

calendar

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 30
Ocean Heritage is the title of a movie about Newfoundland showing at Central library, 8 p.m.

THURSDAY, JULY 1
Canada Week ends today.

FRIDAY, JULY 2
A summer reading group for youngsters up to Grade 6 opens at Streetsville library.

A display of Canadian, British and American commemorative glass opens at Streetsville library, courtesy of Gordon Sykes of Etobicoke Historical Society.

Exhibition of art work by Maureen O'Byrne and Richard Plander opens at Port Credit library.

The extension services of Royal Ontario Museum have supplied some ancient Egyptian artifacts for display at Port Credit library from July 2 to the end of August.

An exhibit of surrealist drawings by Dennis Milton opens at Central library, to July 29.

SATURDAY, JULY 3
A student performance by participants of the Kelso Quartet Camp at Erindale College will be held at the South Building on the campus, 8 p.m. The camp for aspiring musicians is conducted by the Vaghy Quartet. For more information, call 828-5214.

TUESDAY, JULY 6
Mississauga library's bookmobile begins storyhours for preschoolers, first of this summer's season at Sherway Dr. public school at 10:30 a.m.

Port Credit library has a program for "nature bugs," at 10:30 a.m., dealing this week in etchings of leaves and needles.

Central library invites youngsters six-to-12 to learn about stories through music at 2:30 p.m.

Stories for preschoolers are told at Park Royal library at 2:30 p.m., and there are movies for youngsters at 7 p.m.

WEDNESDAY, JULY 7
Crafts for youngsters are taught at Clarkson-Lorne Park library, 10:30 a.m. Youngsters aged 8 to 12 are asked to register for crochet classes beginning at Clarkson-Lorne Park library at 2 p.m.

Stories for preschoolers are told at the bookmobile at Silvercreek public school, 10:30 a.m. and at Homelands public school, 2:30 p.m.

Preschoolers can hear stories at Woodlands library at 2 p.m.

A pet show (every entrant on a leash or in a cage) is scheduled for Central library children's department at 2:30 p.m.

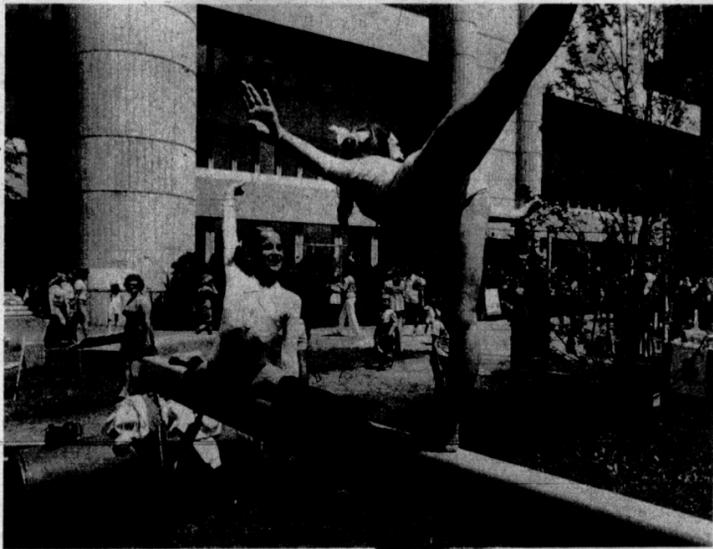

Nature films at Central library at 7:45 p.m. include the Living Jungle, The Story of Solo and Volcanoes.

Moe Koffman in action.

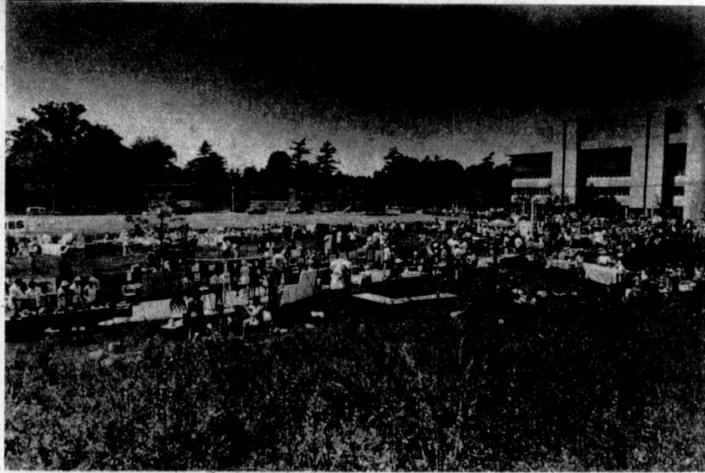

Dave May suns himself in front of pop poster.

