or hate its memory, its historical importance of the race. man servant. The book case is formed of of confidence. fragments of the first edition of the Luther- from the seat of war. Hearts are throbbing an translation, are here preserved, as also a with unwonted anxiety respecting the results,piece of the beech tree under which Luther for in the poised scales are placed the destinies hangs a quarto leaf in his own firm, angular, of righteousness and truth ! and vigorous handwriting. The tree above destroyed during a violent thunder-storm.

[FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN.] Obituary Notices.

1853, when the vessel was being loaded at Pugwash: having overheated himself, and then being exposed to a cool air, consumption of the lungs speedily ensued. His constitution had been previously enfeebled by scarlet fever. His illness increased after his arrival in England, and on his voyage homemard he caught more cold by exposure to weather, so that from this cause, and of suitable nursing, he grew very weak, probability of his recovery, he gave up all intellectual emancipation of the human race. Heaven; where he should see two little bro- sins, popes will erect gibbets and scaffolds; all covered with filthy sores, who has infected the thers who had died in early life; and said the oppressors of the people, will, finally, unite church by his corruption." he hoped also to see his parents there when to annihilate the hydra with a thousand heads . This is one side of the beautiful picture; now the Lord should be pleased to call them to which is to devour them-Reform. die. I administered the Sacrament of the "Thousands of victims will perish in the his bed, and often much distressed from diffi- of exterminating an entire race, the reformation culty in breathing. His parents often used will go on triumphantly, and will come out to exhort him to look to the Lord for his victorious from the calcined bones of its martyrs. me. Mother, I know he will take me to being laid under contributions to depraved er knew him to tell a falsehood. of arms." They had the satisfaction of having him with them several months, ministering to him in his illness, and of marking the blessed change, and preparation for heaven that he der VI;" who "only did wrong in expressing," sword of St. Paul!" When did ever St. Paul, evinced several weeks before his decease. A funeral sermon was preached by Rev. on the occasion of his death.

Newport, N. S., 17th April, 1854.

Provincial Wesleyan

THURSDAY, MAY 4, 1854.

244, Strand, London, where Advertisements and Subscriptions will be received for this Periodical. We do not hall ourselves responsible for the opinions or that they have irrefutably proved from portions vessels. of prophetic Scripture the certainty of Turkey's calamity at all probable. Every one acquainted with the present state of religion in Russia. the corrupt condition of the established Church in that empire, the laxity of morals both of the and fire." clergy and laity, and the intolerant spirit toand the inhabitants be thrown back into a state lives?

The Absorbing Topic.

no one can deny. There is, therefore a deep feeling of interest awakened in visiting tions of Russia's success, drawn from the alleged would give rise to." Do you not admire this short, the chamber once occupied by this great certainty of unfulfilled prophecy, as inopportune, gallant man of war? Was he not a formidable man; there is something peculiarly gratify- and as better calculated to exhibit the self-con- link in the forged chain of apostolic succession? ing in handling the furniture once used by fidence of the interpreter, than to produce conwhere he once wrote those words of fire which provoked the greatest religious revolution the model has area known and the second to have a just and defensible with providing the model has area known and the second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has area known and the second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has area known and the second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with the model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with the model has a second tending parties, to have a just and defensible with the model has a second tending parties, the second tending parties are second to the second tending parties are second to the second tending parties are second to the second tendent tending parties are second to the second tendent tending parties. The second tendent te lation the world has ever known—and all cause, then, all other things being equal, may which usually take place in cities carried by adopted: this at the hand, humanly speaking, of a sin- it hope for aid from that presiding and over- storm." gle work who, in those dark and dangerous ruling Power that, in a thousand ways unseen by On a subsequent occasion the pope was surtimes, dared to oppose and defy the collec- mortal eye, can spread consternation and dismay rounded in Bologna by some French cavalry ton, Esq. :tive powers of the emperor and the whole among the ranks of the alien host. Such a under the command of Marshal Chaumont, the Romish clergy. Luther's chamber is of very cause we believe has Turkey—and, as a matter Bolognese themselves being also ready to revolt small, nay insignificant dimensions. Worm- of necessary sequence, such a cause have her and give up the pope to the marshal:—" In this eaten boards, miserably put together, cover the walls. Two deeply recessed windows, mitted by the whole civilized world. Providents is admitted by the whole civilized world. small, and filled in with lead casements, scarcely admit the necessary light, and the scarcely admit the necessary light, and the was arrested by the rough though friendly of millions for many years to come. May, the

on the subject of the War, by the Kev. W. Willson, Wesleyan Minister. A writer in the Christian Visitor, says, that Mr. Wilson "finds the whole story in the Prophecy against Gog—Ezek.
XXXVIII. and XXXIX. According to his view,
Russia will be driven back from the Danube to Russia will be driven back from the Danube to them to prepare a bull revoking them, prohibitation of its vast importance to the Church of HENRY POPE HAYWARD, OF KENNETCOOK. the great valley of the Don and Volga, to the ing them, however, from publishing it until after Christ and the world. of striking coincidences." We should like much | Second from the pontifical functions. The sen-

State of the Roman Catholic Church before the Reformation.

