

THE CITY'S SAVAGE.

A Special Committee to Take Up the Whole Subject of the Board of Works.

Chairman Carlyle of the Board of Works has decided that his committee has too much important work to do to trust the Secretary to the committee to represent the members of the Board.

The deposition of Rosedale ratcatchers, of whom Mr. John Houghton and Albert Davis were spokesmen, complained of the food and unhealthy state of the Rosedale creek. A sub-committee was appointed to consider the matter.

Mr. J. D. Oliver complained that a German named Osterhout living near his residence on Avenue Street, kept a noisy, rickety, old-fashioned chicken and a most objectionable water closet in a yard next door to his house.

The City Engineer recommended the construction of sewers on Markham Street, from Queen to Bloor Streets, from the present eastern terminus to Logan Avenue.

The Two main Interests with the House of Industry Meetings. Methodist ministers were so scarce at the regular monthly meeting of the House of Industry Board yesterday afternoon that Chairman S. A. Orr was prompted to remark: "Sun, Jones and Sam Monday morning meeting."

The Great Society. The meeting of the Royal Grenadians was presented to the successful musician last night at the Drill Hall. The points were made and the command of Major Hawson, in the absence from the ranks of the Colonel.

Mr. St. Alban's Park. A meeting of ratcatchers of the property known as St. Alban's Park was held yesterday to consider a proposal for the enclosure of the park.

An Electric Light on a Prolie. At 10.30 last night the electric light in the office of the New Toronto Hotel in Jarvis-street took it into its head to have some fun and began flashing streaks of incandescent electricity in various directions.

Men's Parallels. Mr. E. C. Rutherford publishes his card to-day as a real estate and insurance broker. His office is at 53 King-street east.

Deaths. Ross—At 12.30 Adelaide-street West, on Oct. 19th, 1886, William Ross, aged 51 years.

A NEW DEAL COMBINATION.

A Review of the New Bible Competition of "TRUTH" and "LADIES JOURNAL."

For about three years past a series of Bible Competitions have been in progress in Toronto, Canada, which have created great and widespread interest. Most of the leading men and women of Canada, in fact of the world, have taken part in these competitions, as well as thousands of others in all grades and conditions of life.

Ladies are specially invited to inspect our stock of Ladies' Vests, Shawls, Dresses and Mantles. We are also offering on terms to suit everybody.
