-Press Gallery, March 12th.

Exhausted by the belligerency of yes berday the members this afternoon got.

And whereas the Deminion govern-

the cause of the Empire, and His Ma-vince of British Columbia have an admitted grievance by reason of their attempts to protect themselves against the cerned, he preferred to attack the offi-cers of that department, namely, Dr. of Japan and China into this province the limits of the Empire, or to seek asylum heing frustrated;

And whereas, the right honorable the Premier of the Dominion of Canada has prejudice to the larger concerns of the Em-Premier of the Dominion of Canada has accepted an invitation to be present at the coronation of Our Most Gracious begun, what limit or definite harrier could Sovereign King Edward VII., and it is be assigned to it? It is in the firm convicalso proposed by the colonial premiers to tion that, in this matter, we are fighting hold a conference in the city of London, for the British Empire against the greatest said there would be serious trouble in that district if Orientals were introduced.

Be it therefore resolven, that the first the first the right ing him to communicate with the right of the communicate with the right of the first the right of the right onorable the Premier of Canada, asking him at such conference to bring to Mr. Fulton refuted the charge made by the attention of the golonial premiers this question of the admission into Can-ada of the citizens of the Empires of verting to the last general election he Japan and China, and to use their inor to their discredit. Every one in the said 29 or 30 members were returned in fluence to cause the Imperial govern-

> In supporting the resolution which he ernor would be present, and doubtless their presence at London would have onation conference.

taken into the cabinet it indicated to him | Mr. Helmcken also alluded to the fact the government. I repeat, however, for adopted and the government's principle pared by the workingmen of British Columbia for presentation to H. R. H. the ting in support of the government who Duke of York, but which His Excellency

May It Please Your Royal Highliess: On the occasion of your visit to the capital of British Columbia it is our privilege to Curtis and Mr. McPhillips did also, approach you with the assurance that in Mr. McInnes moved the adjournment of the columbia it is our privilege to Curtis and Mr. McPhillips did also, approach you with the assurance that in no part of His Gracious Majesty, your august father's dominions, does the tide of so that a stronger expression of opinion loralty run higher than in this outpost of could be registered. Empire upon the shores of the ocean. To the persons of work House, in the persons of our late beloved Queen Victoria Mr. Tatlow moved that an order of and His Most Gracious Mijesty the King, the House be granted for a return giving British subjects in every part of the world an abstract of the receipts and expendiowe a debt of gratitude which can only be dake his statement.

Mr. McInnes—He said a slate of a new fluence his vote. He did not know what paid by that personal devotion without serending 31st December, 1901.

It was a paid by that personal devotion without serending 31st December, 1901.

In doing so, he asked if the province for the paid by that personal devotion without serending 31st December, 1901. did he care.

If honorable members of the opposi race, and of whose existence among the duction of the return, he would reserve

It must have been borne in upon you in viewing the province of British Columbia. with its noble roadsteads and harbers, its of this province who are condemned to a condition of servility, as heatile to the trathat on the 7th of May, 1901, the gov-ditions of freedom peculiar to our country, ed ernment was sustained by Mr. Martin's as abhorrent to the instincts of humanity; loyally, and Mr. Curtis retorted that Mr. $1,333.33 by grace of Mr. Martin, That labor in this province. That their status is Notwithstanding this notices were conferred to, the government had ample sup- the conditions under which there are allow- by D. M. Eberts, as Acting Minister of port from his own followers. But if ed into the country, a head-tax being ex Mines, in spite of the fact that no notice ment that Mr. McBride was his leader that were untrue four ministers of the acted; second, their civil stories, in spite of the fact that no notice their social status in that them are forcibly the executive council, and for the filling compelled to live under conditions of sexual of five portfolios. isolation which lead to award degradation The Attorney General-What do you isolation which lead to a which degradation and revolting immorality of larged say. Six?

Many thousands of human beings are being brought into this province, and while here compelled to live inder, these conditions in order to restrict the dangers to which the community is exposed through Mongolian immigration; and the two most immigration; and the two most in order to restrict the dangers to which the community is exposed through Mongolian immigration; and the two most immigration in the House of that that body had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

A Mining Return.

Mr. Stables moved: That an order of the House of the though had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

Mr. Stables moved: That an order of the House of the though had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

Mr. Stables moved: That an order of the House of the though had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

Mr. Stables moved: That an order of the House of the though had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

Mr. Stables moved: The the following information:

The Attorney-General—What the demonstration in the House of the though had been instrumental in having the seat filled. He withdrew the motion.

