To-day there is deep mourning in a of the civic Water Works Department. Norway on Friday evening last in will reside in Toronto. company with his friend, Mr. L. Fitzgerald, the horse which he was driving shied at something on the roadside and the occupants of the vehicle were thrown out. Both Mr. Foley inations at Loretto Abbey: and Mr. Fitzgerald were seriously hurt, the former fatally, and though every effort was made to save him, he died at St. Michael's Hospital on Monday evening, without ever having recovered consciousness.

Mr. Foley, who was 75 years of age, was a native of Tipperary, Ireland, leaving there for Ohio when a boy. Helena Terlin, Miss Edna McCreary. He afterwards came to Toronto, and Jast October had completed a halfcentury of work in the service of the city. Of his work in this connection the Globe says: "At the time when the Furniss system of water works, which then supplied Toronto with its water, was thirty years ago, the services of Mr. Foley to the city were simply invaluable. Mr. Foley had been connected with the company and was practically the only man who had a complete record of where the various water mains in the city were laid. Many of these mains were simply old wooden pipe and had to be replaced, and here Mr. Foley's knowledge was of great service to the city.' In acknowledgement of those services Mr. Foley was presented by the city council with an address, while his fellow-employees gave him a handsome clock and tendered him a ban-The address was as follows:

"The Mayor and members of the Council of the Corporation of the City of Toronto have much pleasure in offering you their sincere congratulations upon the completion of half a certury of service in connection with the Water Works of this munici-

That you gave efficient and faithful service to the company during the long period you were in its employ is well known, and the Council has much pleasure in bearing willing testimony to the fact that-you have rendered like service to the City of Toronto during the past thirty-two years. "The Council, therefore, feel it a pleasurable duty to express to you on their own behalf, and on behalf of the citizens, their high appreciation of the long, valuable and faithful service which you have rendered to the community; and further, to voice the hope that long life, happiness and prosperity may be vouchsafed to you and the members of your household." As a proof of the pleasure which the recipient derived from the public testimony, it is only necessary to repeat the words of a member of his family who said, "after that he seemed twen-'ty years younger." Needless to say Mr. Foley was widely known and in St. Michael's Parish, where he had resided since coming to Toronto, his was a familiar figure. Though of late years he had taken no interest in society work, he was a member of the old Hibernians of the city, a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society, and an old collector in the Cathedral His widow, four sons and three daughters survive.