Extracts from De Cormenin continued :-

SIXTEENTH CENTURY. "The sixteenth century is unquestionably and became much emaciated, by the time one of the most remarkable, from the importthe vessel arrived in Halifax in November ance of the events, and at the same time the 1853. . His father was providentially in the most baneful for the Catholic church on account city the day of his arrival, and had him con- of the developments brought out by the religiveyed to his native place, when his parents ous reformation All questions in morals, docand other relatives watched over him with trine, and worship, are boldly treated by Luhe first came home that he hoped he would constructed during fifteen centuries; numerous get well, and thought it hard to die so young; followers embrace the new doctrines with enthubut when he heard the Doctor express his siasm, and after sixteen hundred years of slavery, opinion to his father, that there was little the people awaken, and dare to proclaim the

" Rome, it is true, will not contemplate th

Lord's Supper to him, at his request and flames, others will be engulphed in the floods, his father's desire, a few days previous to others will expire under the torture; while eternal home. He was very patient in other, and like tigers thirsting for blood and ties, even to slay them." his illness, being five months confined to carnage, will dispute in horrid strife the glory He said, "the Lord does bless | "During this period, the people tired of heaven." He said about the time he expe- priests, will, finally, break the yoke of the papacy, youth obedient to his parents, who aver that they will defend their political existence by force river, exclaiming, From henceforth, the popes the useful and elegant arts of life." So far De Cormenin sketches the general history of the sixteenth century. Pins III. succeeded " the execrable Alexan-

John L. Sponagle on Tuesday 28th March, man ecclesiastics, whose irregularities were a murder their inhabitants? Answer, ye admirets constant subject of scandal for all Europe; he of Julius the Second! was very wrong to expose his plans of reform in an assembly of Cardinals, and to declare that he had resolved to banish licentiousness and debauchery from his court : he was desirous of pursuing at once energetic measures, proportionate to the greatness of the evil," What happened to this embryo reforming

"On the evening of the same day, after din-This Paper is filed, and may be seen free of charge at ner, Pius the Third felt in his entrails an unknown disease, and notwithstanding the most active remedies, he expired in the most frightful convulsions. This event took place on the 13th of October, 1503, twenty-six days after his elevation to the pontifical throne." Was he poi-

Cardinal de la Rovera was elevated to the pontifical chair, 1503, by the name of Julius II. "If we are to credit Erasmus and Hadrian, the new pope had been a sailor, like his uncle Sixtus the Fourth; and Bandel affirms that he boasted having traversed the sea in the barque We are not among the number of those who of a fishermen; not, like St. Peter, to catch fish, predict the success of Russia in the present but as a pirate, to carry off young girls, whom campaign. Some are bold enough to affirm he sold to the Turks, or to pillage merchant defeat at this precise period, by means of the "Of a turbulent, audacious, and vindictive all-conquering arms of Russia; but the sober character, Julian de la Rovera was only known student of the Bible will be inclined to place at Rome for his implacable hatred, his incredispecious reasonings from such data, in no high- ble duplicity, and his thirst for rule, so that his er scale than that of mere conjecture. With election was regarded as a public calamity. Bible Society was held in St. Matthew's Church Grace Greenwood: our views of the revealed purposes of God, re- What mattered, however, to this priest, the love on Wednesday evening last, Wm. Pryor, Junr. specting the progress and triumphs of unadulte- or the hatred of men? He was pope and could Esq., in the Chair. rated Christianity, we cannot conceive such a employ, for the success of his plans, all the spithat if success grown the present enterprise of on his head and his lance in rest!" Is he not a the Atlantic, had kindly appointed, at the clos- weight in the affairs of the world. She Russia, the advancement of true religion in those portions of the globe, will be seriously arrested, the world, not to destroy, but to save, men's one of its own office-bearers, and long known as and devout soldiers as in old time, but she should not be an object of reproach on account of his ——, robberies, and murders, the fathers should be hurled from the throne of the apostle.* *

