Mrs. Jennett's Will Bequeaths to Alonso See, of Yonkers, About $200,000.
YONKERS, N. Y., Feb. 15.—To J. Alonso See, of this city, who until recently has been a clerk in the office of the local gas company, is bequeathed by the terms of the will of Mrs. Helen Jennett, of Detroit, the bulk of her estate, valued at about $200,000. Mrs. Jennett, who was formerly Miss Helen Klein, of New York city, died in New York last month, and was buried in Woodlawn Cemetery January 30. Her husband had died a short time previously in Detroit.
Mr. See was formerly a close friend of Miss Klein, and it is understood that they were engaged to be married, but the engagement was broken off. They first met at a dinner at Sherry's about seven years ago.
After their engagement was broken Miss Klein was married to William F. Jennett, of Detroit. Meanwhile Mr. See married Miss Grace Vought, of Yonkers, where they reside with their child, at No. 19 Cromwell place. Since her marriage to Mr. Jennett Mr. See heard occasionally from his former friend, and she had visited Mr. and Mrs. See at their home in Yonkers.
Mrs. Jennett was about thirty-two years of age, and had inherited considerable wealth from her father, who was a wealthy merchant, and also from her sister, who died in France several years ago. In her will Mrs. Jennett makes only two bequests, one of $5,000 to Frederick Steiner, of Detroit, and the other to Mr. See, who will receive the remainder, which includes valuable real estate in New York, horses and carriages and other personal property.
Mrs. Jennett's parents are dead, and there are no other relatives so far as

THE THIRTEEN PUZZLE.

An ingenious liberal who did not quite approve of the nomination of the late government candidate finds a connection between the fatal law of thirteen and the result of Tuesday. He submits the following series:
McKeown's majority in the convention.....13
Letters in Richard O'Brien's name.....13
Letters spelling John L. Carleton.....13
Letters spelling Michael McDade.....13
Letters spelling Thomas McAvity.....13
Letters spelling Harry A. McKewen.....13
Letters in the phrase "in a jocular way".....13
These statistics, shown to a person of a historical turn of mind, produced the following addition:
There were thirteen names on the memorial submitted by Mr. McKewen to Sir Leonard Tilley accusing Mr. Blair, Dr. Pugsley and other industrialists of boodling.
It is just thirteen years since Mr. McKewen made his declaration of conservative faith in the Mechanics' Institute—February 20, 1891.
The Sun's office boy has made a computation, showing that Mr. McKewen made thirteen speeches in the campaign, and points out that there are thirteen wards in the city. He also recalls the fact that on January 18 Mr. Emmerson arrived in Ottawa. The great man, who came here a week ago, sworn, that on February 13 he made the speech claiming 2,000 majority for McKewen, that the government has reduced the representation of the province to thirteen members, and that Mr. Emmerson has claimed the whole of them.

CATTLE SHIPMENTS.
The recent storms up west are likely to result in the detention here of all the steamers in port which carry cattle from St. John. British ports. The Manchester Commerce, which goes to Manchester, expects to receive 500. The C. P. R. str. Lake Champlain hopes to have 250 for Liverpool. The C. P. R. str. Montrose counts on 488 for London. The C. P. R. str. Monmouth, which goes to Bristol, is looking for 350. The Donaldson str. Concordia is being prepared for 500 for Glasgow and Liverpool. Yesterday 200 bulls of the 500 intended for the Manchester Commerce reached St. John. They came over the I. C. R. Just when the remainder of the other 1,500 or 2,000 cattle will be in port is yet unknown. The greatest number of the steamers were scheduled to sail Saturday, but this will hardly be possible.

A CENTENARIAN SENATOR.
If Senator Wark lives until tomorrow he will enter upon the second century of his life. He will have nearly completed four score years of residence in this country though he came here a man, and it will be more than seventy-five years since he entered the public service as a school master at the Bend of the Peninsula.
Senator Wark's life covers a long chapter of imperial history. The most spectacular events of the life of Napoleon occurred since he was old enough to partly understand them. News of the disastrous Russian campaign brought excitement to his Irish home. He was old enough to read the papers when Wellington was driving the French from Spain, and was eleven years old at the time of the battle of Waterloo. Pitt and Fox were political leaders when he was born, and Nelson was preparing for his last great fight. The war of 1812 was an event of the time of his boyhood.

THE LURCHER.
HALIFAX, N. S., Feb. 17.—The lightship Lurcher, built in Toronto, is back again to Yarmouth, where she arrived this morning. It is at anchor a week since she was placed in position on the Burchar shoals.
In the storm that commenced on Monday the lightship began to roll and pitch and she parted her cable and drifted. Some time she was stuck for minutes before her condition was discovered. Then she was slung on the shoals with the sea breaking up on her fore and aft. The cable that parted was the one connected with what is called the "Mushroom" anchor.

