30 And Je'sus answering said, A certain man went down from Jeru'salem to Jer'icho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.

31 And by chance there came down a certain priest that way : and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

32 And likewise a Le'vite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.

33 But a certain Samar'itan, as he journeyed, came where he was : and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,

34 And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.

35 And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, Take care of him ; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.

36 Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbour unto him that fell among the thieves ?

37 And he said, He that shewed mercy on him. Then said Je'sus unto him, Go, and do thou likewise.

Gal. 6 : 1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye which are spiritual, restore such an one in the spirit of meekness ; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.

2 Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfil the law of Christ.

9 And let us not be weary in well doing : for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially unto them who are of the household of faith.

THE LESSON RETOLD

We often see pictures of our Red Cross nurses and doctors binding up the wounds of our soldiers who have been fighting for us. Look at our picture. This man is binding up the wounds of a poor man who looks as if he had been very badly hurt. Would you like to hear how he got hurt ?

Jesus had been telling the people that they must love God with all their heart and mind and soul and strength, and they must love their neighbor as much as they loved themselves. One of them asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor ?" Jesus answered by telling this story.

A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho. While he was passing through a wild, rocky place, some robbers pounced upon him and knocked him down and hurt him very badly. They took his coat and all the money he had. Then they ran away as fast as they could and left the poor man lying there alone, hurt and bleeding.

Now it happened that one of the proud priests of the Jews happened to come along that way. He saw the poor man lying there, but he would not go near him to help him. He coldly passed by on the other side of the road and left the man to suffer. Then another