prevosts of cathedrals, chapters of colleges, kings, For the ordinary purposes of the princes, dukes, marquises, counts, barons, universities, communities, the vicars of the Roman For Parent Society's Jubilee Fund, 671 0 2 church, vassals, governors, feudatories, regular For Chinese Testament Fund, and secular subjects, finally, all the faithful, whatand would no more look upon some articles strife with indifference; it will strengthen the ever may be their dignities and professions, no of his own with which he had sometimes arms of fanatics, it will cause torrents of blood longer to recognize Julian de la Rovera as pope, amused himself in his illness; and told his to flow it will kindle the stakes of the terrible who elevated himself to the Holy See, by means mother that he felt assured, that the Lord inquisition, it will prepare its racks and instru- of an infamous simony. We prohibit all from would take him to himself :- told her not to ments of torture; monks and priests will sharp obeying this corsair, this gladiator soiled with weep on his account, as he was going to en their daggers, kings will arm cohorts of assas- Christian blood, this - wretch, this - look at the other.

"Julius the Second contented himself with assembling some Italian bishops at St. John of decease he called his father and asked him Flanders, and France, and notwithstanding the themas against his adversaries. By the orders the Revd. Joseph Peart, seconded by Peter and in more than fifty daily, to the extent the strength will permit. if he thought him to be dying?" His massacres and butcheries of the cruel Francis of his holiness, the prelates who were in session father replied "Yes," and asked him, "do the First, the sanguinary Philip the Second, the at Milan, were declared to be heretics, delegates vote of the meeting: you feel Jesus to he precious?" he said ferocious Pius the Fifth, and the execrable of antichrist, and as such, the faithful were per-Yes," and shortly after passed to his Charles the Ninth, who, in emulation of each mitted to seize their property, benefices, digni-

> On the ratification of the treaty between the gave vent to his joy; he commanded, that on the next day, a solemn service should be persays the historian, "a desire to labor for the arm himself cap-à-pie, and, with sword in hand

Shortly afterwards, "on the 23rd of February, have been present at in Prince Edward Island of it he is eminently worthy." 1503, "God," says De Cormenin, "took pity on was assembled in the Temperance Hall, for the nable pope" the papacy is, in its essence, a vicious and exe- the lecture, as it will be shortly printed and prohibits the forgiveness of injuries.

ed in the scene with the prince of the apostles; energetic appeals to the patriotism and good the latter refuses an entrance into the kingdom Prince Edward Island, and could not well be heaven to the pope, and reproaches him with all surpassed elsewhere." his crimes; he accuses him of — with — ; We clip the above from Haszard's Gazette of vile crimes with —, —, ; he calls of April 8th. A copy of the Lecture, in neat him a perjurer, simoniac, drunkard, robber, pamphlet form, we have seen and read, and him that the gates of heaven are closed against ed in the preceding extract, of its superior

Bible Society Meeting.

The Anniversary Meeting of the Nova Scotia

ritual and temporal arms of the church, that is in a position so calculated to elicit a feeling of country, save through the downfall of the to say, fanaticism, knavery, treason, the sword, and fire."

| And fire | The church, that is to say, fanaticism, knavery, treason, the sword, but there was an additional claim to the affective tyranny, that hoary consecrator of injustice Of the intrigues and wars of this chief of the occasion. The Parent Society, desirous of drawnoble allies be crowned with victory. This person the siege of Mirandola, pressed on the occasion would allow; and could a building night, and the dark sequel may never be the Roman Catholics, and visited the batteries, armed from head to the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which of the unusually long passage of the steamer which is steamer whi

ing in handling the furniture once used by have taken to dark and mysterious ways him—in sitting down upon his three-legged viction on an intelligent mind. The hazards his artillery, he gave the signal for a general as his artillery, he gave the signal for a ge Moved by the Rev. J. T. Twining, D. D., science, against all true culightment and Garrison Chaplain, seconded by J. G. A. Creigh- progress of the masses.

seconded by J. F. Avery, M. D.:-

Died at Kennetcook, in the Newport Cir- East of the Black Sea, the grand thoroughfare his death, because, should he recover health, he A resolution of thanks to the several Branch dents of travels in New Mexico, for Harper's that without noise, some of the threads re- Banner of Industry. cuit, 26th March 1854, Henry Pope Hay- of European Russia- the valley of the passen- was unwilling to have performed, he said, an act Societies and Ladies Associations, was moved Magazine, has the following sketch relative main suspended and others descend, accordward, son of Charles and Isabel Hayward, gers on the East of the sea.' There Gog is to of justice which might injure his dignity."— by the Rev. P. G. McGregor, and seconded by the Rev. P. G. McGregor, aged seventeen years and six months. He make his last stand, to receive his decisive defeat, His dignity, forsooth! Julius recovered, and Mr. Isaac Smith, Travelling Agent of the Soci. gambling saloon: Mr. Isaac Smith, Travelling Agent of the Society.

