

THE CITY PRINTING

An Interesting Point Raised as to the Bids.

A PAWNBROKERS' BYLAW

The City Decides to Acquire a Title to the Streams Adjacent to the City For the City For the Reason That Private Parties Are Locating Them.

The city printing matter was the principal subject of discussion at the council meeting Tuesday night, the debate being whether or not the council should award the city advertising to a non-union office tendering an offer, on the ground that it was the lowest bid. No conclusion was come to, further than to leave the matter temporarily in the hands of the mayor until the next council meeting. A pawnshop ordinance was read for the first time, and the council decided to take up for the city the water rights to the streams adjacent to the city.

The city printing came up at the opening of the meeting. The first communication to be read was from W. H. Jones, the proprietor of the Rossland, who pointed out that an offer made by a local publisher for doing the city printing at a nominal cost should not be considered by the council, as the paper in question was a non-union paper at the time the offer was made, and furthermore that the tender in question was not a bona fide one, as it offered to do work for less than the cost of printing; and that the publisher was an alien, and debarred from doing city work.

A communication was also received from the president and one from the secretary of the Typographical Union, to the effect that the paper in question was a non-union office at the time it made the offer to do the city printing. The last communication was from the managing editor of THE MINER, to the effect that THE MINER, the Times and the Rosslander were the only papers eligible to tender for the city printing at the time the tenders were received, and also that THE MINER, from the fact of its being a daily publication, was the most available medium which the city could select as the official paper.

There was considerable discussion. The point chiefly in debate was whether or not the publisher with the cheap bid was square with the union, and hence eligible to submit a tender at the time tenders for doing the city advertising were submitted. The matter was temporarily settled by leaving it in the hands of the mayor until the next council meeting. Alderman Raymer ably led the debate on behalf of the newspapers employing union labor. His remarks evidently had their influence with the council.

Alderman Raymer submitted a bylaw for the regulation of pawnbrokers, and it was read for the first time. It contained the provisions common to such ordinances, and was for the aid of the police department in tracing stolen goods.

Alderman Johnson announced that J. Kirkup, the chief constable for this district, had consented to let the city's account with the province for the use of the jail run until the first of the year, on condition that the rent for the building, at the rate of $15 per month, be paid in advance. The offer was accepted. The city will be required to board its prisoners, and one of the policemen will need to act as jailer. The new jail at Trail will henceforth be used by the province for detaining prisoners in this section.

The council also decided to appropriate the water from the neighboring streams, as it appeared that water-locations were already being filed, and the aldermen wished to avoid any difficulties that might arise in future.

A SHYLOCK IN COURT

An Officer of the Guards a Victim of the Plot.

LONDON, Nov. 30.—The lord chief justice is hearing an interesting case which is attracting the attention of club men and members of the aristocracy. It is the suit of a money lender, who is seeking to recover from an officer of the guards, named Clay, the sum of £11,113 due on two promissory notes cashed for Lord William Neville. Sir Edward Clark, F.C., representing Clay, examined the plaintiff, and showed that Lord Neville had borrowed large sums at 30 to 40 per cent interest, and that in one case recently the parents of a youth, who had endorsed Lord Neville's unpaid notes, paid the plaintiff $40,000. Sir Edward Clark alleged that Neville secured Clay's endorsement by trickery, by asking Clay to witness his signature to family documents of a private character. These documents, the counsel explained, were covered by a paper in which there were slits, where Clay was asked to sign. The latter demurred and asked to see the documents, whereupon he was told that the documents referred to the divorce of Neville's sister, Lady Cawley. Clay accepted the explanation and signed, without having any idea, until he was sued, that he was signing promissory notes.

Clay testified in corroboration of the statement made by Sir Edward Clark, and said that after the discovery of the trick played on him, he taxed Lord William with it, and the latter asked the guardsman to hold his tongue for a short while, as otherwise Lord Neville would be ruined for life. Finally Clay called Neville a swindler.

At the close of today's testimony the case was adjourned. The money lender in the case is "Sam" Lewis, who has been connected with most of the big money lending scandals.

The court was crowded today when hearing of the case was resumed. Lord Chief Justice Russell, in summing up, said he thought the jury would have no difficulty in answering the questions of fact, adding that the really difficult and important questions would remain for him (the chief justice) to determine later on. The whole story, Lord Russell explained, was melancholy and sad. His lordship then put five questions to the jury. The principal one was: "Is Clay's account of the circumstances under which he signed his name true?" The answer was "Yes." Another question asked was worded: "Was Clay, in signing his name as he did, recklessly careless, thereby enabling Neville to perpetrate a fraud?" The answer was "No."

Under the circumstances it was also found that Clay was the victim of misplacéd confidence. Arguments on the findings have been reserved until Saturday.

AFTER MANY YEARS

A Sufferer Is Restored to Health and Strength.

Suffered From Weak Heart and Could Not Safely Walk Any Distance—Now the Pulse of Life Was Adjusted.

From the Cornwall Freeholder.

