In those plains of Central Africa where as far as the eye can reach, there is nothing but sand, billowing like the sea, luxuriant creepers are found which are covered with large berries, each of them containing about two teaspoonfuls of palatable water. So says Campbell, the noted explorer. Our own western deserts contain water-bearing plants, with which the Indians are familiar and make large use of. What a merciful provision of Providence this is!

Prior to the meeting of the Synod of Down for the purpose of electing a Bishop to fill the vacant See at a large gathering of the clergy of the United Diocese of Down, Connor, and Dromore, which was held in the Hewitt Memorial Hall, Belfast, the new Primate was presented with a Primatial ring and an illuminated address. The Ven. the Archdeacon of Down presided, and the primatial ring was placed on Dr. Crozier's finger by the Rev. Canon Pouden, the senior beneficed clergyman in the United Diocese.