Mr. Stables moved: The the thing the the trish demonstration in the Irish

They have already dispossessed whites scandal. from all kinds of labor upon the soil, and The act also provided that a salaried at Municipal Elections—Mr. Martin plane as the Mongolians are forced to act to put his hand to what was an illegal An Act to amend the Walls Act Mr. cept; while the attempts to minimize its act. The Attorney-General had appoint-An Act to amend the Wills Act Mr. celects which have been permitted have ted himself also as Minister of Mines, Cel. Prior said the government had no disconnected in the complishing their object.

Mr. Helmcken moved Whereas, reso. All the attempts which have been made important duties. He had to sign the be obtained from the Gold Commissioner utions have been passed by this honor by the people of British Columbia to deal call of the legislature, while the Finance at Atlin, which would involve about six definitely with this question have met with Minister, acting as Provincial Secretary, opposition from the prerogative of the had no authority whatever to do this crown, as vested under the British North Further still, in the absence of the America Act in the Lieutenant-Governor of the province, the Governor-General of the Dominion of Canada, and His Most Gracious Majesty's government in Great Britain, on the ground that the international relations of the Empire precluded refused to admit Within its boundaries the Mossellar Recommendation of the Empire precluded refused to admit Within its boundaries the Mossellar Recommendation of the Empire precluded refused to admit Michael President Still, in the absence of the Further Still, in the Premier, President Still, in the absence of the Further Stil within its boundaries the Mongolian races.

It is true that the interests of the whole

The Finance Minister—The custom is are greater than those of any one part, and for the Deputy Chief Commissioner a were British Columbia alone concerned it the Provincial Secretary to sign it. would be our duty to submit, even to the subjects, industrious in peace, and loyal and devoted in war, and we, with our sons and the Executive Council. He receives that daughters, might be forced to withdraw (as we are now being forced) further within as Premier, two distinct things. man to run in their interests. danger which ever menaced it a danger Col. Prior's chair. which armies cannot avert, nor fleets guard against that we have been encouraged to address you. We are being defeated because our hands are tied. It is for want of en potent against the recrudescence of Orientalism upon Canadian shores. Let the lovalty of our hearts, and th greatness of our need, compensate for our the conventional subtleties of language in to couch the expression of their desires. The speaker also referred to the visit and the issue which is at stake, that we rendering the people of this province im-policy. That was a principle and one which should have been borne in mind by all the supporters and members of the government.

The Premier's statement that he found out that some of his supporters were under the premiers of Canada and the premiers and the premiers of Canada and the premier solution should be brought up at the con material bearing on the solution of the difficulty. Reference was made to the disallowance of British Columbia acts to the third clause, which, while true en-If the speaker was suspected, it would and to the late British dapanese treaty. ough, might be objected to by represent only have been fair to have asked him With reference to the first the efficacy tatives from other colonies as a reflection only have been fair to have asked him With reference to the first the efficacy tatives from other colonies as a reflection and not any other man. The member of of that measure was shown by the fact on their loyalty. The last men who the opposition mentioned was evidently playing his own game, and if the speak tion at Victoria for 1899 bwas $129,841; the gallant men who had fought for British Columbia in South Africa. He thought the clause should be struck out, The fourth clause regarding the grievnce of British Columbia lacked directness. He suggested what he thought

The fifth clause also left the imprewere equally as emphatic as those now had pointed out must come through an found fault with the wording of the final clause. Capt. Tatlow thought the member for Cariboo, was straining at a gnat, and heartily endorsed the resolution. Mr. Mr. McInnes moved the adjournmen of the debate as he wanted it amended

Receipts and Expenditures, vility to the constitutional head of the Em-pire, which is the proudest tradition of our of Finance had no objection to the pro-is being prepared now. "Acting" Ministers. Mr. Curtis moved that an order of the Re redistribution had been delayed by the Attorney-General on the ground that boundaries had to be determinated and members consulted. To the first he said members consulted. To the first he said members consulted. To the first he said members to support the Attorney-General on the ground that been delayed by the Attorney-General on the ground that been very sharp. Dr. boundaries had to be determinated and members to support the disaster were eagerly bought up of the disaster were eagerly bought up of the disaster were eagerly bought up of the orders in council passed since the fagar was an efficient officer in stamping out smallpox, and if he made any under favorable auspices, to play an im-appointed since that date although the He felt convinced Dr. Fagan would be The reading of Lord Kitchener's tele-Minister of Finance had been appointed Acting Provincial Secretary. A similar instance was furnished in the delay in filling the post of Minister of Mines. had no authority to order the suspen was incorrect, because in the vote reservice is apparent from three facts: First, tinually appearing in the Gazette signed that were intrue four ministers of the they are not permitted to exercise the privile Constitution Act provided that there month by grace of Joseph Martin. That lege of voting; and third, and werst of all, should not be more than six members of Mongolian immigration; and the two most important sources of authority to which appeal is had to defend this monstrous custom are the exigencies of the Empire and the doctrines of the Christian religion. Yet, in spite of the fact that every principle of decency and morality has been violated in dealing with these people; that every tradition of British freedom has been broken in the endeavor to limit the danger from the endeavor to limit the danger from them; that danger is becoming daily more limination and pressing.

