The Pass of Death.

It was a narrow pass, Watered with human tears. For death had kept the outer gate Almost six thousand years, And the ceaseless tread of a world's feet Was ever in my ears-Thronging, jostling, hurrying by, As if they were only born to die

A stately king drew near, This narrow pass to tread, Around him hung a gorgeous robe, And a crown was on his head; But Death with a look of withering scorn, Arrested him and said, " In humbler dress must the king draw near, For the crown and the purple are useless here."

Next came a man of wealth, And his eye was proud and bold, And he bore in his hand a lengthy scroll, Telling of sums untold; But death who careth not for rank, Careth as little for gold-" Here that scroll, I cannot allow.

For the gold of the richest is powerless now."

Another followed fast. And a book was in his hand, Filled with the flashes of burning thought That are known in many a land, But the child of genius quailed to hear Death's pitiless demand-"Here that book cannot enter with thee, For the bright flash of genius is nothing to me.

Next came a maiden fair. With that eye so deeply bright, That stirs within you strange sweet care, Should you meet on a summer night; But Death, ere the gentle maid passed through Snatched away its light-" Beauty is power in the world," he saith, "But what can it do in the Pass of Death?"

A vouth of sickly mien . Followed in thoughtful mood, Whose heart was filled with love to God And the early brotherhood; Death felt he could not quench the hear That lived for others' good-"I own," cried he, "the power of love, I must let it pass to the realms above!' -Scottish Guardian.

DYER'S Healing Embrocation

f a perfect pain destroyer and an Invaluable Remedy for Rheumatism, Cuts, Wounds Scalds, Burns, Bruises, Cholera Morbus, Diarrhoza, Sore Throat, Swellings, Cramp,&c It is indeed truly gratifying to us to receive such incisputable proofs of the value of this astonishing remedy, as are daily presented. We know its true value experimentally, and do not hesitate to recommend it as superior to any other Medicine for similar purposes, and we are willing at any time to refund the money, if it does not give entire satisfaction, or possess all the virtues we ascribe to it. Be sure and get the genuine. A. H. FIELD,

Another Scientific Wonder! GREAT CURE FOR

DIGESTIVE FLUID, OR. GASTRIC JUICE.

THIS is a great natural Remedy for Indicastron, and Dysepsia, curing after Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Method, by Nature's own Agent, the Gastric Juice. Pepsin is the clude element or Great Digesting Principle of the Gastric Juice, and Simulating Agent of the Stomach and Intestines. It is precisely like the Gastric Juice, in its Chemical powers, and a Complete and Perfect Substitute for it. By the aid of this prepartion, the pains and evils of Indigestion and Dysepsia or removed Just as they would be by a healthy Stomach It is doing wonders for Dyseptics curing cases of Debility, Emaciation, Nervous Decline and Dysepsia Consumption, supposed to be on the verge of the grave. The Scientific Evidence upon which it is based, is in the highest degree Curious and Remarkable.

Private Circular for the use of Physicians may be obtined of Dr. Houghton or his Agents, describing theology process of preparation, and giving sthe anthories, upon which the claims of this new remedy are based. As is not a secret remedy, no objection can be raised against the use by Physicians in respectable standing and regular.
