MILLIONS

OF PEOPLE IN AGONY

Physicians Cornered!

I SUPPOSE there is not in the whole of a physician's experience, anything in human suffering which calls forth his sympathy, and pity, to such an extent, as to witness the excruciating pains of a poor mortal, suffering from that fearful disease,

RHEUMATISM!

Heretofore there has been a considerable diversity of opinion among medical men, as to the true character of this disease. Some locating it in the fibrous or muscular tissues of the system, and others viewing it as an acute nervous disease; but it is now generally admitted to be a disease arising from a poison circulating in the blood, and further it is admitted that Rheumatism can never be thoroughly cured without exterminating such poisonous matters from the blood, by a constitutional internal remedy. We feel confident that none will feel better satisfied, and rejoice more, than the conscientious physician, who has found out that cure for this stubborn disease has been discovered. The following testimony from a gentleman of standing, and high respectability, and well known to the Canadian public, cannot fail to satisfy all that the

is a wonderful medical discovery.

MR. ISAACSON'S ENDORSATION.

MONTREAL, 21st March, 1874.

MESSRS. DEVINS & BOLTON,

Dear Sirs,—I, with pleasure, concede to the agent's wish that I give my endorsation to the immediate relief I experienced from a few doses of the Diamond Rheumatic Cure, having been a sufferer from the effects of Rheumatism, but now, after taking two bottles of this medicine, entirely free from pain. You are at liberty to use this letter, if you deem it advisable to do so.

I am, sirs, yours respectfully,

JOHN HELDER ISAACSON, N. P.

FURTHER PROOF.

I AM ANOTHER MAN!

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29, 1874.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have suffered for fifteen months with Chronic Rheumatism, and could not find any relief, after trying every medicine that I saw advertised to cure it, until I was told about the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have used three bottles of this valuable remedy, and now can say that I am another man to what I was. I would advise anybody suffering with this terrible disease to to try it, and see if it does not do the same for them that it did for me.

Yours,

JAMES L. EVANS, Indiantown.

BARNES' HOTEL,

ST. JOHN, N. B., Sept. 29 1875.

A. CHIPMAN SMITH,

Dear Sir,—I have great pleasure in stating that I put every confidence in your Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have suffered for the last two years with Rheumatic Pains, during which time I have had the advice of some of the most prominent medical men in the Province, but experienced no relief, until I tried the Diamond Rheumatic Cure. I have now taken three bottles, and I feel greatly improved, and now am confident of a permanent cure.

Yours truly,

JAMES O'BRIEN.

There is no medicine which so promptly relieves the depressed vital action, restores the general and local circulation, allays the pain, dissipates the congestion, prevents inflammation, and restores the healthy action as the

DIAMOND RHEUMATIC CURE!!

This medicine is for sale at all the druggists through Canada. If it happens that your druggist has not got it in stock ask him to send for it to

NOTES AND NEWS.

UNITED STATES.

Although the process of making barrels from paper was patented only about six months ago there are now two factories working, one at Winona, Wis., and the other at Decorah, Iowa, the latter turning out 1600 barrels per day.

Californians tell the story that a fine bay horse was found suspended one morning recently, from a cherry tree, by the neck, and dead. He had been hitched to a branch of the tree, which had grown so rapidly during the night as to lift him from the ground and hang him.

An anecdote of Mr. Gerrit Smith relates that on one occasion, when a visitor had outstayed his welcome and had become a preternatural nuisance, Mr. Smith in the morning prayed for a blessing to descend upon "our visiting brother, who will this day depart from us." And he departed. Such a pin as that was sharp enough to be felt by the most pachydermatous of bores.

The Littleton (N. H.) Republic tells about a little six-year-old girl in Monroe who went into a store where her father was lounging, the other day, and slyly approaching him said: "Papa, won't you buy me a new dress?" "What! buy you a new dress, Susy?" "Yes, papa, won't you?" "Well, I'll see. I'll speak to your mother about it." Elongation to an alarming extent rapidly spread over that little countenance, but a thought suddenly struck her, and with a smile she looked up into her father's face and said: "Well, papa, if you do speak to mamma about it, touch her easy, or she may want the new dress herself!" The father at once saw the point and the new dress was purchased.