All Curus—No, I say you are at sixes and sevens. (Laughter.) I doubt if you ever will be six.

Proceeding, Mr. Curtis pointed out what a gross violation this constituted of the act. There were only three ministers part of the time, and, then some of the 9th of August, 1900. 2. The number of applications for hydraulic leases refused since the 9th of August, 1900, with reasons for refusal. 3. The amount of revenue derived from leases granted since is to January, 1898. 4. The number of leases cancelled since is January, 1898. 5. The number of layerovers grantfolios, but this ministry had continued of since is January, 1898. 5. The number of layerovers, and amount The Orientals have already monopolized all those forms of light industry in which the women of our people have been accust to find an honorable place, and from course the government was too weak to number of extensions of time applied for six months and the position of Professional Secretary was still vacant becomed to find an honorable place, and from course still vacant becomed to find an honorable place, and from course should be considered to find an honorable place, and from course should be considered to find any long reasons advanced for ask. whose ranks the methers of our soldiers, fill it. The government should be cen- (if any), and reasons advanced for ask-are creeping steadily into the skilled trades, minister be appointed temporary during number of hydraulic leases had been and the business of merchandise and store—the absence of a real minister. The Atgranted in defiance of the law on the held Right is now in New X keeping, while every new discovery of torney-General owed an explanation to wealth is merely a signal for a fresh and the House for wrongly advising His more active invasion of Mongolians. Nor Honor to appoint the Minister of Finance is it possible for white men to prevent this Acting Provincial Secretary. The words process unless they are prepared to descend of the statute were clear and unmistakand here upon the same unutterable social able. The Governor had been induced apable of being worked by hydraulic miners, and they wanted to know just aplane as the Mongolfans are forced to acto put his hand to what was an illegal how much of the ground in that district was open for location.

Continuing, Mr. Curtis said the Premier, as President of the Council, was not a salaried officer and therefore legally incapable of taking that position The Attorney-General-He gets $1,000. Mr. Cartis-But not as President of Continuing, he said it was quite un-lawful for the President of the Council ever been refused. The government had to act as Chief Commissioner. Every act he performed as such was illegal? If a single injustice was done the subject, by their illegal acts, a validating act would have to be brought in, all this because the government could not get a which could not be obtained in the de Here the Attorney-General pointed to

Mr. Curtis-Yes, and that hon, gentleman has stated that he would not touch the portfolio had the government not if he got this information in a form dangled that huge railway bribe before the people of Victoria. Why don't hon The leader of the opposition orable gentlemen answer? They sit like sticks and are unable to answer. There would not be so much time wasted in this House if these gentlemen would give an explanation of their position. The resolution carried.

Mining Decision. Mr. Curtis moved: "That a return be ide to the House of the decision given by Mr. John Keen in the matter of the assessment and taxation of the ore output of the Le Roi and other mines at Rossland, British Columbia, together with a copy of the evidence given be-This also carried.

A Suspect's Escape. Mr. Martin to move: "That an order of the House be granted for copies of all ndence between the Attorney-General's department and any person, with regard to the escape of one Jessop from a smallpox quarantine at Vancouver city, and the refusal of the Attorney-General's department to allow said Jessop to be prosecuted, including all reports received from Dr. Fagan in conhad not been secured before a lease was The consent of men on Willow creek says; nection with the same.' granted. In doing so he said the matter was one of some importance. He reviewed Gold Commissioner's office at Atlin. The the name of any other person whose name the circumstances. Jessop, a resident in late Minister of Mines had instructed appears on the proper register of voters, the circumstances. Jessop, a resident in late Minister of Mines and instructed a quarantined building, made his escape. A warrant was taken out for his arrest, That warrant was deliberately suppressed by the government and the suppressed by the government and the suspect encouraged in his evasion of the only wanted their rights and these they be liable to a fine not exceeding two hunsion that the colonial premiers had not act. He pressed for punishment of det been invited to the coronation. He also those who disrespected quarantine. Dr. those who disrespected quarantine. Dr. Fagan, in whose hands the matter had been placed, evidently thought the quarantine was an improper one, and instructed the provincial police officer not to prosecute until instructed to do so by be perhaps again. Dr. Fagan. That was an extreme power The order was granted. to place in the hands of any officer of the government. There should be no of deaths, births and marriages.

