5 IV. And be it enacted, That in all cases of a summary conviction before any one or two Justices of the Peace, under the provisions of the several Acts passed in the Session held in the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty's Reign, chapters twenty-five, twenty-six and twenty-seven, and intituled respectively, "An Act for consolidating and 10 "amending the laws in this Province relative to larceny and other offences connected therewith,"—"An Act for consolidating and amending the laws in this Province relative to malicious injuries to property,"—and "An 15 "Act for consolidating and amending the statutes in this Province relative to offences against the person," it shall and may be lawful for such Justice or Justices, in his or their discretion, to issue his or their warrant to levy, by distress and sale of the offender's goods and chattels,
20 the amount of fine and costs imposed, and in default of the same being levied and made, the offender or offenders may be committed to the Common Gaol or House of Correction for the period and in the manner prescribed by the above mentioned Statutes, or to proceed, as here-
25 tofore, by committal for default of payment instead of issuing such distress warrant.

In cases of summary conviction under 4 & 5 Vict. caps. 25, 26, 27, warrant of distress may issue, in discretion of the Justice or Justices.

V. And be it enacted, That in all cases where costs are payable by parties who may have failed in prosecuting with effect, it shall and may be lawful for the 30 Justice or Justices before whom complaint may have been made, to issue his or their warrant to levy by distress and sale of the goods and chattels of such person so failing to prosecute, such costs as shall be determined by the Justice or Justices, to be payable by him or them.

Costs against prosecution failing may be levied by distress.

35 VI. And be it enacted, That this Act shall not be construed to authorise any claim being made by the Justices aforesaid, for Fees of any description connected with cases above the degree of misdemeanor; nor shall witnesses in such cases be allowed anything for their 40 attendance or travel, except under the order of the Court before which the trial of the case shall be had; anything in this Act to the contrary thereof in anywise notwithstanding.

Act not to authorize fees or allowance to witnesses, in cases above misdemeanors, &c.

VII. And be it enacted, That this Act shall come into 45 operation on and take effect from the first day of next.

Commencement of Act.