The concluding Resolution, appointing the Before me was a Mexican priest who in the electricity, a series of points is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point perior to all other kinds for lithographs and the second point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is arranged in a line, like the teeth of a comb; each point is a like the teeth of a comb; each point is a like went to sea in October 1852, and sailed two voyages in the Moro Castle, Capt. Mounce, or to interfere with the progress of the gospel.—

went to sea in October 1852, and sailed two voyages in the Moro Castle, Capt. Mounce, or to interfere with the progress of the gospel.—

"The concluding Resolution, appointing the clerical garb of his order attracted no small communicating with an electro-magnet.—

"The assembly of Milan, during its seventh or to interfere with the progress of the gospel.—

"The weaver will only have to pass under moved by the Rev. John Martin, and seconded share of my attention, and who, with cross the design treated in voyages. The whole affair was vastly ingenious, and full of striking coincidences." We should like much of striking coincidences."

The whole affair was vastly ingenious, and full of striking coincidences."

The whole affair was vastly ingenious, and full of striking coincidences."

The was vastly ingenious, and full of striking coincidences."

The coincidences with an electro-magnet.—

The was vastly ingenious, and full only have to pass under and rosary most consoicuously displayed, was neath these points the design traced in various and rosary most consoicuously displayed, was neath these points the design traced in various and rosary most consoicuously displayed.

memorable occasion, it will be an additional to baptize, to shrive the dyin and intercede meet, pastries, and condiments. Take your their cavities when the head is resting in "Since we must draw the people out of the gratification to learn that the receipts for the dead, who would go from the curses meet, pastries, and condiments. And do meet, pastries, and condiments. tended by Physicians but with small hopes of his recovery. He told his mother when he first came home that he first came home are forgiven thee."

£18 9s. 1d.—Com.

FOR THE PROVINCIAL WESLEYAN. School Examination at Cornwallis.

At the Public Examination of the School taught by Mr. James Davison formerly of Sackville, near Halifax, held on Friday, April 28th of the Protestant church, they are without it has the most relish.

1854, Habitant Cornwallis; it was moved by exception, laboring harmoniously for the Exercise should be taken in the open air,

"That Mr. Davison having most efficiently, every Lord's day .- Congregationalist. punctually, and successfully fulfilled his engage- METHODISM IN ENGLAND .- The English scholastic duties; and having become popular in vocate, under date of March 24th, says :pope and Maximilian, to "purge Italy of the this place as a Teacher of the Classics, Mathe-Spaniards and Germans," Julius the Second matics, and other branches of the most useful ing into a thousand fragments; and are deand elegant literature, and the fruits of his indus- vouring one another. And it is beginning try having become manifest, in the literary to appear that the parent Methodist body the next day, a solemn service should be per-formed, to celebrate the happy success of his negociations, and at the close of the ceremony, he went with all his clergy to the left bank of rienced a change of heart, "that the sailors on heard the shing of heart the stail of the work of the papacy, and the shing of heart that the sailors on heard the shing of were wicked, and the head been wicked and that he needed to be pardoned and the shing of the thing of the work of the papacy, and gentlemen who have had the honour of his to the presence of the ceremony, he went with all his clergy to the left bank of the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the sadors of all the powers, and of a numerous religious of a papacy, and separate themselves from the Roman church, with all his clergy to the left bank of the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the sadors of all the powers, and of a numerous sadors of all the powers, and of a numerous of the work of God, have been extensively the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the sadors of the Wesley of the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the sadors of the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the sadors of the work of God, have been it out duty both to him and to the went with all his clergy to the left bank of the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the sadors of all the powers, and of a numerous accordingly.

CARE OF THE EYES.—Dr. Dafter says:

To Start a Contrary Horse.—In the we have thought it wise to give some themselves from the Roman church, be well and gentlemen who have had the honour of his twiction; we deem it out duty both to him and to the work of God, have been extensively the work of God, have been extensively the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the said the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the said the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the said the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the work of God, have been extensively to acknowledge the said the public, most gratefully to acknowledge the work of God, have

"A bitter satire is attributed to the learned logically correct in its inferences, and at the sense of the hearers, was never listened to in murderer, and poisoner; and, finally, declares to fully concur in the favourable opinion expressthose who are infected by the disease of which character. The cause it advocates would be promoted by its wide circulation.

The following article is from the pen of

The more I see of Italy the more I am convinced that there is no hope for the li-or hate its memory, its historical importance of the race.

There is, therefore a no one can deny.

There is, therefore a no one can deny. Inquisition, which once sat in haughty su- Turkey will be extended to the Jewish sub- New World.

