U.S. SOLDIERS M.H.C. ALLIES CARE FOR GREEK REFUGEEES

Experts Also Investigate Methods and Equipment In Canadian Hospitals

The United States, now facing the problem of providing institutions in which to care for wounded and crippled soldiers and want of these vocational training and re-education along industrial lines, is drawing upon the experience of the Military Hospitals Commission of Canada and giving close attention to its standardized plans for hospital and sanatoria.

Among those were representatives from the New York and Illinois Councils who asked for copies of the plans of the standard hospitals and sanatoria worked out by Capt. W. L. Symons, officer in charge of the Works Branch of the Canadian Commission, to be used in planning their buildings.

One of these things is the unsuitability of the large concentrated hospital center where two or three thousand patients will be treated. It seems a great plan until you introduce the human element of family associations. For efficiency and economy in treating men with the ambition to give them the advantage of the best possible medical attention in mind soon lost in when they see many recommendations, but when you look at it from the man's point of view it is not.

Canadian Construction The Canadian plan of construction is not in accord with the plans generally followed in England and for some reason widely endorsed for temporary hospitals, in that it has two stories. The American investigators who came with the one storey plan in mind soon lost in when they see the relative costs of the Canadian plan for similar accommodation. The same number of patients can be provided for in the one storey structure of the standardized M. H. C. plan at a saving of 25 per cent. over the single storey structure.

Food for dinner was being issued as the party passed. Each family had a card showing its number and needs, and only one member of the family is recognized in presenting these cards. Their holders were gathered in long lines, men, women and children. The British furnish a good part of their army rations, with British, American and French rice and beans.

Dr. Edward W. Ryan, head of the American Red Cross here, took the initiative in starting these camps, which now represent one of the largest relief works of recent years. While the conflagration was still raging, he had set up soup kitchens, and within twelve hours of the start of the fire he was feeding 2,500 people.

BREAD CARDS IN PARIS Associated Press. Paris, Nov. 3.—Bread cards have been issued to the housewives of Paris, though the regime has not yet been instituted. The ration which was fixed at a pound per day per head by the preceding Minister of Provisions, will probably not exceed a half pound per head. Bulgarians, whose principal resources are agricultural, allows a pound a day. Bread rations to civilians in belligerent and neutral countries to date are as follows:

Bulgaria, 16 ounces, Denmark, 10 ounces, Germany, 9 ounces, Austria 9 ounces, Sweden 8 1/2, Holland 8 ounces, Switzerland 8 ounces, Italy 8 ounces, England (families) 8 ounces, England (restaurants) 7 1/2 ounces, Turkey 5 ounces. Bread is made in Germany of flour containing 94 per cent of wheat, in Austria the flour is 90 per cent, while 85 per cent is used in France.