The romance of unwritten facts of real life exceeds the rich elaboration of fiction. A peep behind the scenes would furnish us with adequate proof that there is more of care, trial and severe anxiety in human life than floats on the surface. We find many whose experience has almost incessantly fluctuated between health and sickness, little if any of this is attributed upon the notice of the world, or breathed into human ear. You may secure the confidence of some of these sufferers who will rehearse to you dark catalogue of pains and aches that are often ill understood by the friends and inadequately treated by the physician. Thanks be to the mighty genius that discovered the now famous panacea for the ills to which humanity is subjected under a shattering nerve system. Thousands have, and thousands are still using to the greatest advantage Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have passed the ordeal of experiment again and again with ever increasing honor. The following statement is from one who was rescued from seeming permanent enfeeblement and distressing heart action. Mary Fisher of Lancaster township, Glengarry county, is a maiden lady. About eight years ago Miss Fisher was seized with weakness and a distressing sensation in the region of the heart. It was attributed to several causes, all possibly more or less true; they were overwork, exposure, etc. She was certainly weak and the action of the heart was abnormally rapid. The doctor in attendance pronounced the ailment nervous palpitation of the heart, and she received treatment accordingly for two years. At this stage she took her bed she was so low. For 12 months she lay receiving only domestic attention. She improved somewhat, however, and was able to be taken to a friend of hers near Lancaster village, Mrs. J. Hancy, where she was under medical attendance and took medicine for about three years. At the end of this time she could not safely venture to walk out even a short distance. All this time she complained of her heart. About two years ago she began taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, from this date she began what proved a steady restoration of nervous energy. During the summer of 1896 the improvement was marked. She was able by the middle of the summer to do as much work and walking as most ordinary women, and so satisfactory and apparently permanent is the cure that Miss Fisher has gone to her former home. Such are the unvarnished facts of a remarkable case. The lady was persistent, tenacious and hard to fight. But the constant use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills wrought a marvellous change, which Miss Fisher's friend said might be profitably known to many others.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the disease. They renew and build up the strength of the nerves, thus driving disease from the system. Avoid imitations by insisting that every box you purchase is enclosed in a wrapper bearing the full trade mark, Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People.

DRAMATIC COURT SCENE.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 1.—Under the indeterminate sentence law operative in this state, the convicted bank president may be kept in prison from one to 15 years. The length of sentence above one year rests with the board of prison commissioners. Judge Horton reviewed the case in an elaborate opinion which he had prepared beforehand. One assertion in the opinion seemed to unnerve Spaulding. This was when the court said that he admitted his guilt.

"I wish," cried Spaulding, "to deny that I or my counsel ever admitted my guilt. I protest against this unjust verdict, which I feel would not have been returned had your honor permitted certain facts to be considered by the jury. These facts had relation to the question of intent—intent to commit embezzlement. I am proud of my business career of 33 years, 15 of which have been passed in this community. Your honor may abridge my days of usefulness, but you cannot take from me the honor of the past."

At this point Spaulding's voice failed him and he began to choke with emotion. Judge Horton then imposed sentence. The charge on which Spaulding was convicted was the embezzlement of $25,000 worth of bonds, the property of the University of Illinois.

MINES AND MINING

Showing on the Sunset Is of an Encouraging Nature.

25 MEN ARE AT WORK

Three New Mining Corporations Filed With the Registrar of Mines—Work Is to Be Pushed on the Famous B. C. Property Near Greenwood.

The main tunnel on the Sunset No. 2 is now in 335 feet, and the showing continues to be most encouraging. For the past 50 feet the tunnel has been in a good body of ore about three and one-half feet wide, carrying pyrrhotite and quartz. Of late the proportion of quartz has been increasing somewhat, and copper in considerable bunches has been coming in. The tunnel is being driven along the footwall, which of late has been marked by a narrow streak of decomposed spar.

Work has been commenced upraising to connect the tunnel with the No. 1 shaft, and the connection will be completed in about a week. A depth of 110 feet is attained by the tunnel at this level, and the shaft is already down for 55 feet, so that only about an equal length of upraising is required. The vein in the shaft is between five and six feet wide, between beautifully defined walls. When the present connection is completed a station will be cut out at the tunnel level, and the shaft will be sunk to 500 feet, with drifts at every 100-foot station.

The No. 3 shaft, which is being operated by power, is now down 70 feet, and the showing is very good.

Twenty-five men are being employed upon the property, and work is under way with air drills at three places. As fast as more men can be utilized, they will be employed.

New Mining Ventures.

The following companies have registered and their registration is published in the last issue of the British Columbia Gazette:

The Goldendale Mining company, an extra provincial company. Capital stock, $1,500,000, divided into 1,500,000 shares of $1 each. The head office of the company is located in Spokane, Wash., and the head office in the province is at Nelson. The object is to carry on a general mining business.

The Crawford Creek Mining company, a non-provincial company, with a capital stock of $1,000,000, divided into 1,000,000 shares of $1 each. The head office is in Spokane, Wash., and the head office in the province is at Nelson. A certificate of incorporation has been filed of the Gold Miners' Forwarding & Investment company, limited. The capital is $500,000, divided into 100,000 shares of $5 each. The object is to facilitate the equipment, outfitting and transportation of persons intending to outfit for the purpose of engaging in gold mining in British Columbia and to carry on a general mining business. The head office is in Victoria.

