WINNIPEG CONVENTION.

By the time this issue of the Canadian Forestry Journal reaches our members the final preparation for the Winnipeg Convention, July 7, 8, 9 will be in full swing. In order that there may be no mistake the details of the railway arrangements are repeated in this issue. (Page 92.)

While it is still impossible to give the program in detail, it is evident from the names that have been already received that the most important subjects in regard to forest conservation in Canada will be fully dealt with by those who are able to speak with authority. This will be particularly true of all subjects relating to the forests of Western Canada and of the three prairie provinces, and of farmers' tree plantations on the prairies. From the returns already received it is expected there will be a large attendance from both east and west, but particularly from the prairies.

The Call to Convention was sent out before this issue so that it is doubtless now in the hands of all our members, and we shall be glad if those who are intending to go to Winnipeg will send a note to that effect to the Secretary.

While the Secretary will be leaving in a few days to arrange the final details of the convention at Winnipeg, letters addressed to him at the Canadian Building, Ottawa, will be carefully attended to as arrangements have been made either to have correspondence dealt with promptly in Ottawa or forwarded at once to him in the West.

There is no reason why this should not be one of the best conventions ever held by the Association, and
