CHILDREN'S CARNIVAL

About forty children took part in the Juvenile Carnival here last Friday. Their costumes were pleasing and delighted the spectators; the costumes being quite varied from a monkey to old King Tut's wife.

Of all the entertainments at the arena, which have created much interest, possibly this carnival was the premier attraction. Both parents and children had a most enjoyable time in preparation for the event, judging from the splendid array of costumes and the cleverness with which they were gotten up.

"Moon" Landers on the piano and "Diddle" Dodge on the traps, was the source from whence the delightful swinging music for the evening emanated to the general satisfaction of the skaters and spectators alike.