The B. C. Property.

A. H. Harrison of Greenwood, who is operating the famous B. C. property near there, is in the city on business. Mr. Harrison says that the shaft is now down about 75 feet, and the showing is very fine. Some of the best copper ore in the Boundary country is being discovered. While here Mr. Harrison purchased from the Canadian Rand Drill company a complete outfit, consisting of a compressor, a hoist and a pump. The machinery will be put in at once and it is the intention to push work vigorously. There are half a dozen mines in that vicinity which are putting in machinery.

The Royal Gold Properties.

A. H. Stiles, who is conducting the development of the Royal Gold company's properties, came up yesterday from the Pioneer group, just south of the international boundary line near Big Sheep creek, where he has been working the Standard. Surface specimens, which he brought with him, are very encouraging. They show a great deal of mineralized quartz carrying iron and very noticeable quantities of the sample are from a blind lead opened up by a surface prospect.

Ore From the Iron Quad.

In the office of Baner & Parker is some showy looking ore that came from the Iron Quad group on Sullivan creek. There are six claims in the group and the ore carries gold, copper and iron. Near the surface the assays gave values as high as $20, but now that a depth of 40 feet has been reached more copper is seen in the ore and the other values are increasing. The group is owned by Lee Clearwater and others.

TURKS MALTREAT A RUSSIAN.

ATHENS, Nov. 30.—M. Tcherbatshoff, secretary of the Russian embassy at Constantinople, who is a member of the committee for the repatriation of the Thessalian refugees, was attacked yesterday by beggars at Volo, the principal port of Thessaly. A Turkish military patrol that was passing joined the beggars in the attack, and M. Tcherbatshoff was knocked down by one of his assailants. He was badly battered and bruised with rifle, and eventually bound with cords. The English, French and Italian members of the committee, arrived on the scene at this point, and after much talk succeeded in getting the crowd off. An aide of the sultan then arrested M. Tcherbatshoff, and his colleagues had much difficulty in obtaining his release by protesting against the outrage to Enver Pasha. The incidents have stirred the diplomats and are likely to stiffen Russia in her dealings with Turkey.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The date for the opening of the Slocan road from the Kootenay river up to Slocan City, has been deferred until December 6. The celebration to be given on that occasion has also been deferred.

Judge Forin convened county court yesterday in the old Masonic hall on East Columbia avenue, but was called away last evening by telegram, and it is uncertain when court will reconvene.

IRISH NATIONALISTS.

They Are Sending Petitions to Congress Against Arbitration Treaty.

New York, Nov. 26.—A petition to the senators of the United States was issued today from the headquarters of the Irish National assembly against the general treaty of arbitration with England. The petition will be circulated by the various councils of the alliance throughout this country, the Ancient Order of Hibernians and other Irish-American societies. The petition states that the advocates of the arbitration treaty here are the modern American Tories, descendants of men who would have hanged Washington, among the number being Bishop Doane of Albany, N. Y., a well-known supporter of the A. P. A., who upon returning from a conference in Lambeth Palace, London, actually urged that our histories should be falsified, so that young Americans gay grow up in the love and fear, not of God, but of England.

CUSTOMS REGULATIONS.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 1.—The minister of customs has decided upon two new regulations of interest to Canadian business men. Packages through the post, on which there is duty to pay, will now go direct from the boundary to the customs house nearest to destination. Exporters will be required to make a return to the railway companies of goods shipped from Canada, to insure greater accuracy in figures furnished the authorities.

The government has let the contract for the construction of a 2 1/2 mile canal to Ryan & Macdonald of Toronto. The work must be finished by October 31 next to fulfill the terms of agreement. These are the sections that were taken off Contractor Archie Stewart's hands by order of Minister Blair.

The interstate commerce commission recently issued an order that all railways must be supplied with patent couplers and air brakes in accordance with the law of 1893. Yesterday, at Washington, District of Columbia, attorneys for the railway pleaded an extension of the time and the representatives of the railway employees argued against such extension, alleging that delay meant death and mutilation to many railway employees.

The conference then closed without further business, leaving the matter exactly where it stood before the meeting.

BEAT THE RECORD.

SOUTHAMPTON, Nov. 29.—The North German Lloyd steamer Kaiser Wilhelm der Grosse, captain Englehart, which left New York on Nov. 23rd, passing the Sandy Hook lightship at about 4.30 p. m., arrived here this afternoon, passing the Needles at 2.10. The steamer was delayed 25 minutes in standing by a burning ship, but in spite of this he broke the record for the highest average speed across the ocean, his per hour averaging 22.35 knots. The total distance covered was 3,065 knots and the passage lasted 137 hours, 8 minutes, or 5 days, 17 hours, 8 minutes, from which, of course, should be deducted 25 minutes lost in standing by the burning ship, which would make his actual passage 5 days, 18 hours, 43 minutes, though he is only allowed a record of 5 days, 17 hours, 8 minutes by marine experts.
