

The Balanced Ration Pays

Which one of these bacon hogs would you rather get paid for? Imperfect feeding will get you a certain amount of bacon, but it is one of the causes of soft, flabby quality. On the other hand, the use of Monarch, a properly mixed and balanced ration supplying everything the hog requires in exactly the right proportions, will get you far more bacon to take to market. Experience has shown that hogs make larger and more economical gains when fed with

Monarch Hog Feed

The quality of bacon will be firm and of good texture, which is essential if you wish to get the highest prices. Monarch Hog Feed is properly mixed and is very palatable; no single feed can equal it. Its high protein content is splendid for growth, and the nutrients are so mixed as to supply every requirement for growing pigs. It gives them stamina, energy, vigor and size.

Monarch Hog Feed makes more pork and better pork and shortens the period of fattening, thus lowering the cost of production.

MOSSIE BUNN, R. No. 4, Denfield, Ont.

We fixed oor baignets, speel't the trench,
an' chairged them in a breist
'Twas than I got the skirp o' shell that nailed me i' the queets,
An' here I'm hirplin roon the doors, an'
canna thole my beets.

Some nichts fan I've been sleepin' ill, an'
stouns gyaun doon my taes
Aul' times come reamin' throu' my heid,
I'm back amo' the braes;
Wi' wirms an' wan' I'm throu' the breem,
an' cartin' up the burn,
Land aye the tither yellow troot, fae ilka
rush an' turn;
I hash the neeps an' full the skull, an'
bin the lowin' mowt, Lythe i' the barn lat oot for rapes, or
tract a fashious cowt;
I watch the leavers o' the mull swing roon
for oors an oors
An' see the paps o' bannachie stan' up
between the shoors;
Lead fae a roup a reistin' stirk, that's like
to brak the branks,
Or hearken to the cottar wives lyaug-
lyaugin' owre their shanks;
I join the dancers on the buird schottis-
chin' at the games,
An' scutter i' the lang forenichts wi'
britchin', bit, an' haims;
Or maybe, cockit on the shaft fan cartin'
corn or bear
Cry "Hie" an' "Wo" an' "Weesh" again
to guide the steppin' mear.
An' in the daylight tee, at times, fan lyin'
here sae saft,
I've dream't, gin eense the war was by,
o' takin' on a craft.
Fan a' thing's sattled for the nicht in stable an' in byre
It's fine to hae yer ain bow cheer, drawn up anent the fire.
An' hear a rochreed-heidit bairn, wi'
ferny-tickled nose,
Tired oot, an' hungry fae the closs, come
come yaummerin' for his brose;
An' syne a wife, but weesht, for here's my
nurse, the couthy ted,
Come cryin' I maun dicht my pen, an'
hirsle to my bed.
Gweed nicht—but bide, or I forget, there's jist ae little thing—
Man could ye sen' me oot a trump?
I'm wearit for a spring.
For, Jock, ye winna grudge the stamp to cheer a dweeble frien'
An' dinna back it "Sandy" noo, but
"Sergeant" Aberdein.

The Anxious Dead.

BY COL. JOHN MCCRAE.

O guns, fall silent till the dead men hear
Above their heads the legions pressing on!
(These fought their fight in time of bitter
fear
And died not knowing how the day had gone.)

O flashing muzzles, pause and let them see
The coming dawn that streaks the sky
afar!
Then let your mighty chorus witness be
To them, and Caesar, that we still make war.

Tell them, O guns, that we have heard
their call;
That we have sworn and will not turn
aside;
That we will onward till we win or fall;
That we will keep the faith for which they died.

Bid them be patient, and some day, anon,
They shall feel earth enwrapped in silence
deep—
Shall greet in wonderment the quiet
dawn,
And in content may turn them to their sleep.

Gathered His Crops.

A farmer who was much troubled by trespassers during the nutting season consulted with a botanical friend. The botanist furnished him with the technical name of the hazel, and the farmer placed
the following notes at conspicuous points
about his premises:

"Trespassers, take warning! All persons entering this wood do so at their own risk, for, although common snakes are not often found, the Corylus Avellana abounds everywhere about here, and never gives warning of its presence."

The place was unmolested that year,
and the farmer gathered his crop in peace.
