NASHVILLE (TENN.) GIRL MARRIES
THEATRICAL MANAGER OF NEW YORK

Mrs. Frederic W. Thompson, theatrical manager and widely known as one of the pioneer amusement park promoters in this country, having conceived Luna Park, at Coney Island, recently married Miss Selene Wheat Picher, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moorhouse Picher, of New Orleans, La., and Nashville, Tenn. Her father was a wealthy lawyer and planter. In Nashville, which is Mr. Thompson's home city, the couple met twenty years ago.

A cousin of the bride, Lieutenant Winston Picher, U. S. A., retired, of Nashville, gave the bride away. Her only relatives present were Miss Stewart Elliott and Mr. Frank Sanger, also of Nashville. Miss Maria Thompson Davies, the authoress, was the bride's principal attendant.

Ermine Climo, was gowning in navy blue with hat to match and carried a bouquet of pink carnations. Mr. Frank Tinsley, groomsmen, wore a tuxedo. The bride's train was carried by Mrs. Robert Mawhinney of Macle's Bay. A delightful reception was given the delegates by the Young Women's Guild on Tuesday evening. Among the speakers were Rev. Canon Gould, Toronto, secretary M. S. C. C., and his Lordship Bishop Richardson. One of the features of the meetings was the numerous papers on interesting subjects. Missionary work, both foreign and home, was dealt with while the general routine of church and society work was carried out. Mrs. Thomas Walker, president of the auxiliary, presided. The delegates were entertained at the residences of the local members. The St. Joseph Society presented under the capable direction of Mr. John Lloyd, "The Lily of Killarney," in the Opera House from Monday evening to Friday evening, inclusive, for the benefit of the Home of the Good Shepherd and were received by large and enthusiastic audiences each night, which must have been most encouraging not only to the large numbers taking part but those through untiring efforts the production was given.

The chief event of the week was the presence of Sir John of Sir Charles Tupper, Canada's great chief, who sailed on the Empress of Ireland for England on Thursday. The Women's Auxiliary Club, with characteristic thoughtfulness, sent a magnificent basket of Richmond and Connaught roses, and a beautiful white and blue Canadian ensign. The whole effect was most charming, and in the basket was a card containing the greetings of the club to Sir Charles, wishing him bon voyage and many more years of health and happiness. The aged chief was much touched by the graceful tribute and in his note of thanks to Mrs. E. A. Smith, the president of the club, expressed his earnest appreciation of the club's greetings and stated it was one of the most beautiful bouquets of flowers he had ever seen. The basket was placed in the centre of the dining table honored by Sir Charles' presence during the voyage.

PLEASE PUBLISH MY TESTIMONIAL

So Other Sufferers will Take
"Fruit-a-tives" and be Cured

Gratitude — heartfelt gratitude — prompted this. Madame Langlois was so thankful to "Fruit-a-tives" for restoring her to health and strength, that she gladly allowed her letter to be published.

Madame Valerie Langlois.

St. Roman, Que., Sept. 23rd, 1912.

"I have pleasure in stating that I have been cured of severe Dyspepsia and Chronic Constipation by using 'Fruit-a-tives.' I was a terrible sufferer from severe Constipation for many years, and I tried every remedy I heard of, and also was treated by physicians without any permanent benefits.

Then I tried 'Fruit-a-tives,' and this fruit medicine has completely cured both the Constipation and Indigestion. I cannot praise 'Fruit-a-tives' enough.

MADAME VALERIE LANGLOIS.

The Lady Doc

This may be a diverting tale, but one must have patience and a peculiar sense of humor to enjoy reading about a thoroughly unprincipled woman whose slight knowledge of medicine gives her the opportunity to impose upon all who come within her grasp. The last chapter stones in a slight degree only for all the agony that precedes it.

out and strengthens the stopped up, lifeless kidneys so they filter and sift all the poisons from the blood and drive it out of the system.

So sure, so positive, so quick and lasting are the results obtained from the use of Croxone, that three doses a day for a few days are often all that is required to cure the worst backache, regulate the most annoying bladder disorders and overcome the numerous other similar conditions.

It is the most wonderful preparation ever made for the purpose. It is so prepared that it is practically impossible to take it into the human system without results.

An original package of Croxone costs but a trifle, and all druggists are authorized to return the purchase price if Croxone fails to give desired results, regardless of how old you are, how long you have suffered, or what else has failed to cure you.
