

9 GEORGE V. A. 1919

33 York
Place,
Portman
Square.
16th May,
1835.

Mr. Gillespie to Neilson. An invitation to dinner.

Downing Street.
16th May,
1835.

Sir George Grey to Neilson. Lord Glenelg will receive the petitions of which Neilson is the bearer on the following Monday.

Quebec,
18th May,
1825.

Thomas Ryan to Neilson. Enclosing a number of letters of introduction to constitutional friends.

Quebec,
18th May,
1825.

Thomas Ryan to J. Maher M.P. Introducing Neilson.

Quebec,
18th May,
1835.

Thomas Ryan to Nicholas FitzSimon M.P., Asking him to introduce Neilson to some of his Liberal friends in the House.

Colonial
Office,
20th May,
1835.

J. S. Martin to Neilson. Asking him to call upon Lord Glenelg.

London
Coffee
House,
21st May,
1835.

Draft of note to Mr. Ellice M.P., sending him a copy of the petition in his hands.

London,
22nd May,
1835.

Draft of a report by Neilson on his proceedings in London. He, Mr. Walker and Mr. Gillespie had two long interviews with Lord Glenelg and the heads of the Colonial Office. Cannot yet tell the result, but the delegates insisted as a right that whatever course the Government took, they should give Lower Canada the benefit of Government and administration of justice.

London,
May 25th, 1835.

Draft of a letter from Neilson to Mr. Buxton M.P., respecting a motion to be made by the latter respecting the Indians of North America. He invites attention to the case of the Huron Indians of Lorette.

1 Crown
Court,
Threadneedle
Street,
28th May,
1835.

W. Henry Tilston to Neilson. Enclosing to him an extract from a letter from Mr. Tilston's partner Mr. Lemesurier of Quebec, respecting the operations of the Constitutional Executive Committee. (The extract relates to roads to be built from funds coming from the British American Land Company.)

Colonial
Office,
29th May,
1835.

J. S. Martin to Neilson & Walker—Lord Glenelg will receive them at Lord Melbourne's office on the following Monday.

London,
29th May,
1835.

Draft of letter from the Canadian delegates to Lord Glenelg, in which they ask that in view of the importance of the issues involved, they may be enabled to communicate the decision of the Government on the Lower Canada petitions, at an early day. (In W. Walker's handwriting.)

June, 1835.

Note apparently to Mr. Denison M.P., (it is so indorsed, though by another hand). Stating that Mr. Labouchere had informed the writer that Mr. Denison would take charge of the Quebec petition. The writer states that he will be prepared with a memorandum as to the views of the petitioners. He has no intention of embarrassing the Government in its contemplated step of sending out Commissioners.

Quebec,
1st June,
1835.

R. H. Gairdner to Neilson. Executive Committee of the Constitutional Association approve of the decision of the delegates to proceed to England notwithstanding the news the latter received in the United States. Reports the proceedings of the Committee since his departure. A sub-committee appointed to report on best means to promote emigration into