The meeting was opened with singing a part premacy, dispensing flames and tortures, jects of the Porte.—Jewish Chronicle. of the cxix. Psalm, which was given out by the las been driven from his home by the spirit Rev. Mr. Sprott. An appropriate and impression of the age—but not destroyed. He may Mrs. Wines, the wife of the British Consul land. sive prayer was then offered up by the Rev. have taken to dark and mysterious ways - at Para, and daughter of Daniel O'Connell, him—in sitting down upon his three-legged stool—in looking at his ink stand—and resciling upon the old rough, oaken table clining upon the old rough, oaken table clining upon the old rough, oaken table and rough, oaken table clining upon the old rough, oaken table clining upon the old rough, oaken table and rough, oaken table clining upon the old rough, oaken tabl The following Resolutions were unanimously his purpose all unchanged; he sets himself, as of old, against all true freedom of con-

> That the Report now read be adopted and great and successful European revolution were appropriate,—catholic in their spirit, now-a-days. It was Wushu Wuttesthementum That the Report now read be adopted and great and successful European revolution by published under the direction of the Committee, must also be a reformation more complete and fitted to awaken a deeper interest in the and fitted to awaken a deeper interest in the Yal Lodrumion Jesus Christ Nappogheess. Moved by the Rev. Matthew Richey, D. D., and comprehensive than that of Luther— work of the world's evangelization.—Monthat with the glorious watch-word and bat- treal Witness. That this meeting desires to express its de- tle-cry of Mazzini, " Deo ed il il popolo!" vout acknowledgements to the Almighty for the must be thundered down the despotisms of scarcely admit the necessary light, and the their engagements with the opposing Fower tout ensemble is so little inviting that, in these whose aim is self-aggrandizement and the continuous success which as attended the Farent Society's Church and State together.

Success which has a violent operations during the past year; and cordially operations during the past year. tout ensemble is so little inviting that, in these laxurious days, few Englishmen would think solidation and extension of civil and religious rage, he rent his garments blasphemed the welcomes the Rev. Mr. Kent, the deputation sent state of things cannot long endure.— Commerce Sericole, a French paper, gives of offering it as a sleeping apartment of a despotism, may be anticipated with a high degree of offering it as a sleeping apartment of a despotism, may be anticipated with a high degree of this people towards their an account of the remarkable invention by trampling it under foot exclaimed, 'Perish then, other affiliated societies in B. N. America.

The address of the Rev. Mr. Kent which folpatience under priestly rule, grow hotter in the process of weaving. It reman servant. The book case is formed of confidence.

The crisis of actual hostilities, on a large simple boarding, and looks like a shifting closet that has been thrown aside in the look case is formed of confidence.

The address of the Rev. Mr. Kent which followed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed and knavery, and with it be crushed the suppressed indignation of their proud and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivately rule, grow hotter with this powerless emblem, a religion of false-lowed that has been thrown as in the process of the Rev. Mr. Kent which followed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale, by land and sea, may have already arrivation of their production of confidence.

The address of the Rev. Mr. Kent which followed, was one of unwonted interest. Not only and more intolerable daily, and the long-scale arrivation of their production of the confidence arrivation of the religion of the confidence arrivation of the religion of the confi lumber room of some old house. Some Bi- ed. All ears are open, waiting almost with imbles of various dates, and beneath these patience to catch the first sounds of intelligence the addressed threatening landard difficulties and defects. Thus for each passionate spirits must at length get the betather pope." He addressed threatening landard difficulties and defects. their pope." He addressed threatening language to the embassadors—"Then seizing his cross with both his hands, he fell on them and drove them from his presence, striking them redrove them from his presence, striking them rewas calculated to excite surprise and admirately was calculated to excite surprise and admirately may, the great convulsions, the rain of design; and when we bear in mind that for doubled blows." Who, after such scenes, can tion, even in the rinds of those who had been fire, shall come. Silence the voice of free- certain as many as 40,000 of these pieces of Microscope.—A German, in Cincinnent. emissaries of the elector, who brought him hither—and on the wall, framed and glazed, and cause the scale to preponderate in favour ing a veritable member of the church militant! ment. They had seen its design; they had on another occasion, when the pope, "attack admired the moral grandeur of its object, and burn in the secret heart. And so shall it In connection with the above, we may refer ed by a violent fever" was supposed to be in ex. traced with benignant exultation the history of be till the hour of her full and triumphant they cost about 15 francs, ($2,80) per hun-wings of a butterfly, adheres to the finger. mentioned, which stood in the neighbouring forest, was long known as Luther's beech, to a Lecture, recently delivered at Yarmouth, tremis, the historian of the league of Cambray, its efficiency—but Mr. Kent, in a style peculiar revelation in this her ancient realm—an another than the neighbouring forest, was long known as Luther's beech, to a Lecture, recently delivered at Yarmouth, tremis, the historian of the league of Cambray, its efficiency—but Mr. Kent, in a style peculiar revelation in this her ancient realm—an another than the neighbouring the delivered at Yarmouth, tremis, the historian of the league of Cambray, its efficiency—but Mr. Kent, in a style peculiar revelation in this her ancient realm—an another than the neighbouring that the neighbouring the neighbouring the neighbouring than the neighbouring that the neighbouring that the neighbouring that the neighbouring the neighbouring that the neighbo till it was at length struck by lightning, and on the subject of the War, by the Rev. W. Wilsays,—"

