

for the re-union of Lands, Lots or Building Lots, conceded en Roture, and which may, according to Law, be re-united to the Domain of the Fiefs and Seigniories of which they hold, may grant or reject, on the return of the service of such Writ or Summons and of the declaration thereunto annexed, and on the certificate in such case by Law authorised and given by the Rector and one of the Captains of Militia of the Parish and of the Fief and Seigniorie within the limits of which shall be situated the Lands, Lots or Building Lots of which the re-union to the Domain shall, in and by such declaration be demanded, or upon any other proof which such Court may order, and such Court is hereby empowered to grant or reject by the same judgement or by several judgements, the demand or any part of the demand made in such declaration, or make such order as to justice shall appertain, upon such return and such certificate or such other proof as shall have been ordered, whether such Grantees or Tenants appear in person or by Attorney or make default.