We suppose that his intellect must have been temporarily impaired by the excitement of the occasion. It was at Dubuque. The ceremony had been performed. The congratulations had been tendered. The happy 2 made 1 were about to turn upon the bridal bolt—the marital meandering. Then it was that He (poor fellow!) jumped on the rear end of a train going out at one end of the depot, while she sat sweetly waiting for her lord in a train going at the other end! He had only stepped out to see about the baggage. One or the other kind hearted conductor might have put back—but which was it to be? Never did the time and space make two lovers more unhappy.

A New Englander, riding in a railroad car, seemed particularly disposed to astonish the other passengers with tough stories about Yankeedom. At last he mentioned that one of his neighbors owned an immense dairy, and made a million pounds of butter and a million pounds of cheese yearly. This story produced some sensation; and the Yankee, perceiving that his veracity was in danger of being questioned, appealed to a friend as follows: "True, isn't it, Mr. P.? I speak of Deacon Brown—you know Deacon Brown?" "Y e c-s," replied the friend; "that is, yes; I know Deacon Brown; I don't know as I ever heard precisely how many pounds of butter and cheese he makes a year, but I know that he has twelve saw mills that go by buttermilk."

The good people of a certain town in the West are or have been in trouble about a schoolmaster hired without sufficient precaution. It being discovered that he spells "soldier" "sodger," and "kerosene" "cerosene," and that he has many other bold opinions concerning orthography, the School Committee have requested him to leave. But he refuses. They fasten the school-house door. He breaks it open and "keeps school" in spite of them. They have asked him to go, begged him to go, prayed him to go, ordered him to go, offered him money to go, but he still keeps on teaching that "sodger" spells "soldier." All but fifteen pupils have been taken out of the school; but if there were no pupils at all he wouldn't go.

Kansas City has a vocal dog, and this is the way he is described by a local reporter: "It would be utterly impossible to express in words the force, the depth, and variety of this canine vocalism. It expresses all the modulation and modification of human distress. The plaintive wail of suffering infancy, the groan of the strong man's agony, the moans of the sick and wounded, the stifled cry of the victim under the grasp of the garroter, the shout of defiance, the scream of terror, the yell of despair, grief, rage, madness, nightmare, delirium tremens, baffled ambition, disappointed love, defeat in elections, the bummer's bacchanalian shout, toothache, corns on the toes, mosquitoes and all the ills that flesh is heir to are faithfully delineated or vividly suggested by this canine ventriloquist."

GENERAL.

A newspaper printed in English has just been started at Berlin. It is called the International Gazette.

A lawyer pictured the meanness of an opponent by saying that if his soul should be placed inside of a mustard seed, it would have as much play room as a woodchuck would have in the State of Connecticut.

A verdict has been rendered against Mr. Sampson, late city editor of the London Times, who was sued by Mr. Rubery for libel in charging him with being guiltily implicated in the Arizona diamond fraud. The defendant is required to pay £500 damages.

The Chancellor has submitted to the Federal Council an ordinance prohibiting the importation into Germany of American potatoes as a precaution against the introduction of the Colorado beetle and the spread of the potato disease.

An exchange defines a blunderbuss as kissing the wrong girl—just as though it were possible to be wrong in kissing any girl. A blunderbuss is for men to kiss one another as Frenchmen do, or for girls to kiss one another, as they often do for want of a man to kiss them.

Right Hon. W. E. Forster, in a public speech at Bradford, alluding to the United States, suggested that the Centennial Exhibition at Philadelphia would afford a good opportunity for discussing the patent laws. He referred to the retirement of Mr. Gladstone with regret. It was an example of disinterestedness and self-sacrifice. He earnestly hoped that that gentleman would not altogether quit political life.

"Grandma, do you know why I can see a pin in the sky so far?" asked Charlie, a little four year old, of the venerable lady who sat on the garden seat knitting. "No, my dear, why is it?" said grandma, bending her eye eager to catch and remember the wise saying of the precious little pet. "Because there is nothing in the way," replied the young philosopher, resuming his astronomical research, and grandma her knitting.

A NEW THING AND A GOOD THING

THE invention of the paper collar was of positive benefit to the world, furnishing as it did, a neat, clean, and most economical article of apparel. But it never did answer all the purposes for which it was designed, owing to the frail nature of the material. The problem has been to make a cloth collar as cheap as paper that would last longer and could be made always fresh and bright. The new "44" collar, now upon the market, fills these requirements perfectly. It is made entirely of cloth, three thicknesses being used; it so closely resembles the finest linen that it might be sold anywhere for linen; and, no matter how much it may be soiled, it can be cleaned and made as bright as ever by the application of a damp sponge or cloth.