The holy father then appeared to reto himself unfolded the whole subject, inviting gel of deliverance to the captive, a Nemesis must be the cause of great expense as well longitudinal and transverse lines may be dis-

In closing this imperfect account of a meet- seated at a table, and seemed completely en- nish on a cylinder, or on a metallic leaf, with Lying in BED WITH THE HEAD HIGH.—It tence was conceived in these terms:—'In the ing, the memory of which will long live in the grossed by the chances of his game, the the battery. The current will pass only is often a question amongst people who are name of the Holy Trinity, the sacred general hearts of those who had the privilege to be precouncil, representing the universal church, after sent, we cannot refrain from felicitating the utterance of oaths as shocking and blas- be the corresponding threads only which will logy of man, whether lying with the head having taken the evils of the church into consi- Committee of the Parent Society on the desig- phemous as ever issued from human lips, remain suspended, and which by that means exalted, or even with the body, was the deration, declares, that it is necessary to labour nation of a gentleman as their Representative, Unlike another frier, named Father Ignatio, reproduce the design as it came from the most wholesome. Most, consulting their for the reform of abuses; and as it is especially whose admirable talents, extended range of an acquaintance of mine, and a jolly, yet hands of the artist. It is estimated that this own case on this point, argue in favored mportant for religion that the head of the church should set an example of Christian virtues, and are so happily coincident with the God-like object of the sin-blackened soul within. Yet this man was a minister at the altar and a sworn half.

To the friends of the Society who had not protector of Christ's flock: who held according the protector of Christ's flock: who held according the protector of Christ's flock: who held according the protector of Christ's flock who held according to the christ's flock who held according the protector of Christ's flock wh have unanimously decided that Jalius the Second the privilege of being present on this truly ing to his creed the power to absolve and the privilege of being present on this truly ing to his creed the power to absolve and attempt to force an appetite. Avoid salt their constitution when the heart to the Religious Items.

£1111 3 10 Protestantism was unknown—not a Protestaken, the stomach should be able to trans-The collection taken up at the meeting was tant clergyman was laboring in Constantino- form into good nourishment. A cup of boilple, nor a Protestant sermon preached, nor ed milk, with a table-spoonful of tea or cof- had no recollection of what he did, because, a Protestant school established; in 1854, in fee of the usual strength in it, is generally he was insanely drunk. His warning to the same city are 19 such clergymen; 26 acceptable.

Evangelical sermons are preached every The stomach must always be consulted; launched into eternity, is full of meaning.

ments with us in the diligent discharge of his correspondent of the Buffalo Christian Ad-" The Reforming Methodists are shiverriver, exciaiming, From henceforth, the popes shall only need the sword of St. Paul." The "keys of St. Peter," we suppose, went then to the fishes. Where do they dangle now? "The about the individual who will be elevated allowed to fall on the paper or the eyes of attach it to one or his fore feet, and one of to the Presidency. The most general opinion is that the Rev. John Farrar, the learn-then the eyes are not annoyed by the shadow steps ahead of the horse and pull their best says the historian, and desire to labor for the reform of the church, and especially of the Ro arm himself cap-a-pie, and, with sword in nand, head an army to demolish cities, and pillage and reform of the church, and especially of the Ro
Rev. J. R. Narraway's Lecture.

The head an army to demolish cities, and pillage and reform of the church, and especially of the pen, as will be the case, when the No matter how stubborn the animal maybe.

