COMPANY HAD SPLENDID YEAR

The annual meeting of the Goodf. Shapley and Muir Company, the 21st in the history of the business, was held Saturday afternoon in the board room at the factory, a large number of the shareholders being present. Mr. E. L. Goodf., the president, occupied the chair and read the annual report of the directors, which was of a very satisfactory character. Nowithstanding the depression so general throughout Canada in the manufacturing business the Goodf. Shapley and Muir Co. did a larger turnover by nearly $40,000 than the year before. The usual satisfactory cash dividend was declared; also a ten per cent stock dividend. During the year the factory staff was kept well employed a pleasing contrast to many other manufacturing concerns throughout the country.

The capable general manager, Mr. John Muir in a lucid address touched upon many points of interest in connection with the year's work. A pleasing new feature of the firm's output is the manufacture of an engine which will use coal oil instead of the more expensive gasoline. A greatly improved windmill has also been evolved. Mr. Muir thinks the business outlook for 1914 is most encouraging. In the west the firm has recently completed a very handsome warehouse in Regina.

Speeches of a eulogistic character were made by Mr. W. H. Shapley, Mr. H. Yeigh, Mr. W. H. Whitaker, Mr. C. Cook, Mr. F. Leeming, Mr. A. Burnley, Dr. E. Hart, Mr. R. H. Reville and others. The old board of directors was unanimously re-elected.

SUNDAY IN THE LOCAL CHURCHES

Inspiring Services Throughout City-Helpful Sermons.

ALEXANDRA CHURCH. The Rev. D. T. McClintock's morning subject was founded on the text "Remember, Lot's Wife." A day of judgment is coming and when it comes, people will need to act promptly. We must not hesitate, loiter or linger. Let our decision be complete. If we have not responded to the call of God, the sin lies at our door. The warning of the text may apply to much sin in our church and in our individual life. We loiter and linger too near the border of sin; because we look back instead of looking steadily forward.

In the anthem, "Seek ye the Lord," the solo parts were sung by Miss Marlette and Mr. Cullen the obligato solo, and the obligato part was pleasingly rendered by Miss Marlette. The usual bright song service was held in the evening. The pastor requested the congregation to sing "I am so glad that Jesus Loves Me," to the tune of the "Glorious Song" and the audience responded heartily. In the anthem "Still, Still with Thee," the solo parts were admirably sung by Miss Josephine Waldron. Mr. Harold was present and delighted all with his splendid rendition of "Consider and Help Me." "Spiritual Outlook" was the pastor's theme.

The Rev. Llewellyn Brown of the First Baptist Church will occupy the pulpit next Sunday morning. All the services were well attended. The pastor, Rev. R. D. Hamilton, preached two excellent sermons. His morning theme was "Preparing for War," thus appropriately inaugurating a new series of special studies for evangelistic work. Mr. Hamilton's evening subject was "Modern Development in Theology," being a review of Winston Churchill's book, "The Inside of the Cup." Many beautiful and helpful thoughts were brought out. Owing to a burst pipe in the heating system the morning service was held in the Lecture Hall. The break was soon repaired and the evening service was held in the auditorium.

Mrs. J. Limburg and Miss Mabel Limburg sang a duet at Sunday school with piano and organ accompaniment by Miss Graham and Mr. Darwin. The choir music was well rendered. The evening anthem, "Hearken unto Me, My People" (Sullivan) was particularly pleasing. The assisting soloists for the day were Misses Corinne Chave and Mabel Limburg and Mrs. Robert Thompson.

At Marlborough St. The congregation at Marlborough St. Methodist church last evening was addressed by Mr. G. L. Goodwin of the Y.M.C.A. Miss Agnes Butler rendered a solo. The attendance at the Sunday School service was quite large.

Colborne St. Brotherhood. Every member Sunday was observed by the Colborne St. church brotherhood yesterday morning. The attendance was large. Mr. G. L. Goodwin of the Y. M. C. A. The speaker took for his subject "Compelled Men." Mrs. Frank Leeming rendered a solo.

Tutela Rink Great. "Tutela rink is absolutely free," said the management to-day, "and we want people to enjoy this enterprise. The rink is serving to keep an enormous crowd of youngsters and young men in the city in spite of the efforts of Dan Welsh, the driver to keep the frightened team in the road. The sleigh fell on top of the team and it was necessary to cut the harness to free the team, which was but slightly injured. The driver jumped and in landing received injuries to his knee, but they were not of a very serious nature."

The sleigh fell on top of the team and it was necessary to cut the harness to free the team, which was but slightly injured. The driver jumped and in landing received injuries to his knee, but they were not of a very serious nature.

A Sermon On Strangers

Rev. T. E. Holling Delivers Interesting Discourse on Novel Subject.

"We ought to be ashamed of our attitude to the foreigner," said Rev. T. E. Holling, pastor of Colborne St. Methodist Church, when addressing his congregation last evening. The pastor took for his subject, "A Sermon to Strangers." He made it plain that all mankind was a stranger. He took two texts, Duteronomy, 10:19 "Thou shalt neither vex a stranger, nor oppress, for ye were strangers in the land of strangers"; also Matthew 23:42 "I was a stranger and yet took me not in."

Speaking of immigrants, Mr. Holling said that 3 per cent of the population of the Dominion was composed of foreigners and because of their large numbers a large per cent of many kinds of work was done by them. They should not be treated as they sometimes are, frequently being referred to in the meanest of ways. To be so-called, the Dominion owes the gospel of a square deal and neighborliness. "We are not to forget we are told that we were once strangers. We are to do what Christ would do."

The drift of to-day is to the city and the cities where four fifths of the population of Great Britain reside, contribute a great part. A man is in a perfect wilderness when he first comes to reside in a city. The first two weeks residence there may be his hell or his paradise. It was the duty of the citizens to protect the stranger and not have a saloon on the corner. "We have a duty to the stranger and the stranger has a duty to us."

The pastor said that a good work was being done for the stranger by the Y. W. C. A., the Y. M. C. A. and the W. C. T. U. Referring to strangers within the church the pastor said: "The church which looks best after the stranger, is the church of the future." Come and test our hospitality; we are not running an ice plant; make people feel at home and you have solved the great problem."

While the pastor made it quite clear that it was the duty of the members of the church to welcome strangers, it was also the duty of the stranger to come half way. A stranger should not come into a church, find the back seat and as soon as the benediction was announced, shoot out the door as if shot from a cannon. "You cannot expect people will fall over you to greet you."

In conclusion the pastor dealt with his subject spiritually. The best thing to do is to bring a little bit of heaven down to earth."
