

University of Queen's College, Kingston, Upper Canada, established	1840
Upper Canada Magnetical Observatory, established	1840
University of Victoria College, Cobourg, incorporated	1840
Congregational Theological Institute, Toronto, established	1840
Municipal system introduced into Upper Canada	1841
Common School system revived in Upper and Lower Canada	1841
Toronto University opened	1843
Knor's College, Toronto, established	1844
Geological Survey of Canada authorised	1845
First Roman Catholic Bishop of Toronto	1845
Great Fire at Quebec	1845
Educational System of Upper and Lower Canada established	1846
Normal School of Upper Canada established	1846
Journal of Education for Upper Canada established	1848
St. Joseph's College, Bytown, established	1849
Post Office management transferred to Canada	1849
University of Trinity College, Toronto, established	1851
Laval University, Quebec, chartered	1852
St. Michael's College, Toronto, established	1852
Reciprocity Treaty with the United States	1854
Grand Trunk Railway commenced	1854
Clergy Reserve Question settled	1854
Belleville Methodist Episcopal Seminary established	1857
Three Normal Schools and two Journals of Education established in Lower Canada	1857
First Protestant Episcopal Bishop of Huron, Upper Canada	1857
Decimal system of money adopted in Canada, 1st January	1858
The Silver and Copper Decimal coin for Canada first circulated	1858
The 100th Regiment of the Line raised in Canada	1858
Atlantic Cable between Ireland and Newfoundland successfully laid	1858
New buildings of the Toronto University and University College completed	1859
Completion of the Victoria Bridge, Montreal	1859
Grand Trunk Railway connection completed from Detroit to Portland	1859
Statutes of Canada and Upper Canada Consolidated	1859