> numerous audience we ever remembered to nor thrust upon him by his brethren; and ing tries the eye more than reading, is a pofect cure.—Exchange. Italy, and delivered the earth from this abomipurpose of listening to a lecture from the Rev. give gratifying intelligence of the progress fatigued, bathing them in cold water will on Saturday morning, the 11th inst., a poor Mr. Narraway, on the subject of 'The Legal of the revival in Geneva. Among the Prohibition of the Traffic in Intoxicating symptoms mentioned are the continuous in-"All agree," the historian adds, "in saying, that the cardinal charged to administer the last that the cardinal charged to administer the last sacraments to him, having asked him what he chair, assisted by the President of the Charstruction and edification, on the week day had decided upon in regard to the prelates whom lottetown Total Abstinence Society, Mr. Law- as well as on the sabbath. Many Roman he had deposed, the dying man replied to him, son. A number of the members of both Houses Catholics, setting aside the commandments As man, I pardon them; as pope, I curse of the Legislature were present, by invitation. Catholics, setting aside the commandments of men, are studying the gospel with great them.' These words are enough to show that It is not our intention to give any analysis of assiduity, and a special course of public leccrable institution, since it commands hatred, and published; but this we will say, that a more was began in November, and will continue lucid, comprehensive and convincing discourse, till Easter, when the Proselytes will be re-Erasmus, in which Julius the Second is exhibit. same time abounding in pathos and nervous been listened to with lively and unabated morning. Ground glass shades, at night, imagination, than that which pours its been listened to with lively and unabated morning. necessary to exclude Protestants as far as the light downward, is better."

distributions greatly exceed those of last divided, horizontally, in the middle; one at St. John's Church, Brainford. In Geneva, the religious movement ad-

CONVERSIONS .- Ninety-eight converts an efficient agent in England, as a deputation has ber hosts of unsuspected and unscruput from Popery were, on Wednesday, the 5th of error and superstition and of more than semi-charbarism. No—we believe that the Most High who "ruleth in the kingdom of men," will maintain the right, that Russia will be beat back into her own fastnesses and Turkey and the fastness of them as the fastness into her own fastnesses and Turkey and her against the Duke of Ferrara. He conducted in the Church which had been kindly lent for the society for English Church Missions to gallons of water in twelve hours.

tant—whether he rejoice in the Reformation all who desire the moral and spiritual elevation and visited the batteries, armed from head to the unusually long passage of the steamer which but only, to let forth upon society their point the Reformation all who desire the moral and spiritual elevation and indistinguished co-religionists that the privile languished co-religion at Para, and daugnter of Daniel Courch is about to connect herself with the Church "the psalms in Metre." In 1661, the New an Methodist Missionary Society were held The title might be recommended, on acin this city last week, closing on Wednes-Therefore do I believe that the only day evening with a soirce. The addresses character, to some of the writers of books

Literary and Scientific.

wire with a current of electricity, either po- which gives the enormous sum of forty-two G. D. Brewerton, in writing some inci-sitive or negative, at will, and the result is, thousand millions in one square inchelectricity, a series of points is arranged in and rosary most conspicuously displayed, was neath these points the design traced in var-

say unto his people, "Go in peace; thy sins cious; for in disease, the stomach partakes level with the body; and people ought to of the delibility of the body and requires rest. Fresh meat, game, poultry, and fresh danger.—Medical Journal. fish, with plain vegetables, rice, bread, milk, A VOICE FROM THE GALLOWS. - On Friday

Sabbath in different languages, and 14 pro- though I deny the indulgence of morbid -He exhorted them to beware of the testant schools are established. Including cravings after that which is injurious, I do intoxicating cup: it ruined him, and finally the city, there are at this time in the Turkish not on the other hand, fix upon any exclus- brought him to a disgraceful and awful end. empire, not less than 65 protestant preach- ively "fish," "farinaceous," " milk," or " veers; and though among them there are re- getable" diet, but-leave the appetite to roam A BEAUTIFUL CONCERT.—Some author. presentatives of several different branches over all, selecting from each that for which we remember not who, informs us how we Wickwire, Esq., and carried by a unanimous towns and villages of the empire, there are The best exercise, all things being favour- the morning sunlight of creation. Eve, Protestant assemblies for Divine worship able, is on horseback, if too weak to sit on she gazed upon the tintless gem, could not horse back, a carriage drive should be taken suppress her admiration of its beauty. box every fine day, being careful to avoid currents of air, and facing the wind. If the carriage is a close one, open the window on tinge from her velvet lip, and yet wears it the side from which there is the least wind. A Good Thought. - John Howard, having As a protection to the chest against cold, settled his accounts at the close of a partie wear flannel next to the skin; over which, ular year, and found a balance in his favor, a shirt made of "chamois skin." This proposed to his wife to make use of itint hould come well up about the neck, and descend below the waist. Never, on any consideration, allow the body to become chila a poor family it would boild!" was her

