

CONTENTS.

EPOCH SIXTH.

CHAPTER I.

Reflections.—Unprovided for difficulties.—Presentiments.—Arrival at New York.—News from the Consul.—At Geneva.—At Batavia.—Buffalo.—Canada newspapers.—Conduct of Mr. Rolfe.—Arrival.—Wait on the Governor.—Consequences 1

CHAPTER II.

Letters from Sir P. Maitland..... 8

CHAPTER III.

The charges of the Lieutenant-Governor.—My private letter to Mr. Horton in consequence..... 17

CHAPTER IV.

Send copy of the letter to Mr. Horton to Sir P. Maitland.—Motive.—Appoint the Attorney General my adviser.—Proceed with my business 29

CHAPTER V.

At Quebec.—Attentions from the Earl and Countess of Dalhousie.—Mention to his Lordship my reception in Upper Canada.—Business.—An amateur theatre.—Return to Upper Canada..... 33

CHAPTER VI.

Inquiries respecting the climate of Lower Canada.—Vegetation under the snow.—Another local phenomenon.—Floating ice in the river.—Cross the river..... 38