“An Act to authorize Loans in aid of the construction of Docks in British Possessions.”—(Passed 5th July, 1865.)

Sec. 1.—Short Title of Act.

Sec. 2.—Interpretation of terms.

Sec. 3.—Power to Treasury to issue out of Consolidated Fund any sum not exceeding £300,000, to account of Admiralty—for purposes of Loans under this Act.

Sec. 4.—Account of Admiralty to be opened at Bank of England.

Sec. 5.—Money issued to be carried to account of Admiralty.

Sec. 6.—Out of the money for the time being standing to the credit of the said account, the Admiralty may from time to time, if and as it seems fit, with the previous approval in each instance of the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, lend such sums of money as may be required to any person forming or enlarging any Dock in any Colony, and being willing to make the same of dimensions sufficient to meet the requirements of Her Majesty's Naval Service on such terms and conditions as may be agreed on between the Admiralty and the Borrower, subject nevertheless to the following provisions.

(1.) The money lent shall not exceed the sum of twenty thousand pounds, nor shall it exceed the estimated cost of increasing the dimensions of the Dock beyond those required for commercial or other private purposes.

(2.) The amount agreed to be lent shall be made payable by instalments as the works connected with the formation or enlargement of the Dock purposes:
