Provisions.—Really choice dairy butter is not in large supply and the demand is quite active, while other grades are more plentiful. Cheese is still very firm. Eggs are in good demand and are quite firm. Poultry is easier. Smoked meats are firm and there is a good market.

Seeds.—Prices for alsike are a little easier owing to a slackening of the foreign demand, while red clover is firmer.

Wool.—The market for wool may be described as quiet, with values holding about the same as last week.

Mercantile Summary.

According to the London Globe, in an orchestra discovered in a convict settlement in Siberia the conductor is a successful assassin, the cornist a retired forger, the saxophone player a garroter, and the assistant drummer a man whose wife passed away suddenly of concussion of the brain. "Execution" is said to be their strong point. The orchestra is known in the locality as a "band of marauders."

It was a significant statement which arrived by cable last week from Berlin, Germany, that the Association of Metal Manufacturers had decided to lock out its employees on October 14th to support the electrical firms whose men are on strike. The patience of capital has been long tried by the unfairness of strikers, and the employers are now