"On Wednesday evening last, the most College, Richmond, will have this high holight comes from the other side. That writ- a few doses of such treatment effects a perpular error; and in writing, blueish paper ... The religious journals of Switzerland is better than white. When the eyes feel Suicide.—The Frederick Herald says both strengthen and relieve them. In read-unfortunate young woman, named Matilda ing, great relief will be found if the eyes Oliver, whilst laboring under a fit of manie are turned from the book to some soft and apotu, cut her throat with a razor, severing harmonious colour. Brilliant colours, therefore in paper or print, should not be chosen after expired. The verdict of the Coroner for a library or setting-room, where either inquest was, that the deceased "came to be reading, or writing, or sowing is going on. death by cutting her throat with a rass, For sowing, that peculiar feminine employ- whilst laboring under aberration of miss ment, is quite as trying to the eye as study; caused by intemperance." and fine sewing at night is really very inju- THE BIBLE.—We love the Bible. ious, and should be avoided if possible. - can conceive no severer calamity to the Generally the eyes should be used, in all than to be deprived of its pure morally ceived into Church-fellowship. They have these occupations, as much as can be, in the and we know of no blacker gloom, even interest, and the assembly room being too are bad, as they deaden the light too much; dows over the soul when the weary spin small for the audience, it has been found the common paper shade, which concentrates breaking through the dissolving walls of

FACTS FOR THE CURIOUS.—A fish, peculiar The Tract Society of Lausanne signalizes to Surinam, called anibleps, has the front, ble! Then is the world one grand enign a state of manifest progress; the number of or cornea, of the eye, shaped like the two a tangled tissue of contradictions, unans subscribers has considerably increased, the sides of a glass prism; the pupil is therefore ed and irreconcilable. year, and nine new districts have joined the half being adapted for seeing in the air, and of the Bible possessed by the Romish possessed by the Romis the other in the water. These singular fish in France, read the following :- A production ... We learn from the Church Times that es run out of the deep water into the slimy cried from the pulpit of St. Sulpice, and two adult converts from Romanism were re- banks of the river, in quest of a species of the parishes of the Capital:-The cently received into the Church of England worm, which forms their principal susten- Virgin has said-Come unto me all ye at Whitechurch Cononicorum, Dorset, by auce ; in doing which, their bodies are ne- are weary and heavy laden." the Rev. W. Palmer. In the evening of cessarily half out of water. Thus, while the same day six other converts, three male searching in the mud with the lower division and three female, (numbering with their fa- of their eyes, with the upper they keep a vimilies fifteen persons) were publicly received gilant watch on their constant enemies, the "Virtue consists in doing our duty, in birds of prey.

A cabbage will throw out, during its growth, vances rapidly. The Protestant meetings in the form of insensible vapor, half its as known from reason, conscience and reve tionate regard of the friends of the Bible on this and high-handed political crime. It is true, liged to remain away that the Romanists than three feet high, threw off two pounds wards a purer faith cherished by all ranks from the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards and the several affiliated societies on this side in the Emperor downwards and the several affiliated societies on this side in the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downwards, must see at a glance, the Emperor downwards are the Emperor downw Protestant communion. - Western Ch. Ad- water in 77 days, a little more than 33 grains so on earth it is often more powerful. per day; and a sprig of nightshade weigh- lowly and the loving may often do more ing 49 grains, threw off 3,700 grains in the their own limited sphere than the gifted same time, or more than 48 grains per day. It has been calculated that an acre of land glorious result will be devoutly prayed for, by every lover of civil and religious freedom,—by lover of civil and religious freedom,—by promise of the sack of the city, doffed his cuirass, would have been filled to overflowing, although liquisition may be emptied, thrown open, were account a bound and religious freedom and an arrived in Loudon of America, was "worked at Cambridge, Mass., we are happy the ar is in good health.—Wall were happy the are is in good health.—Wall man.

The third book published by him, was the Indian language by Eiliot, the great . Anniversary meetings of the Wesley- Missionary, were printed at a cost of £3,200.

The whole Bible was printed in this lan. guage in 1663. The nation speaking it is

ZERLAND.—The remains of a Roman city named Taurentunum, have lately been die locks in the valley of the Rhone, just like a bed higher than the body.

GUTTA PERCHA PAPER .-- A Frenchman

ered 1

attach

on who

and h than tion of soap of pressi there perty saxes, dinar, the year with t bits a

on the which and reand a the re accustom themselves to sleep thus to: avoid and weak tea or coffee, should make the diet week last, in Pittsburg, Jewell the murder-PROTESTANTISM IN TURKEY .- In 1830 of the consumptive invalid. Whatever is er, paid the penalty on the gallows. He were all of a pure and spotless white when journey to London, or in any other amuse. ment she chose. "What a pretty cottage for the jugular vein and wind pipe, and soot

earthly house, unsolaced by this light of life

WHAT IS VIRTUE ?- A student put this question to the late Dr. Archibald Alexander. - His simple and admirable reply #35 several relations that we sustain, in respect to ourselves, to our fellow-men, and to God, from his important mission. The Rev. Gently THE FIRST PRINTING PRESS set up in man arrived in Lopdon on Monday evening.