Lisa Cumming (left) and Kathy Wadham make a well-balanced team.

Erin Mills Festival

Erindale College's South Campus was the site of the fourth annual Erin Mills Arts and Crafts Festival on Sunday. Over 150 artists and craftsmen participated. The festival is sponsored by the Erin Mills Peoples' Organization.

The overall picture.

Times photos by Gorm Larsen

clubs & events

The John Fitzgerald Council, Knights of Columbus, Mississauga, recently held its eighth annual awards dinner at Sheridan Mall auditorium. A $500 donation was presented to Mrs. D. Clarke, president of the Mississauga Red Cross. The second installment on the bus purchased for the Mississauga Association for the Mentally Retarded was presented to Dr. Vince Zuccaro, who is on the association's board of directors. Charles Vella of Alexander Rd. was voted by the 150 members to receive the Knight of the Year award. Vella organized the Human Race for the Mentally Retarded, Police Appreciation Night, Carmel Heights Bingo, and several other functions. The award was presented by Grand Knight Walter Genereaux.

MYSTERY GARDEN TOUR
Cloverleaf Garden Club's mystery tour of six gardens takes place July 12. Participants should pick up their mystery map at 1008 Mississauga Heights Dr. at 11 a.m. and proceed to the six selected gardens. After the tour there will be coffee and cakes at Sheridan Nursery.

$306 FOR PLAYGROUND
Sheridan Park Creative Playground Association raised $306 in its first fundraising event—a hot-dog day for children of Sheridan Park public school, where the playground is to be installed. Laura Dowdall won a bicycle in the raffle. Mississauga will put the main playground support posts in place in August. Volunteers are needed. The association is saving Dominion Store tapes and Canadian Tire money to help pay for playground items. Lumber, cargo nets, chain, piping, cement, sand, shrubs and railway ties are still needed. For further information, call 823-2009, 822-5897 or 822-2606.

BEAUTY CONTEST WINNER
Lorraine Cocchio of Elmwood Ave. in Port Credit is the winner of a beauty contest held by the Italian Club of Oakville. Lorraine, 22, works for a Toronto engineering company and turned her prize money over to the Italian Earthquake Fund. The runners-up followed suit.

UNITY PROGRAM
Unity of Mississauga will discuss the Book of Revelations tonight at 8 in the Texaco Hall, Mississauga Rd., south of Lakeshore Rd.

LIONS' CELEBRATION
July 1 is the 25th anniversary of the Streetsville Lions Club and a charter night celebration is planned for March 19, 1977 at the Hansa Club on Hwy. 10.

SURVIVAL CLASSES
Survival Know-how will be taught every Monday and Thursday between July 12 and Sept. 2 at Etobicoke YMCA, 3226 Bloor St. W., one block from Islington subway. Cost is $50. Adult classes take place from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. and 13-to-17-year-olds have classes from 1:30 p.m. to 3:30 p.m. Instructor is Ronald J. Cherkov of the Canadian Armed Forces, author of Which Way Out? For more information, call 231-2297.

COPIES AVAILABLE
A report on Accessibility and Availability of Services to Immigrants in Peel has been prepared by the Social Planning Division of Peel. Copies are available by contacting Peel Community Services at 270-2321.

PARENTS ANONYMOUS
A Parents Anonymous Association is being planned in Peel. For details, call Howard Denofsky at 451-1710, ext. 277.

VOLUNTEER CENTRE
Anyone wishing to do volunteer work should call Laurene Mumford, executive director of the Volunteer Centre of Peel at 275-4299. The centre co-ordinates volunteer needs in Peel and attempts to suit the interests of the volunteer to positions available.

LEGAL ADVICE CLINIC
The Ontario Legal Aid Plan has opened a legal advice clinic staffed by duty counsel at Peel Family Services, 93 Dundas St. E., Suite 105. The clinic is open from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. every Tuesday for free legal advice. No appointment is needed.

