

ye could not be justified by the law of Moses" (Acts xiii. 39.) This world has been repeatedly warned that God "hath appointed a day, in the which He will judge the world in righteousness by that Man whom He hath ordained; whereof He hath given assurance unto all men, in that He hath raised Him from the dead" (Acts xvii. 31.) The day is appointed. The judgment of this world has been set. The Judge has been ordained; He is Jesus. Judgment is His strange work, but it will come upon this world. "The great day of the Lord is near, and hasteth greatly, even the voice of the day of the Lord; the mighty man shall cry bitterly. That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress; a day of darkness and gloominess; a day of clouds and thick darkness; a day of the trumpet and alarm against the fenced cities, and against the high towers. And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against the Lord, and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as the dung. Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of the Lord's wrath" (Zephaniah i. 16-18.) Be warned. Believe the solemn statements of God's word. Flee from the wrath to come. The Lord Jesus Christ is the only refuge, "a refuge from the storm" (Isaiah xxv. 4.)

His judgments are not yet carried out upon a sinful and Christ rejecting world. Like at
