Synopsis of Canadian North-West HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

The homesteader is required to perform the homestead duties under one of the following plans:

- (1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.
- (2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.
- (3) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased) of a homesteader has permanent residence on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of the homestead, or upon a homestead entered for by him in the vicinity, such homesteader may perform his own residence duties by living with the father (or mother).
- (4) The term "vicinity" in the two preceding paragraphs is defined as meaning not more than nine miles in a direct line, exclusive of the width of road allowances crossed in the measurement.
- (5) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

Six months' notice in writing must be given to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of intention to apply for patent.

W. W. CORY,

Deputy of the Minister of the Interior.

If it were proved that missions were ever so bad, as they were sometimes said to be, the conclusion is simply that the missionaries are doing the work in the wrong way. We still have to do our best for the heathen.—Bishop of St. John's, Kaffraria.

The congregation of Calvary Church, Santa Cruz, in the Diocese of California, recently presented their esteemed rector, the Rev. C. O. Tillotson, with a well-filled purse on the twenty-fifth anniversary of his induction as rector of the parish. The clergy of the Convocation of St. Jose presented him with a handsome Morris chair as a token of their regard and esteem.

The parish church of Harold's Cross in the Diocese of Dublin has lately been enriched by a number of memorial gifts, which include a beautiful chancel window, to perpetuate the memory of the late Rev. W. B. Askin, who was for nearly half a century the rector of the parish, a Communion Table, a Prayer Desk, chancel chairs and offertory plates. All of these gifts were dedicated a short time ago by His Grace the Archbishop of Dublin in the presence of a large congregation.

The Archbishop of Canterbury, accompanied by Mrs. Davidson, has been making a tour in a motor-car through the scattered parishes in the Romney Marsh. In each district he visited the church, and also addressed the school children. At Dymchurch he expressed his approval of the plans prepared by Mr. J. A. Reeve, of Westminster, for the restoration of the church, which will cost at least £1,000. It is many years since an Archbishop was seen in some of the parishes, and the first occasion on which a motorist successor of St. Augustine has visited the district.

The funeral service of the late Most Rev. Dr. Wilkinson, Primus of Scotland, took place in the church of which he had been vicar, previous to his elevation to the Episcopate as Bishop of Truro, St. Peter's, Eaton Square, London. Before the body left Scotland special services were held both in St. Mary's Cathedral, Edinburgh, and St. Ninian's Cathedral, Perth. The Lord Bishop of London officiated, and Bishop Richardson, Canon Body, Prebendary Storrs, the vicar of the parish, and His Grace the Archbishop of Canterbury also took part. The body of the Bishop was finally laid to rest in Brompton Cemetery, the Rev. Canon Scott-Holland, of St. Paul's Cathedral, saying the sentence of committal. A very large number of people attended the funeral service, both at the church and afterwards at the grave. There was a special memorial service held at the same time in Truro Cathedral, the Bishop of the diocese and of St. Germans taking part, at which there was also a large attendance.
