

PREFACE.

It is presenting this the fourteenth Edition of the Quebec Directory, the Compiler has endeavored to embrace all possible improvements so as to render it still more worthy of acceptance than its predecessors. The Street Directory, included for the first time in the last Edition, is again continued, and will, from the increased neediness and patronage recorded, be a permanent feature in all future Editions; and it is hoped that the neediness may be still further increased by the proper numbering of the streets, a strong feeling for such having been lately manifested through the local Press and by public opinion; and a more pleasing moment of the association of our present worthy Mayor to the City Clerk would not be initiated than the numbering of the City streets and main this City, it having been found difficult to meet the views of the Compiler; this being necessary, has been the means of causing greater corrections, changes and corrections up to the moment of going to press being much easier effected.

The Compiler has also the pleasure to state that he has removed to the City of Quebec for permanent residence and trusts that his long familiarity with the highways and bye-ways, will be made more familiar, will be incorporated in future editions that all improvements found necessary will be incorporated in future Editions, and that any need amendments or alterations suggested by friends to the Work will be thankfully received and attended to. In conclusion, he would say to return his sincere thanks to those who have by kind suggestions and assistance, materially aided him and for the very liberal patronage accorded.