SAYS WIFE CARRIES RAZOR IN STOCKING.
JOPLIN, Mo., Feb. 15.—A divorce petition with some peculiar allegations has been filed in the circuit court in this city. Harry Robertson alleges as a cause for action that his wife allowed the chicken to roost on the backs of the chairs in the house; and that she had several cats and dogs, and that they were allowed to stay in the house and sleep in the beds. He also charges that his wife always carried in her stocking and on several occasions attired herself in men's clothing and paraded the streets.

Father and Son

BOTH CURED OF KIDNEY TROUBLE BY

Doan's Kidney Pills.

Mr. Benjamin Brooks, a well-known farmer of West Cape, P. E. I., tells of how his son was cured of Kidney Disease, and how he was cured of Backache.
The First Sign of Kidney Trouble.
He says: "Our little boy was troubled with kidney disease. We had tried many kinds of kidney pills but they only helped for a time. We got Doan's Kidney Pills and one box effected a perfect cure. About six weeks after this I caught a very bad cold that settled in my kidneys. My back was so sore I could hardly walk. I went to the drug store and got a box, took them according to directions and the result was that my back completely cured. I believe they are the best kidney pill on the market today."
There is not a kidney trouble from Backache to Bright's Disease that Doan's Kidney Pills will not relieve or cure. The price is 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.45 and may be procured at all druggists or from CURLING.

St. John Row is the West.
The Winnipeg curlers gave a smoker the other evening, and in the account of it the Free Press says: On behalf of the visiting curlers Mr. Sinclair of St. John thanked the curlers for the manner in which they were treated. He looked on the trophies big and small with covetous eyes and thought how nice they would look in the east, and promised to tell stories in the east that would bring all the best curlers to Winnipeg for the next April.
An exchange says: Shaw of St. John, N. B., met Woodhouse of Victoria and defeated him handsily. Shaw's men all played a good winning game, and Woodhouse, not receiving the support he deserved from his men, retired beaten by three points.
Payne of the Thistle club played Milligan of St. John in the Brunswick, and defeated him rather easily. The St. John men only counting four shots out of the 12, one of them being the first one, on which they tallied three points.
Shaw of St. John, N. B., played Irwin of Sarnia, and defeated him after a stiff uphill fight. At the end of the ninth end Irwin was four points to the good, but the easterners counted three points on the tenth, repeated the good work on the eleventh, and counting on the twelfth, winning out by three points.

PULPIT SHRINE FOR POCAHONTAS DUST.

Memorial of Wood From Her Own Virginian Forests Soon to be Erected.

LONDON, Feb. 11.—A pulpit made of wood brought from the forests of Virginia is soon to be placed in St. George's church at Gravesend, in commemoration of Princess Pocahontas, who is buried in the chancel.

Kingsley, in "Westward Ho," erroneously states that after being received at the court of St. James with the honors of a sister sovereign she ended her days in wretchedness in some Wapping garret. Her death took place at Gravesend when she was about to embark for Virginia with her husband, and the entry of her burial, on March 21, 1616, is still preserved in the register, which, fortunately was saved when the church burned down in 1727.

ICE INTERFERED.

It was intended that the tugs Flushing and Springhill should start last night for Parrsboro with empty barges. In view of the object of their going in company being to have one boat ready if possible to assist the other in the event of one becoming disabled on account of the drift ice which almost impedes progress up or down the bay. But word received yesterday from Parrsboro over the telephone indicated that it would be dangerous and probably useless to start out. No move was therefore made. The str. Kilkree, which had been damaged in the ice, was still unable to dock the schooner or herself at the wharf at Parrsboro yesterday. The ice made it an utter impossibility.

OFFICIAL RACES WITH RABBIT.

In Epaged.
Lieutenant Governor Willard, of Virginia, Wins a Unique Contest

RICHMOND, Va., Saturday.—Joseph E. Willard, the dignified lieutenant governor of Virginia, has proved himself the fleetest-footed man in the Old Dominion, having beaten a rabbit in a race.

Colonel Willard is young and active. He is fond of hunting. Furthermore, he is tender hearted, desiring to hunt anything.

The rabbit in question was discovered in an open field by the lieutenant governor, and might have been killed without difficulty, but Colonel Willard declined to take any mean advantage. He laid his gun down and said:

"If that rabbit can beat me running he can go wherever he chooses."

Then he stirred the rabbit up and there was a race across the field. Col. Willard gained steadily and just before the fence was reached succeeded in catching the rabbit by the hind leg.