ARTS SURVEY
A steering committee has been formed

ed by the Bethesda Concert Series, Clarkson Music Theatre, Credit Valley Dramatic Society, Mississauga Players and the Mississauga Symphonic Association to do a survey of present and future needs of all performing arts groups in Mississauga. Any performing arts groups interested should write Miss Debbie Reynolds, Supervisor of the Arts, City of Mississauga Recreation and Parks Department, Mississauga, Ont. or phone 279-7600, ext. 389.

HOUSING DATA SOUGHT
Peel Association for Handicapped Adults would like to hear from any handicapped people in the area who are in need of housing. An integrated housing project which involves individual apartments especially designed for the handicapped is in the planning stages. The association needs to know the type of housing required from individuals, description of disability, support services required and area of location preferred. For more information, call Eugene Walser at 278-8129.

CHILDREN'S PROGRAM
The Holiday Magic Program for boys and girls, ages two to eight, has been reorganized and is available on the following dates: July 5 to July 9 and Aug. 9 to Aug. 13, 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. for youngsters up to four years old, and from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. for youngsters five to eight. Parents can participate with their children in the morning sessions. Crafts and gymnastics will be featured. The program will be held at Huron Park Recreation Centre and the weekly fee is $18. For more information, call 279-7600, ext. 209.

WORKSHOP FOR CHILDREN
A workshop for children, ages eight to 12, will be held at Springbank community centre Aug. 9 to 20, 9:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Marian Archibald and Loraine Jarvis will teach Orff, Strings, Choral, the Kodaly method and music appreciation. Instruments are provided. Cost of the two-week course is $60. For more information, call 844-3543 or 279-7600.

TOT PROGRAM
Streetsville Day Care Centre is offering a Drop-a-Tot Program which operates on a pay-as-you-go basis at $1 an hour. A social-and medical-history form must be completed before the first admission. After that, only a few hours notice must be given. A second program, which includes lunch, involves an afternoon day care centre for kindergarten children. Cost is $27.50 a week. For more information, call Val MacKenzie at 826-3191.

SUMMER DAY CAMP
Camp Advance, a summer day camp for children with learning disabilities, begins at Humber College's North Campus on Monday, July 5 and runs until Friday, Aug. 13. For further information, call 676-1200, ext. 554.

KINSMEN OFFICERS
The Kinsmen Club of Meadowvale has a new executive president, Al Johnson; vice-president, Ray MacWilliams; secretary, Mike Lonsdale; and bulletin editor, Neil Beattie. The club resumes regular meetings in September.

ERINDALE LIONS
Erindale Lions Club has stopped regular meetings for the summer. Finance sessions are staged by the executive July and August are reserved for social evenings, as well as the annual corn, wiener roast and dance.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS
The Knights of Columbus in Mississauga held their last Thursday social evening at Carmel Heights for the season on June 24. The last Thursday of every month throughout the regular year had been devoted to bingo playing with residents of the home. There's a break for July and August.

JAYCETTE ACTIVITIES
Mississauga Jaycettes are involved in the Jaycee central region baseball tournament this summer. They are also planning to have a refreshment booth at the annual soap box derby. The group meets every third Wednesday at members' homes.

OUTINGS FOR CHILDREN
Four days of special activities, swimming and trips have been planned by the YMCA this summer for children six-to-12-years. Included will be outings to Ontario Place; High Park, Toronto Island and Camp Kelso. Ontario Place takes place July 21. Children will be picked up and returned between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m. at Burnhamthorpe public school, Riverside and Sheridan Park. Youngsters will be required to bring a lunch, cold drink and bathing suit and towel, if applicable. Cost is $5.50 per trip or $20 for the lot. Call 274-5118.

Times photos by Gorm Larsen

FITNESS CLASSES
Belly dancing and fitness classes start July 6 and run to Aug. 10 at Riverside public school in Port Credit. Cost is $11 for the six weeks and classes take place Tuesday nights, 7:30 p.m. to 8:30 p.m. Organizers say the classes will lean toward strengthening, toning and stretching exercises, accompanied by music. Call 274-5118 for more details.

churches

Streetsville United Church and St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church will hold joint summer services at St. Andrew's from July 4 to Aug. 1 and at Streetsville United from Aug. 8 to Sept. 5. Services are at 10 a.m. and there will be classes for children up to Grade 1.