The Finance Minister submitted a interference of that kind with a health officer. It looked to him as though Jessop had been told by some one with pull" with the government that he could eave quarantine and would be immuni from arrest. The execution of the war-rant for Jessop's arrest had been stopped by a government official. This looked very bad indeed. It looked as though Jessop had an improper pull with the authorities. This was the first occasion he heard of where the law was evaded. The Attorney-General said me did not know Jessop. From his information it appeared Jessop did escape and went to he upper country and it was considered larey, the news came like a thunderone mistake he doubtless was able to give a good account of it. He was ab-gram by the war secretary, Mr. Brod-Mr. Martin held that the Attorney-Genrick, was listened to in deep silence, which was broken by loud Irish cheers: eral's officer, Dr. Fagan, had no authority to intercept a warrant. Supt. Hussey Instantly there were cries of "Shame, sion of that docu

The resolution carried. The Victoria Vacancy.

Reaching the adjourned debate on the motion that a writ issue for the Vic- were received with cheers. toria vacancy. Mr. Helmcken said he was glad to see the object he had in view had been accomplished, doubtless with satisfaction to the government. As a mem

1. The number of hydraulic leases Gladstone himself, if he returned from ted in the Atlin district since the the dead, could not dare to entrust an 9th of August, 1900. 2. The number of independent parliament to men who ands, to-day gave testimony before the since the 9th of August, 1900, with readisaster.

In doing so Mr. Stables said that a for speculative purposes.

the question of the member for Cassiar.

THE IRISH CHEERED

When Kitchener's Dispatch Was Read

in House of Commons.

and four guns had been captured by isiness on the stock exchange, but excited curb dealings quickly followed the closing, in which South Africans slump-denly subsided. The subsequent eulo-gistic reference to General Methuen

Rosebery's Rebuke.

spoke before a crowded meeting in St.

openly rejoiced at a British military

INDICTMENT FOR MURDER.

Cambridge Mass., March 10-The ternoon reported an indictment in four alias Jos. Barnard, charging him with once to secure the presence of the de-held. Blondin is now in New York city was committed in Chelmsford on April

FOOT ELM

cures

CHILBLAINS.

It also preserves shoe leather and pre-

The indictment alleges that the crim

27th, 1901.

Glasgow, March 10.-Lord Rosebery

cupied by individual miners.

Health is Wealth

Vapor Bath Cabinet

CYRUS H. BOWES. CHEMIST.

98 Government Street, Near Yates Street, TELEPHONE 425. weeks' delay. No applications rec

no desire to see the country locked up Mr. Curtis pointed out that this emphasized weakness in the department partment. He asked if any leases re ALLEGED PERSONATORS Commissioner had been refused by the ompliment the new Minister of Mines

The leader of the opposition said that having been Minister of Mines he could not recall a single application endorsed by the Gold Commissioner that had been refused. Mr. Graham had left nothing Friday Morning. undone to protect the interests of in-dividual miners. He thought there was nformation in the department to satisfy before raised it, and the speaker was surprised that it should be brought up at the eleventh hour. Mr. Stables held that he had brought p this matter in the first session of the House and pointed out that no bydraulic leases should be granted on ground oc-Mr. McBride-That's not so. And I Mr. Bodwell, immediately after the ac further state that there was not a single cused was detected by watchful Bodwell hydraulic lease granted during my term scrutineers, and although Prior supporters. of office, any portion of which was occupied by individual miners.

Mr. Stables said he had brought the on him they did not appear anxious to back matter to Mr. McBride's attention in his up their charge by taking proceedings own office, but while expressing sympathy for the individual miner, Mr. Mc-Bride had never let it extend to Atlin.

16 of the Provincial Elections Act, which granted.

In the legislature any person knowingly personates and faisely assumes to vote in two dather's. The magistrate cautioned him against making such statements at that The Attorney-General submitted the time, as they could be used against him, nnual report of the Registrar-General and the prisoner thereupon subsided. He deaths, births and marriages. remanded until Friday, and in umber of reports also, and the House time the accused will make an effort to serure a lawyer. The other man was more garrulous than his comrade. His name is John Johnson, and he is charged with conspiring to personate. The information in his case is laid under section 177 of the act, which is as follows: "The returning officer, or deputy return London, March 10.-When it was and ing officer, shall, if he has reason to susounced that General Lord Methuen pect that any person is personating or at-and four guns had been captured by tempting or about to personate any elector the Boers commanded by General De- or deceased elector, or if called upon so to the upper country and it was considered inadvisable to spend a large sum of money to bring him back to Vancouver to prosecute. The remarks of the honorable member had been very sharp. Dr. Fagna was an efficient officer in starm.

