

SEVENTH ANNUAL EDITION
CITY OF HAMILTON,
DUNDAS, ETC.,
DIRECTORY,
1880-81.
W. H. IRWIN & CO.,
COMPILERS.

In presenting the public with this, the Seventh Annual Edition of our Directory, we beg to offer our thanks to our numerous patrons, and to respectfully solicit a continuance of their support.

In addition to the usual contents of the Directory, our next issue will contain a

HISTORICAL SKETCH OF THE CITY,
NAMES OF EARLY PIONEERS, PRINCIPAL CHURCHES,

Date of erection, and names of ministers who are and have been in charge, statistics, and a large amount of other useful and miscellaneous information. If cuts of churches, public or private buildings can be procured, we will cheerfully insert them. Any information that can be afforded as bearing on the above subjects will be gratefully received. Clergymen are especially requested to favor us with the details relating to their respective churches.

We ask the co-operation of our fellow-citizens in making this essentially a local work, not only useful and interesting, but creditable to the City of Hamilton.

Our agents, in obtaining information, will visit every house in the City. Notice of any omissions, faults of orthography in names or other inaccuracies noticed in preceding Directories will be thankfully received and corrected.

POST OFFICE ADDRESS, BOX 355, HAMILTON.