VOLUNTEERS NEEDED
Clarkson Road Presbyterian Church requires someone to look after the babies' room in September, two leaders for Explorers' group and a leader to begin a Children of the Church group.

ERINDALE UNITED
There will be no Sunday school at Erindale United Church until September, but the crib and toddler rooms are open all summer.

CHRIST RISEN
Christ Risen Lutheran Church holds services on Sundays at 10 a.m. There will be no Bible class or Sunday school during the summer months. The Women's Circle is collecting used postage stamps for the LWML to support mission work, and the Sunday school is saving Dominion tapes and hangers. Teachers, drivers and helpers are needed to support the Vacation Bible School, Aug. 16 to 27, 9:15 p.m. to noon. To enrol children, call 822-7361 or 822-8931. People are also needed to assist with the United Way campaign in October. Contact Jane Ferguson at 279-4998. New executive for the Women's Circle: president, Ruth Bragonier; treasurer, Doris Miller; secretary, Helga Markner; and Christian growth director, Friedl Ballaban.

TRINITY NURSERY SCHOOL
Trinity Nursery School, operating out of Trinity Anglican Church, 69 Queen St. S., Streetsville is full up for the morning sessions starting in September and is accepting registrations for the waiting list. The afternoon school has some vacancies. For more information, call 826-1901.

compliments of Mississauga Kinsmen Club, which invited seniors from Sheridan Villa, Peel Manor and the Queen Fredricka apartments.

LORNE PARK
Lorne Park seniors held their final meeting until Sept. 16 at Sheridan Villa drop-in centre. Anybody over 60 is invited to join the club.

POOL-PATIO PARTY
Sheridan Villa held a pool and patio party for the residents last Wednesday. There was a synchronized-swim demonstration and a summer fashion show.

TRIPS PLANNED
Seniors are off to Stratford and Niagara-on-the-Lake to see the theatre this summer. Ontario Place and a trip to the Ontario Science Centre are also being planned. The first outing is scheduled for Toronto Centre Island, Thursday, July 8, 9:15 a.m. from Cawthra Senior Citizens Centre. Bus fare is $1 and seniors are asked to bring a picnic lunch.

BOWLING LEAGUE
A mini 10-pin bowling league for nine weeks during July and August begins Tuesday, July 6, 1 p.m. at Applewood Lanes. Cost is $1.50 for three games and includes bowling shoes.

arts and crafts

Noel Ducharme, an Ojibway, has his art work on display at Burnhamthorpe library, 1350 Burnhamthorpe Rd., until July 13. His work features animals.

PHOTO EXHIBITION
David O'Keefe of Port Credit has a photographic exhibit of wildflowers on display at Colborne Lodge on Howard Rd. at the south entrance of High Park. O'Keefe has been cameraman for numerous documentaries, films and television commercials and has had several photographs published in magazines and on calendar fronts. The gallery is open daily from 9:30 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays and holidays from noon to 5 p.m. Admission is 50 cents for adults. The show runs until July 5.

JURIED ART ITEMS
The Peel Museum and Art Gallery, 7 Wellington St. E. in Brampton, is displaying art selected from its third annual juried art show. The museum is open from 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. For more information, call 451-9051.

YOU'RE INVITED
Artists Inn, a cooperative gallery on Birchview Dr. and Lorne Park Rd., invites all interested people to visit. Regular hours are Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m. For further information on the 22-member group, call 274-8582.

guides & scouts

SUMMER CAMP
The Summer Camp for cubs and scouts at Camp Ravasac near Orangeville still has a few openings. The camp features swimming, hiking, archery, crafts and the opportunity to work on badges. Tents will be used for sleeping, but meals are served in a central lodge.

The $50 weekly fee includes return transportation by bus from Mississauga. Camp periods begin and end on Fridays. For further information, contact the Scouting Office at 279-2729 between 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. before June 25. After that date, call 274-4081.

seniors

FOR INFORMATION
For information on the many activities and seniors clubs, phone Cawthra Centre at 274-2369.

A group of Mississauga seniors was given an afternoon cruise on the paddle-wheeler Mariposa Bell. The cruise was