The Ontario Elections. Last Tuesday was election day in Abandoned by Rich Parents.

The squalling of a baby attracted the attention of John Dowling as he was been in power in Ontario for twenty-five years, during twenty-two of which Sir Oliver Mowat has been Premier.

This is the seventh general election that he has carried one after the other.

The Mowat government returns to power with a strait Liberal majority of set least six and a baby strated the attention of John Dowling as he was going along Lexington Avenue to work in New York last week. On the stoop of No 851 he noticed a bundle in which he found a boy baby wrapped in a silk shawl. The child had evidently been on the steps all night. The durious thing in connection with the curious thing in connection with the abandonment is the fact that the Omtario and results in the Libers!