> ed heavily. The news caused excitement in the mine market. Shares were offerin their hour of need The third man, Albert Faulkner, was disexcitement had abated and the curb tone charged. As he was leaving the dock he The news was received in the House of Commons amid great excitement. all instances, and said, "I'd like to know > > turned, and the prisoner left the room. No body was nervous.

> >
> > There was a large attendance, but none from the government benches. of the Colonel's enthusiastic admirers put

> > > DR. AGNEW'S CATARRHAL POWDER throat, tonsilitis and catarrh. Some of the most recent evidence of its efficacy comes from a well known actor, whose home is in New York City. He says: "I have never found anything to equal this remedy for quick relief." 50 cents. Sold by Jackson & Co. and Hall & Co.—137.

PHILIPPINE AFFAIRS.

Natives Show Strong Desire For Social Betterment.

evidenced by the sending of the children fendant in Middlesex county, where the to schools.

WATERS OF LAKES.

Washington, March 10.-The River and Harbor Bill and report presented to the House to-day by Chairman Burton shows some features not given hereto-Section 4 authorizes the dent to invite Great Britain to join in a commission to secure suitable levels in the great lakes and connecting waters. The report refers to information vents the feet from getting sweaty and reaching the committee that Canada is ready to undertake the join work.

WERE CHARGED IN THE POLICE COURT

BEFORE MAGISTRATE

Prosecution Instituted on Behalf of Mr Bodwell-Cases Remanded Until

(From Tuesday's Daily.) "That's not my name; it's my father's." This was the rather astonishing reply of John James, who was charged in the police court this morning with personating one James Friday, deceased, at the provincial. bye-election yesterday. The information was laid by J. H. Lawson, ir., on hehalf of dred dollars, or to be imprisoned for a term Mr. McBride, in reply to Mr. Stables, not exceeding six months."

Friday morning next. Johnson was allowed sureties of $50 each or one surety of $100. Up till noon neither man had procured ball. Their friends had evidently deserted them son, who appeared for the prosecution in that gentleman's name?"

"My name is Lawson." Mr. Lawson re-

Then the Irish members seemed to in an appearance. think better of their outbreak and sud-

Washington, March 12.-David P. Barrows, chief of the bureau of non-Christian tribes of the Philippine Islsenate committee on the Philippines. He separated the Filipinos into two elements. The cultured class is small. only about a dozen families in every town of a population of 10,000. The re mainder have no education and no grand jury of Middlesex county this af- wealth, and are controlled economic and socially by the upper class. urts against Joseph Wilfrid Blondin, years, he spid, this class and the Americans labored under a great misapprehen sion of each other, but there was an understanding now among the. classes. Mr. Barrows said there is a

BRITISH

E. C. SMITH,

Liberal-Labor sentime leader, Mr. Martin, last the government.

with all the more force

CHAS, W. MUNRO CHILLIWA

that county, and on cor ministry. For two year church, when ill-health he took up farming in Chilliwack district to was first returned as a assumed an attitude of chaos, and is now one McBride.
Mr. Munro is a de hearing when he add garage process

L. A. MOUNCE,

COMOX Louis Mounce, the men sits at the extreme end of terial row, and has never into making a speech, fo most modest of men. having been born in Av 1857. His clean shaven belie his forty-five years estate, he went to New spent a year in Gotham Columbia in the fall of 18 ed in Victoria and then mo, where he lived for he paid a visit again to h lantic seaboard. Return Island, he went again to to Wellington, where he mill business, afterwar Comox, where he now o illing business. Mr. Mou liking for this city, for it found his wife, then a Mi friends here, her home be PARIS BL Warehouses Containing Velvets Dest Paris, March 11.-The which has been seen in burning of the Opera Co broke out last night block of warehouse martre. The warehous by ten firms and the lo buildings were filled and woolen goods. Fou seriously injur mated at £50.000 "KEEP YOUR STOMA WORKING ORDER and ye will take care of itself." I of an eminent speciafist obles, and he "clinehed" to bles, and he "clinehed" to bles, and he "clinehed" to scribing Dr. Von Stan's I as a wonder worker in all ach disorders from the I after eating to the circulations. Sold by Jackson & Co.—138.