

always in mind, that they ought to excel all others in purity of life, and should be examples to the people to live well and christianly.

30. (76.) No man being admitted a Deacon or Priest shall from thenceforth voluntarily relinquish the same, nor afterwards use himself in the course of his life as a layman. And the names of all such men, so forsaking their calling, the Churchwardens of the Parish where they shall dwell shall present to the Bishop.

IV.—SCHOOLMASTERS.

1. (77.) No man shall teach in any Church Grammar School or Parochial School, but such as shall be licensed by the Bishop, being found meet, as well for his training and skill in teaching, as for sober and godly conversation, and also for right understanding of God's true religion; and also except he shall first subscribe to the first and third Articles of the 38th Canon, and to the two first clauses of the second Article.

2. (79.) All such Schoolmasters shall teach the children the Church Catechism, and such other Catechism as shall be approved by the Bishop. And, as often as Divine Service shall be upon holy and festival days within the parish where they teach, they shall bring their scholars to the Church, and there see them quietly and soberly behave themselves; and shall examine them after their return, what they have borne away of any sermon then made, and instruct them in the nature and ends of the holy day. Upon other days they shall train them up in such knowledge of Holy Scripture as shall be most expedient to draw them on to all godliness. And if any schoolmaster, being duly licensed, shall offend in any of the premises, or either speak, write or teach against any thing whereunto he hath formerly subscribed, if upon admonition by the Bishop he do not amend and reform himself, let him be suspended from teaching any such school.

V.—THINGS APPERTAINING TO CHURCHES.

1. (80.) The Churchwardens of every Church shall, at
