A SUCCESSFUL B.C. SALE

The sale of live stock held by Captain Jas. Erskin, Eburne, B.C., at public auction, Nov. 20, was a great success. It is a record breaker of prices.
Light horse sold chosen. One and two-year-olds brought from $50 to $110; heavy horses, from $25 to $50. One team of pure bred Clydeades mares brought $800. One fine four-year-old, $500. This is a fine grade mare. One one-year-old colt sold for $325; one foal, 1911, $75.

Ten two-year-old butlers brought $69 each. The grade cows brought from $64 to $211. Fourteen sold for over $100, and many for over $250.
At the sale of one herd Holsteins the yearlings $14. Prices realized for pure bred cows were: Three, $100; four, $120 and $209, and only three out of 16 sold under $100.

SOUTHERN ONTARIO HOLSTEIN BREEDERS' SALE

The largest auction sale of pure bred Holstein cattle that has yet been held in Canada will be given by the Southern Ontario Holstein Breeders' Association that will be held on Tuesday, January 2, 1912, at the Rollo Rink, Tillsonburg, Ont., commencing at 10 o'clock a. m. The cattle consigned to this sale are from the herds of some of the best known Holstein breeders in Ontario, who have been successful in the show ring, successful at record making, and successful in having their animals sold at dairy tests.

Every effort is being put forth by the executive committee in charge of the sale to make all visitors comfortable and welcome. The sale is in Tillsonburg, and afford a splendid place to hold the sale, and a warm room in connection with it will add to the comfort and convenience of all who are in attendance.

Farm and Dairy readers are assured that the aggregation of breeders as announced in the half-page advertisement elsewhere this week are breeders, not speculators. They are adopting the popular method of combination public auction to sell their acreage and to keep their herds to the capacity of their stables.

MORE ABOUT McQUEEN'S HOLSTEINS

Those attending the Southern Breeders' consignment sale at Tillsonburg Jan. 2nd, will see in person in Tillsonburg the farm of R. W. McQueen, one of the largest contributors to the sale. He is selling a lot of his finest females, but will sell a nice bunch early, as well as some young coming on out of which he is justly proud.

That which will be of greatest interest to the breeders is his herd sire, Lewis Prilly Roubie Hartog, whose first four daughters are in the list of the first four daughters of any other sire in Canada. This is not to be wondered at when a chart of his breeding is studied. His dam, Margaret Roubie Hartog, 23.82, is also the dam of Abbey Hartog, Clothilde, 23.39 lbs. butler in 7 days, 129.30 lbs. in 30 days, who is the dam of Addie Dakot Hartog, who at four years 1 month first four daughters, who is the dam of Dakot Hartog, who at four years 1 month first four daughters, who is the dam of Clothilde 2nd at two years, 20.87 lbs. His sire, Beattie Pietertje Butler King, has 21 A.B.O. daughters, five of which at 2 or 3 years old. His sire's dam, Beauty Pietertje, 26.5 in 7 days, 129.30 lbs. in 30 days. His dam, Walker Pietertje, 30.61 in 7 days, 125.32 in 30 days; also Segis Beattie at 3 yrs., 26.25 in 7 days, 125.32 in 30 days. The best daughter of Prilly, 23.20, who holds the world's record for cow and six daughters, 26.62 lbs. Also Prilly, 25.20, Beauty Pietertje, 30.61; Lillian Walker Pietertje, 30.61; Beauty Pietertje, 27.75, and Segis Walker Pietertje at two years, 26.43 lbs. butler holds the world's records for four and five generations. His sire's sire, Clothilde Gondegd Hugo, has eight A.B.O. daughters, all over 20 lbs. and is one of the good sires who go to the back before his worth as a sire was known. He is the only sire of the breed who has two daughters over 30 lbs. each that have each produced a daughter over 130 lbs. in 30 days.
